QUIZ EMPLOYES ABOUT ZINTAK'S LOANS TO THEM

Ousted Court Clerk Wins Delay.

In a surprise move last night, State's Attorney Courtney called in and questioned all employés in the office of the clerk of the Superior court about their personal financial relations with Frank V. Zintak, who was ousted from the clerkship last Thursday because an audit disclosed a $22,560 shortage in his accounts.

Courtney's maneuver came after Zintak had won a delay until next Tuesday in his rearraignment in Criminal court on charges of embezzlement.

Questioned on Pay Advances.

The employés were questioned singly by Assistant State's Attorneys Robert Wright and Jewell Burk. The prosecutors masked the nature of their inquiries but it is understood that they asked each worker whether he had ever received salary advances or loans from Zintak and whether he had paid the money back.

A majority of them admitted such loans, it was learned from other sources, and a dozen said they still owed Zintak money—in all about $3,000 remaining unpaid.

The reason for the state's attorney's investigation is reported to be that Zintak may insist the shortage in his accounts is due, at least in part, to advances made by him to his staf members during the depression when they received no salaries for long periods.

Purported Confession Disavowed.

After Zintak's arraignment the first thing yesterday morning, Attorney Stephen Love handed out a statement prepared by defense counsel in which the ousted court clerk, in the best manner of Robert M. [You Owe Me $216,000] Sweitzer, denied ever having confessed the embezzlement of escrow funds while in office. The pronouncement declared Zintak and his attorneys were unaware of it if a shortage existed.

Indeed, it read, "all rumors as to a purported confession are wholly groundless as are reports of any proposed restitution."

Stenographic Record Submitted.

The word "rumors" referred apparently to an assertion made last Wednesday by State's Attorney Courtney's assistants that Zintak had confessed diverting escrow funds to political "and other" purposes, and that a stenographer had recorded Zintak's "confession." This stenographic document is understood to have been submitted to the grand jury.

Mr. Zintak, according to yesterday's statement, would like to give the public all the details of the case, but since he has been indicted on a charge of embezzlement he feels he must "refrain from presenting our defense in advance of the trial." The statement declares Zintak is entitled to the presumption of innocence.

And Attorney Love concludes in yesterday's pronouncement, "We cannot believe that the people of this community have lost confidence in Frank V. Zintak by reason of an unfounded and unprovable assertion."

State's Attorney Courtney refused comment on Zintak's statement.

Answers "Not Guilty" in Court.

Zintak appeared early at the Criminal courts building with his brother Andrew and Attorney Love. In the court of Chief Justice Michael L. McKinley the three sat for almost an hour before Zintak's case was called, the indictment read and the defendant's faint "not guilty" uttered.

He was permitted to withdraw this plea when Attorney Love informed the court that a motion to quash the indictment would be filed. Judge McKinley transferred the case for trial to Judge Robert C. O'Connell, who is to hear the quash motion. This document Attorney Love agreed to file next Monday and to argue Tuesday.

Attorney Benedict J. Short, who won Sweitzer's acquittal of charges of withholding $533,817 from his successor in the office of county clerk, did not appear yesterday as counsel for Zintak, though it was understood efforts were afoot to retain him.

Third Such Case for Judge.

Zintak is the third county employé charged with embezzlement to be sent to Judge O'Connell for trial. Ralph T. Crean, cashier in the Circuit court clerk's office, who was short $11,025, and Harry Daguirda, clerk in

LANDON BARES PRIOR MOVE TO INSURE CROPS

Meets Roosevelt on His Own Ground.

Gov. Alfred M. Landon's address from Des Moines will be broadcast at 9:30 o'clock tonight with WMAQ as the local outlet.

BY PHILIP KINSLEY.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Topeka, Kas., Sept. 21.—[Special.]—In answer to President Roosevelt's action last night in announcing the appointment of two committees to work out crop insurance legislation, Gov. Alf M. Landon today made public an excerpt from the speech he is to deliver in Des Moines tomorrow night in which he recommends substantially the same action.

The President's statement, which was apparently timed to offset the much heralded farm speech, refers to the Wallace plan of a system of storage bins which would carry over the crops of the fat years to meet the needs of drouth years. Gov. Landon refers to policies by insurance companies. Both candidates recommend study of the subject as an approach to legislation. The farmer appears assured of some form of crop insurance as a result, and this subject is therefore taken out of controversial politics.

Sets Aside Own Rules.

Gov. Landon's action in meeting the President's effort to take the wind out of his sails at Des Moines was made this morning at a press conference. He rarely permits himself to be quoted at these conferences and has made it a policy to refrain from public comment on questions of the day. This morning, however, he was all prepared for an answer as to what he thought of the Roosevelt move.

"I am going to give you," he said, "something that I had written on this subject days ago and which I have discussed for many months with farm leaders.

"I am glad to see any well considered approach to this question of crop insurance."

Gov. Landon then passed out the following paragraphs from the address which he will give in Des Moines:

"I am going to mention a subject that is in neither platform—crop insurance. It is a question in which we have long been interested in Kansas. In fact, some of our Republican leaders in farm legislation have been in the forefront in working on it.

Companies Cover More Risks.

"We realize that there are difficulties; but insurance companies are writing policies today covering risks that they didn't consider feasible a few years ago. I believe that the question of crop insurance should be given the fullest attention."

Crop insurance is a major point in the program advocated by the National Grange and the Farmer's union and L. J. Taber, master of the grange, discussed this with Gov. Landon here two months ago.

A long time drouth and land use program, which also has been accepted by the President, was proposed by Gov. Landon two years ago. At that time it was made available to the President in the form of a letter from the governor. It awaited action until two days before Gov. Landon was supposed to restate this program in his Des Moines address.

Leaves on Drive Today.

Gov. Landon's Sunshine special will leave Topeka at 8:30 in the morning on the third campaign trip. The governor will stop at three Iowa and three Missouri points on his way to Des Moines. He will spend Wednesday in and around Des Moines and

A Bright Boy Loses Faith in His Public

Until 11 p. m. Mr. Hoppe and his wife were hopeful that many persons would be eager to wager a 25 cent piece to win $5. But as that hour came and passed with few cash results the Hoppes sadly concluded that citizens of the Ravenswood district are not convinced Mr. Hoppe is an innocent man.

For the net proceeds from the evening's raffle, according to hearsay evidence, will not be enough even to pay Mr. Hoppe's court costs.

Hoppe Meets the Law.

Hoppe, who is 33 years old and lives at 2021 Eastwood avenue, was arrested Aug. 12 by the Aurora police in possession of a truckload of stolen sugar. Three other men were seized with him. The police charged Hoppe with being leader of a gang which has hi-jacked more than $100,000 worth of sugar, groceries, and other goods from interstate trucks in the Chicago area.

On Aug. 18 Hoppe was held to the federal grand jury on a charge of stealing merchandise from interstate shipments. He was freed on $5,000 bond.

The outlook was gloomy, but Mr. Hoppe is a man of resource. Two or three weeks ago placards appeared in many saloons in the Ravenswood district advertising the raffle in the Sweeney tavern for Hoppe's benefit.

"Right Guy" Doing His Best.

At 10 o'clock last night the bar and backroom of the saloon were occupied by about twenty persons, five of them women. From time to time one or two of them would produce a chance from the bartender.

"Who is this Hoppe?" asked one of the patrons. "Why should I give him a quarter?"

Shortly before 11 Mr. and Mrs. Hoppe walked in. There was a brief burst of handclapping. Mr. Hoppe bowed. A couple of thirsty chance buyers cast meaning glances at him and at the bottles decorating the back bar. Mr. Hoppe ignored the glances.

Hoppe Is Disappointed.

A young woman stepped up with hat between her hands. She reached in and drew out a slip of paper with a number on it—the winning number. This, it appeared, belonged to A. Hoffman, 3953 Lincoln avenue. Mr. Hoffman was not among those present.

Mr. Hoppe sighed as the bartender poured into his outstretched hands a thin trickle of quarters. "This sure was a bum turnout," he remarked. "It hardly covers the beers I been buying for the boys in the other joints."

Then Mr. and Mrs. Hoppe passed out into the night. They didn't even stop to count the profits.

RUSSIA LAYS PLANS TO TAKE COMPLETE CENSUS IN ONE DAY

MOSCOW, Sept. 21.—(AP)—Russia, with its officials' penchant for the spectacular, is going to try to count all its inhabitants in one day.

There are 1,200,000 registrars already being trained by 120,000 instructors for the third all union census, to be taken Jan. 6, 1937.

Experts believe the population will exceed 175,000,000, still far short of Russia's pre-war population. At the last census, taken in 1926-27, the population was 147,013,600. The official estimate Jan. 1, 1934 was 168,000,000. Enumeration of the population, it is said, will require 1,000 tons of paper.

SELASSIE'S WIFE FIGHTS FOR DOG'S ENTRY IN BRITAIN

FOLKESTONE, England, Sept. 21.—(AP)—While Haile Selassie was in Geneva today working to get the Ethiopian delegations' credentials approved by the league of nations, his wife, the former Empress Mennen, carried on her fight to get the credentials of her fox terrier approved by customs officials.

Authorities yesterday refused to admit her pet and it was sent back to Boulogne, France. Today the dog made his second round trip between France and England when customs officers decided its papers were still out of order.

A member of the empress' suite, armed with a newly bought dog license, went to the dock to claim the seasick animal on his second arrival here only to learn that a special license from the ministry of agriculture was required in such cases. Even then the dog will have to spend six months in quarantine. The whole affair seemed silly to the former empress, accustomed as she was to lions roaming about the imperial palace she used to occupy in Addis Ababa.

TOMORROW FIRST DAY OF AUTUMN; WARMER TODAY

At 12:26 o'clock tomorrow morning the sun will pass the equator on its six months' trip into the southern hemisphere, marking the advent of autumn. This change in the sun's position has no affect on the weather, said Forecaster J. R. Lloyd. It is merely an astronomical event. Mr. Lloyd predicted fair and warmer weather today and tomorrow, with the mercury rising to 84 degrees.

Film Actress Found in Need; Near Eviction

Hollywood, Sept. 21.—(AP)—Elinor Fair, former $2500 a week movie star, was within an hour of being turned out of her apartment today for nonpayment of rent.

The actress is destitute and suffering from nervous exhaustion, her mother, Mrs. Helen Crowe, said. Mother and daughter have been living together in a modest apartment the last few years.

Jewels, Furs, Cars Gone.

"Everything is gone now—money, jewels, furs, cars," the mother said. "I don't know what we're going to do when another rent day comes around.

"If Elinor could just get her health back," Mrs. Crowe said, "I know she could go into pictures again. But her nerves won't stand it."

After Miss Fair's successes in "The Volga Boatman," "Driven" and "The Yankee Clipper," several years ago, she married William Boyd and retired.

"She wanted to be a housewife, so she quit. It was her greatest mistake," her mother said.

Divorced in 1929.

The marriage lasted three years. Miss Fair divorced Boyd in 1929. Three years later she married Daniels and divorced him in June, 1935.

"She didn't ask for or get any alimony," Daniels said today. "I've been taking care of her to some extent. I didn't know things were as bad as this. Elinor is proud. She wouldn't let out a murmur if she was dying of starvation."

The actress' mother said Miss Fair tried to climb back up the movie wall after the end of her marriage to Boyd, but that the hardships and disappointments began to take their toll of her strength. She stopped again, Mrs. Crowe said, when she married Daniels.

H. G. WELLS 70, BUT DENIES IT; REFUSES QUOTES

LONDON, Sept. 21.—(AP)—H. G. Wells, the writer, today turned 70 just a bit wistful.

"I don't want my birthday advertised," he said, "haphazard statements one makes in an interview go round and round the world and are eternally quoted against one. The things which I have said in my books, relatively speaking, never get quoted."

Whimsically he denied he was 70.

"It is not true," he chuckled, "it is a false report spread about by that fellow Shaw [George Bernard Shaw] to disguise his own age."

Shaw was 80 years old last July 26. Wells has written his own obituary predicting his death at 97.

Life or Death for Deformed Baby, Problem

A decision on whether an operation shall be performed to save the life of a malformed baby is expected to be made today by the parents and physicians at the Danish-American hospital, 1615 North Kostner avenue. The father is opposed to the operation and the mother demands that it be performed.

The infant is Julian Tafel Jr., five days old, son of Julian and Mrs. Eva Tafel, of 5012 Sunnyside avenue. Tafel is an automobile mechanic. He and his wife are in their early twenties. They have one other child, Cornelia, thirty months old, perfectly normal.

The new baby is normal except for the absence of an intestinal outlet, and a disordered bladder. In the words of Dr. Lewis K. Eastman, chief of staf of the Danish-American hospital, there is "only a Chinaman's chance that an operation will save the infant."

Father Firm In Stand.

Whether an operation will be performed depends upon a change of attitude on the part of the child's father. Last night, and early this morning, he had not changed.

"There will not be any operation performed if I can help it," he said. "It is true that the baby is perfectly shaped, and even good looking. But if he lives, he will be a burden to his mother, and he would not thank us for bringing him into the world.

"I think nature should be allowed to take its course. Nature would not let him live. I have talked to doctors, to friends, and relatives, and others, and they agree with me. I have many reasons for my feeling. Even if he is operated upon, he will have to undergo a series of other operations. And then we cannot tell what the eventual results will be."

Hopes Wife Will Agree.

Tafel admitted that his wife was as determined to have the possible life saving operation performed as he was to prevent it.

"But I know she will see my way," he said. "She naturally feels the way she does. I expect her to ask for my consent, but I do not expect to give it. I know I am doing what is right."

According to Dr. Eastman, he is in favor of the operation, slim though the chance be that it would save the infant.

"If we operate, the baby probably always will be a care," he said. "He has a colon deformity, and also a deformity of the bladder. It would be necessary to build what nature had neglected to build.

"My professional feelings demand that I operate. My personal feelings are also that way. It's only a chance, but it seems to be a chance that the youngster may be entitled to.

Tells of Mother's Stand.

"It is one of those rare, tragic cases. Last Saturday we all had tacitly decided, it might be said, to let the baby die. That meant that he would be left to starve to death. But this idea hardly got beyond the thought stage. Mrs. Tafel, like a real mother, could not stand it. All she could think of was her baby starving to death down the hall.

"She knew that the only chance was an operation. She demanded an operation. It is a physician's duty to preserve life. There is always a

TAKE MAQUEDA, SPAIN'S VERDUN, IN 3 DAY BATTLE

BULLETIN.

BARCELONA, Spain, Sept. 21.—(AP)—Thirty-three officers sentenced to death by a People's Front tribunal Sept. 18 were executed today. Government militiamen marched past the bodies shouting "Long live the republic!" The People's court, sitting on the prison boat Uruguay, sentenced four other officers to death.

CACERES, Spain [By Telephone to Lisbon], Sept. 21.—Maqueda, at the junction of main highways to Toledo and Madrid, and intended by the government to be the Spanish Verdun, was taken today by Gen. Francisco Franco's Moors and Foreign Legionnaires, rebel headquarters announced tonight.

After three days of cannonading and air bombing, the Legionnaires scaled the heights of the cliff that protects Maqueda about 8 o'clock this morning and an hour later were in complete command of the town, it was asserted.

By early afternoon troops were already preparing to march from this junction down the main road south to Toledo [24 miles], joining Gen. Franco's southern column proceeding toward Toledo at Torrijos. The column is going to the rescue of rebel cadets besieged in the Alcazar fortress at Toledo.

Flee Toward Madrid.

The taking of Maqueda makes it possible to send reinforcements for these troops by the shortest route from Avila, long a rebel northern stronghold.

[A dispatch from the rebels' advance field headquarters at Santa Olalla, seven miles southwest of Maqueda, declared loyalists were fleeing toward Madrid [45 miles from Maqueda] pursued by rebel troops.]

The rebels admit they are opposed by 35,000 leftists in the Toledo sector now, but have consistently insisted their smaller force of 6,000 picked men would break through to Toledo. Loyalists have thrown up strong defenses along the road to Toledo.

Both at Talavera, advanced base for the campaign against Toledo, and at Caceres, Gen. Franco's own headquarters, it was asserted tonight that the cadets in the Alcazar would be relieved before it is too late.

Bomb Talavera Troops.

Madrid's air fleet countered the Franco offensive with a bombardment of Talavera, three government planes dropping 17 bombs on the city before 7 insurgent pursuit planes could take off. There were no casualties in Talavera, and the pursuit planes were reported to have shot down one government machine.

Talavera, normally a town of 13,000 persons, has become a seething, raucous military camp. Only a few hundred civilians remain. The others fled earlier to Madrid.

The victory announced tightens the net now swinging almost half way around Madrid. It was reported here that early today twenty-five huge rebel bombing planes dropped leaflets on Madrid, advising the city to surrender in order to avoid bloodshed.

Win Battle of Olalla.

Before reaching Maqueda, the rebels won a 14 hour battle yesterday at Santa Olalla. Loyalists gave up Santa Olalla only after a fight costing hundreds of lives because the hamlet was the main defense covering Maqueda Junction.

The rebels gained a foothold in the village after a furious hand to hand fight, but found their stiffest job in cleaning up because the defenders hung on tenaciously covering their own retreat from machine gun nests in a church tower and on the city hall roof.

Form New Defense Line.

SANTA CRUZ DEL RETAMAR, Spain, Sept. 21.—(AP)—Government forces dug in here today and fought off a bitter Fascist onslaught, while enemy planes rained bombs on them. This town is about 40 miles southwest of Madrid.

About 2,000 government troops fell back to Santa Cruz Del Retamar, where they were reformed and sent back to man the lines 2½ miles on the Maqueda side of the town.

Gen. Jose Asensio, commander of all government forces in central Spain, took charge of operations in this sector. During the last three days he had been directing the government attempt to rout out the Fascist defender of the old Alcazar fortress at Toledo.

Topple Alcazar Tower.

[Copyright: 1936: By the Associated Press.]

TOLEDO, Spain, Sept. 21.—The last remaining tower of the old Alcazar fortress crashed in a pile of débris tonight under the artillery fire of Spanish government forces preparing for a final assault on the besieged Fascists who have held out for 62 days.

Carefully aimed shots from two six-inch artillery batteries to the north and east caught the tower squarely in the middle. The gun crews, elated by their success as the rocks tumbled down, quickened their fire on the wreckage of the old military school.

There were 1,500 men, women and children who first took refuge in the ancient fortress. How many still live after the bombardments and explosion of two tons of dynamite no one professed to know.

Start New Fires.

New gasoline fires were started in various parts of the Alcazar by groups of government militiamen. The insurgent machine gun nests, always spitting out their hail of death, were picked off one by one by a government field piece set up in the basement of a hospital.

A government civil guard escaped tonight from the Alcazar where he had been drawing maps surreptitiously. His drafts, it was learned, showed where the rebels cached their ammunition and food deposits.

Government officials estimated that 28 soldiers and 10 civilians had escaped from the ruined fortress since the siege began. One of these, Rufino Santos, said that most of the men, women and children in the fortress had only brown bread and horseflesh to eat. Food supplies, he said, were exhausted on the seventh day of the siege.

Attackers Shot Down.

Officers, he said, waited in line the same as every one else for their rations.

Advance on Bilbao.

SAINT JEAN DE LUZ, France, Sept. 21.—(AP)—The Fascist forces of Gen. Emilio Mola tonight tightened their lines around Bilbao after breaking through the Azpeita line, held by government forces for over a month.

The insurgent drive on the northern coastal sector was timed to coincide with the advance of four Fascist columns under Gen. Francisco Franco marching on Madrid and Toledo.

Azpeita was reported to have been captured easily by the trained Fascist militiamen. Sweeping through the city one column of insurgents marched on toward Azcoita while another laid seige to Motrico.

Need Arms Factory.

Bilbao, refugees said, was "nearly demoralized" by exhausted ammunition supplies. Inhabitants, the refugees said, were fleeing by land and sea to Santander or into France.

A desperate last stand of government forces was expected at Eibar, an industrial town in which arms have been manufactured by government workmen. The Fascist leaders want the town in order to replenish their own supplies of arms and ammunition.

Operations toward Bilbao are occupying many rebel troops needed in the Toledo sector but the rebels say several thousand are being rushed by lorries from various parts of rebel territory.

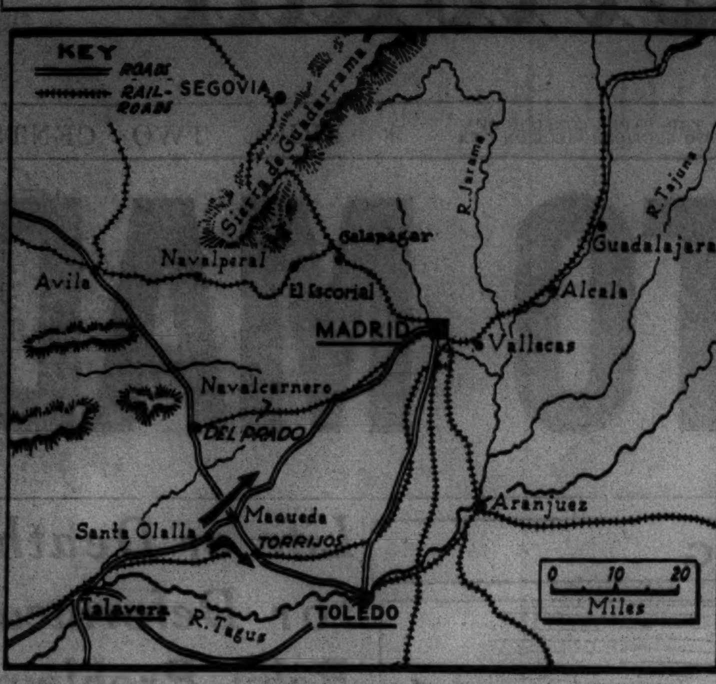
It was reported from Burgos that Gen. Mola's troops had occupied Huernuca pass in Guadarrama and had succeeded in consolidating their position there and are now in control of the Madrid-Saragossa road. Siguenza, about fifty miles south of Soria, has been cut off from government support.

Announce Victories.

MADRID, Sept. 21.—(AP)—In the customary enumeration of daily "victories" the war ministry announced an advance of several miles near Caspe, in the Aragon sector, and successful resistance of a Fascist attack at Medinaceli, 60 miles northeast of the capital.

The state department announced that, effective Wednesday, foreign correspondents filing between 10 a. m. and 10 p. m., must submit their copy to state department censors. Night censorship continues by telephone to government headquarters.

BATTLE FOR ROAD TO MADRID



Map shows position of important highways and railroads leading to Madrid. Arrows show direction of new offensives by rebel troops after taking important highway junction at Maqueda yesterday. Maqueda is 45 miles from Madrid and 24 from Toledo. Rebels are reported to control most of the road from Avila to Maqueda.

the county clerk's office who stole $5,900 to gamble on horse races, were tried before Judge O'Connell, and were placed on probation.

Replaces Chief Witness.

Brig. Gen. Edward H. White, U. S. A., retired, who was appointed clerk of the Superior court pro tem. until the November election, announced yesterday the appointment of John J. Enright Jr., 1103 Loyola avenue, an attorney and president of the Loyola University Alumni association, as bookkeeper in the office.

Enright takes the place of Frank Witkowski, who has been transferred to another post in the office. Witkowski, who served under Zintak, was a witness before the grand jury where it was reported he testified he changed certain records at the direction of Zintak.

Gen. White announced also that a new depository for new court funds had been opened in the American National Bank and Trust company of Chicago. He said several changes would be made in the office bookkeeping system.

BLAMES SPANISH SOCIALISTS FOR HAVANA BOMBING

HAVANA, Sept. 21.—(AP)—A Cuban colored man, responsible sources said tonight, confessed his own participation and named a group of Spaniards in Havana as the "intellectual authors" of the dynamiting of the newspaper El Pais in which four persons were killed yesterday.

He was reported to have made the statement after almost 24 hours of continuous questioning by police. A white man—another Cuban—was questioned along with the colored man but refused to admit any part in the dynamiting.

Another development which brought the Spanish radical theory to the fore was an informal statement by a police official in which the officer said that "we are making more arrests right along, especially among Spanish socialists."

The colored man was said to have related a complicated story of dealings between professional Cuban terrorists and Spanish radicals. He said he knew a group of Spanish radicals in Havana had put aside $5,000 for the purchase of trucks and dynamite. Approximately $4,500 of the money was spent for that purpose.

SPAIN PASSES DEATH SENTENCE ON FORMER MINISTER OF INTERIOR

MADRID, Sept. 21.—(AP)—The People's tribunal tonight condemned Rafael Salazar Alonso, former minister of the interior, to death for being active in the present Spanish rebellion and also for taking part in the Asturias uprising in October, 1934. The sentence, announced after 36 hours of deliberation by the court, probably will be carried out at 6 a. m. tomorrow. His appeal was denied.

Salazar Alonso, a member of the Radical Republican group, was one of the outstanding Spanish political figures during the premiership of Alejandro Lerroux. He was accused of being the chief go-between when a Mexican promoter, Daniel Strauss, charged that the Lerroux government failed to keep a promise to license gambling in Spain after accepting a bribe of 3,000,000 pesetas [about $378,000].

In the course of political developments the case was never brought to trial. Salazar Alonzo was removed from office as mayor of Madrid because of the scandal.

OFFICIAL ASSERTS 75 PCT. OF SPAIN SUPPORTS MADRID

At least 75 per cent of the Spanish people are supporting their government and most of them will sacrifice their lives rather than permit the rebels to win in the present war, Louis Perez, chancellor in charge of the Spanish consulate here, told the Junior Association of Commerce at a luncheon meeting yesterday in the Morrison hotel.

"If the rebels win—which they won't, even if they take Madrid," said Perez, "they will put Spain into a blind alley. They would restore a monarchy and the dead institutions of olden times. Spain's problems cannot be solved by Fascism, which the rebels would bring, but by the policies the government was using.

"The government, which obtained its present power legally, by election last February, would give the country liberty and social justice. One of its major policies is to curtail the power of the church and confiscate its surplus property inasmuch as the church owned one-third of the land in Spain and was too powerful. Communists in Spain are in the minority and offer no real threat."

LONDON, Sept. 21.—Sir James Jeans, noted astronomer in his sixtieth year, today proudly announced the arrival of his first son, born in a London clinic. His wife, many years his junior, is the former Susi Hock, Viennese musician. He married her in September, 1935. His first wife died in 1934.

MINNEAPOLIS IN GRIP OF GROWING LABOR TROUBLE

BY WAYNE THOMIS.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Minneapolis, Minn., Sept. 21.—[Special.]—Labor troubles in Minneapolis are multiplying. Forty grain elevators and all but one or two of the great mills which constitute the chief industry of this metropolis are closed and watched by strikers.

For more than a month wholesale grocers and chain store supply houses in this "gateway to the northwest" have been unable to ship produce or merchandise because militant truck drivers are demanding union recognition and pay increases.

Now, with union organizers busy among 2,000 women employés in three of the largest knitting mills here, there is every prospect that these plants will be closed in the near future. The strikers are demanding pay increases which will give them a "living wage" and insisting upon recognition of their rights to organize unions.

A Few Block Peace Path.

The employers, for the most part, are willing to increase wage scales which they freely admit are below the standards for the rest of the United States. Many of the employers are willing, moreover, to grant union recognition on an "open shop" basis in order to escape further disorders and business losses. There is a small clique wielding considerable influence, however, that is adamant against unionism.

Thus the battle lines are frankly drawn. On one side there is the ultra-conservative Citizen's alliance, an organization of the most militant business men and manufacturers. On the other is the General Trucking union, No. 544, in which centers the strength of the labor union movement in Minnesota.

This truck drivers' union is the old outlaw union No. 574, from the ranks of which came the men who staged the riots of July, 1934, that resulted in death for two men and injuries to 50 persons. In its new guise the union has been reaffiliated with the American Federation of Labor, charter dated July 20, 1936, although its leaders, avowedly communists and socialists, are unchanged.

City Between Two Fires.

Between these two groups, both of which are all too ready to put their beliefs to the test of street fighting, is a great majority of Minneapolis citizens, anxious to lead peaceful lives in a prosperous community. These individuals, from machinists and day laborers to business executives and the town's leading merchants, realize that the only salvation is to settle the dispute.

Thus far in the conflict of the last month there has been comparatively little violence. A few individuals have been slugged and beaten, a few trucks have been overturned and their contents destroyed. Three nights ago pickets set fire to a railroad car near one of the largest linseed plants when they found strikebreakers inside.

Business Paralysis Shown.

But business has felt the pressure of the battle. An idea of what has happened in the grain mills can be gathered from chamber of commerce reports on incoming carloads of grains of all classifications on Sept. 16, compared with the same reports for Sept. 16, 1935. The table follows:

CAR LOADS INCOMING:

Wheat	33	1,011
Corn	6	22
Oats	7	223
Barley	54	339
Rye	5	56
Flax	6	158
Totals	111	1,809

Within the last three days, 35 chain store groceries have closed here. Eight of these were Quality Food Stores, Inc. The others were shops of the C. Thomas Sales System, Inc. None of the few remaining chain stores in Minneapolis can get deliveries of meat, ice or milk. The only produce they have to sell is delivered directly to them by truck farmers who have arranged a truce with the truck drivers.

Oats Mill Strike Is Starter.

The present crisis rose out of a strike by 48 men and women employés in the plant of the Northern Oats company on last May 5. These strikers demanded wage increases. They told arbitrators that men employés were receiving 38 cents an hour, or a total of $22.80 for a sixty hour week, and women employés were getting 20 cents an hour or $12 pay for a 60 hour week.

The employés barricaded themselves in the plant and remained there three days until police smashed the barriers and arrested them. Machinery and plant equipment was not damaged. They were released when arraigned in court and after a month went back to work with pay increases, men receiving 60 cents an hour and women 27½ cents an hour.

These strikers had called upon the strong outlaw truck drivers' union, then still No. 574, for aid. They received some money during the month they were out of work and during that period became a local of the Flour, Feed, Cereal and Elevator Workers' union, No. 19152. It is this union which now is leading the elevator and grain milling workers' strike.

Mediators Resent "Reds."

Three weeks ago an "employer-employé" committee, which had functioned for more than a year, was dissolved. The committee was formed at the suggestion of certain of the more conservative labor leaders. It consisted of three of the leading executives of Minneapolis and three labor men who acted as individuals. An impartial chairman, Dr. C. A. Prosser, head of the Dunwoodie institute, a trade school here, was chosen by the committee members.

This group, acting as mediators only and without legal authority, settled disputes between employers and workers in 300 concerns. These involved some 20,000 persons. The committee members, however, resigned in a body when the radical labor leaders—namely: William Brown, president of the new truck drivers' union, No. 544; Carl Skoglund, Miles Dunne, and Vincent Dunne, men known for years as syndicalists and Reds, began calling strikes among the grain elevator and mill workers a month ago.

Test of Union Strength.

"How could we continue to act," one member of the mediation board, who refused to allow his name to be used, stated today, "when we began to discover that the strikes were called by irresponsible men acting through puppets?

"We'd get the workers in and discover they had no kick about wages, working conditions or hours. All they wanted was union recognition. Now that is a question which cannot be arbitrated, conciliated, or compromised upon.

"Either the employers would, or they wouldn't recognize the union. The radical leaders chose this time to fight out the question. There is no law to force an employer to recognize the unions. But the central labor council, the organization of all the unions in Minneapolis, is controled by the radicals and they are testing their strength on this question."

Another member of this committee, who also refused to be quoted directly, said the labor situation in Minneapolis could be traced directly to the radical leadership i nthe statehouse at St. Paul during the late Floyd Olson's régime, and to encouragement of Reds and various other shades of pinks by the New Deal.

Admittedly there has been some chiseling by the small business man in Minneapolis on wage scales. In fact there has been an element among the more responsible business people here that has campaigned actively for higher wages for several years.

"But this out and out defiance of law and order that occured in 1934, and now threatens to be repeated on about the same scale, came only because the communists and goofy Socialists among the labor classes felt they would be given wide latitude by the federal government and were sure of Olson's efforts in their behalf.

Termed "Class Government."

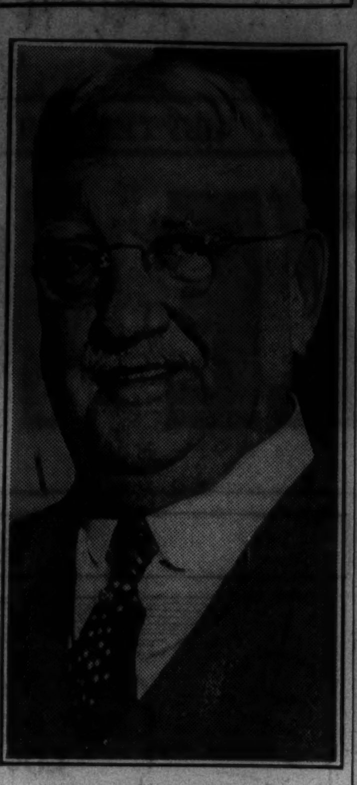
"What we have today in Minneapolis is the most palpable sort of 'class government.' The saddest part of it all is that this particular class government does not aid anybody but those with a crimson tinge. The honest laboring man, the small merchant, the manufacturer, and the jobber in Minneapolis are constantly injured."

One Minnesotan today advanced the theory that the recent flood of labor disorders in Minneapolis were evidence that the radical leaders believed the Farmer-Labor party was finished. He said there is a general belief that Martin Nelson, Republican nominee for governor, will be elected and with that, the protection of the pinks in the labor movement will end.

"They're making hay while the sun shines," he said.

This was denied by H. H. Schultz, business agent of an electrical workers' local union here, who also is an official at the headquarters of Truck Drivers' union, No. 544. He said the strikes had "absolutely no political significance" and their only purpose was to increase wages and obtain union recognition.

IN CHICAGO



JOHN W. HAUSSERMAN.

John W. Haussermann, Republican national committeeman from the Philippines, who was in Chicago yesterday, declared that President Roosevelt played politics with "the richest undeveloped territory in the world" when he induced Frank Murphy, high commissioner for the islands, to take a leave of absence and seek the governorship of Michigan.

Mr. Haussermann, a native of New Richmond, O., has been engaged in business in the Philippines since 1898. He has developed rich gold mining properties in the islands.

"When we received word that the President was contemplating taking Commissioner Murphy from us to enter the Michigan political campaign I wrote the President a letter, urging him to reconsider," Mr. Haussermann said. "There was nothing partisan in this effort of mine. I had only the good of the islands in mind. But my letter did no good."

Mr. Haussermann visited the Republican national campaign headquarters during the day. He left Chicago last night for the coast. He sails for the Philippines on Sept. 30.

LONDON COMMITTEE LIFTS EMBARGO ON GAS MASKS FOR SPAIN

[Copyright: 1936: By the New York Times.]

LONDON, Sept. 21.—Gas masks do not come under the heading of "war material," it was decided here today by the international committee that is attempting to supervise nonintervention in the Spanish civil war. When the committee held its third meeting today, it had before it more than a dozen replies from governments, all agreeing that gas masks should not be prohibited under the various arms embargoes now in force. Consequently the exportation of gas masks becomes legal hereafter to either side in the civil war.

PORTUGAL SEES PERIL OF RED VICTORY IN SPAIN

GENEVA, Sept. 21.—(AP)—Foreign Minister Armindo Monteiro of Portugal said today in a signed article in a Geneva newspaper "a communist victory or anarchy in Spain would mean war for us."

He added, however, that Portugal rigorously was observing a policy of nonintervention. Apparently Monteiro was replying to an accusation by the Spanish foreign minister, Julio Alvarez del Vayo, who told Foreign Minister Yvon Delbros of France that Portugal was helping the Spanish insurgents.

Monteiro said his country had adhered to the international nonintervention accord because Great Britain and France had asserted the agreement might avoid grave international complications. He emphasized, however, that some countries had not yet adhered to nonintervention and declared that this "may render neutrality an illusion."

NAB 3 AT SALE OF MAJ. FRANCO'S PERSONAL GOODS

Washington, D. C., Sept. 21.—(AP)—Placards, heckling and arrests marked an auction sale today of the personal belongings of Maj. Ramon Franco, noted flyer and brother of the Spanish insurgent leader, Gen. Francisco Franco. Franco, resigned air attaché at the Spanish embassy here, had announced the proceeds of the sale would go to support of the Spanish revolutionists.

Three women were arrested as they picketed the auction scene with placards reading: "Americans, don't patronize this sale." They later were released on the posting of $25 collateral.

As the auctioneer began his talk, a protestant arose to say that the money realized "is going to be used to murder women and children in Spain." He immediately left the auction room, but more shouts came from the rear of the room before the last of the protestants had stalked out. Franco did not attend the sale.

SELASSIE FOILS PLOT TO PUT HIM OUT OF LEAGUE

GENEVA, Sept. 21.—Haile Selassie, his American delegate and financial adviser, Everett A. Colson, and a "small power" revolt upset a scheme to unseat the Ethiopian delegation at today's opening of the 18th league of nations assembly so that the Italian delegation might return to it in triumph tomorrow.

They turned certain defeat into a doubtful issue that leaves the Ethiopion delegation temporarily seated with voting rights while the fight continues and Italian circles fume. Things seem headed toward trying to leave the problem to the advisory opinion of the world court and suspending the Ethiopian delegation in the meantime—that is, if the soundings proceeding prove this will be enough to satisfy Premier Mussolini, and if it cannot be blocked by the Ethiopians.

A Day of Surprises.

It was a dramatic day. Geneva had hardly recovered from its first surprise when there came another and another. The first surprise was to see an American citizen serving for the first time as a fully empowered delegate. No one had expected this first American to be sent to Woodrow Wilson's league by the fallen emperor of Ethiopia and to have his credentials questioned because of Italy's conquest of Ethiopia.

The next surprise came when the nomination of the credentials committee proved the plan to have a handpicked body of obscure delegates rubberstamp quickly the Ethiopian credentials as invalid had to be abandoned, the committee clearly having a strong minority in favor of the Ethiopians. Thus a fight was assured in that body.

While the morning session was dispersing, a third surprise spread through the corridors—the erstwhile "king of kings" had left London suddenly for Geneva in a fast plane. Insiders grew more nervous lest he appear in the assembly in person in the afternoon to defend his case. He arrived at 5:40 p. m. to find the fight in the credentials committee had grown so strong, the assembly had just adjourned it until tomorrow.

How Committee Stands.

Three of the committee's nine members, The Netherlands, New Zealand, and Russia are ready to seat the Ethiopians. Turkey is leaning in the same direction. Czechoslovakia proposes the world court's advice be asked. Greece is wobbling. This left only France, Great Britain, and Peru presumably in favor of invalidation though they, and especially Capt. Anthony Eden, British foreign minister, were very careful not to say so clearly.

The scheme on which Mussolini is being sounded is based on the assembly's rule which reads: "Any representative to whose admission objection has been made shall sit provisionally with the same rights as other representatives unless the assembly decides otherwise."

Mussolini, it is safe to guess, is being told the British and the French did the best they could to oust the Ethiopians. However, all they can promise now is to get the assembly under the above quoted rule unless a proviso is made to suspend the Ethiopian delegation pending an advisory opinion from the world court on its status.

They are arguing with Rome there is little hope of getting a majority of the small powers even to suspend the Ethiopian delegates, especially when one of them is an American citizen, unless they have the pretext the case has been put before the world court.

Big Obstacle Looms.

The first question is whether Mussolini will agree to send a delegation here on the understanding pressure will be brought to have the world court majority rule against the Ethiopian delegation. This seems doubtful. The next question is whether if he agrees the goods can be delivered in the assembly and in the court.

There is a big obstacle in the assembly because a unanimous vote is required for it to ask an advisory opinion. The Ethiopian delegation says if it is deprived of its seat temporarily by this plan it will vote "No." Another obstacle is it is uncertain that a majority suffices to suspend a delegation.

One weakness in the case against Haile Selassie is that the above rule implies some one is objecting to his right to give credentials. Inquiry so far reveals no government has formally objected—Italy being absent. A credentials committee member admitted no one had taken this responsibility.

"It was just in the air," he said.

Britain Avoids Responsibility.

British quarters complained others in the committee tried to put this responsibility on them but stressed they avoided it. Capt. Eden's policy is to keep in position to tell the house of commons "the league" unseated the Ethiopians. Yvon Delbos, the French foreign minister, is following a similar policy.

The aim is to have an irresponsible body, such as the credentials committee as a whole, do the objecting without any government formally raising the question. The Ethiopian delegation is understood to be considering asking point blank in the assembly what government is objecting to it.

This would be done in the hope either no government would have the courage to take the responsibility openly and the case will fall or will be pinned down on Italy. Ethiopia could then demand Italy to appear to fight its own case, which is precisely what Italy cannot do. Thus there still may be surprises left.

The main questions before the credentials committee are, first, what are the powers of this committee—for they are very vague, no case ever having risen before; secondly, is Haile Selassie still the head of a state and thereby entitled to accredited delegates. Today's fight was practically all on how to decide either question, so the committee has not yet even got into the substance of it. The big problem of precisely how the questions to be put before the world court are to be worded has not yet even been touched.

The Ethiopian delegation says it has filed with the credentials committee documentary proof the exiled emperor is recognized by the Ethiopian government at Gore as its head.

London Publisher Jailed for Charge Against Jews

LONDON, Sept. 21.—(AP)—Arnold Leese, publisher of The Fascist, organ of the Imperial Fascist league, today was sentenced to six months in prison for publishing a charge that Jews practice ritual murder. The publication's printer, Walter Whitehead, was fined $100 on the same charge.

JAPAN TO SEND NAVAL LANDING PARTIES TO CHINA

Orders Sailors to Protect Citizens and Property.

[Copyright: 1936: By the New York Times.]

TOKIO, Sept. 21.—Japan's fleet in Chinese waters is being reinforced immediately from Japan by additional landing parties. A naval communique today said their function was to provide greater protection for Japanese residents of Hankow and Shanghai.

The communique explained the reasons for sending the reinforcements by listing seven recent attacks on Japanese citizens in China. It accused the Nanking government of procrastination and insincerity in dealing with these affairs, and added:

"Anti-Japanese terrorism has extended across Chinese territory and is becoming worse. Already twenty days have passed since the Pakhoi affair [in which a Japanese druggist was murdered by a mob], and meantime fresh incidents have occurred. The navy has hitherto maintained calmness, but the existing conditions do not permit Japan to place implicit confidence in the Chinese authorities in dealing with anti-Japanese outbursts."

Step Regarded as "Inevitable."

Considering that the assassination of a Japanese policeman at Hankow last Saturday was the third murderous attack on Japanese within a month and the fifth in two months, some such step as the navy has taken was inevitable, a Japanese official said:

Eiju Amau, the foreign office spokesman, confined himself to the statement that the government was considering the case with grave concern.

The temper of the Kwantung [Japanese] army in Manchukuo was revealed in a statement issued at Hsinking by Lieut. Gen. Seishiro Itagaki. He said the Kwantung army, "which bears responsibility for peace in east Asia," is greatly concerned over the instability of north China.

"Peace in east Asia is now threatened with ruin," he said.

Army Losing Patience.

After hinting that the Kwantung army is losing patience with the slow pace of diplomatic negotiations, the statement said:

"Stabilization of north China is absolutely necessary, and the Kwantung army is expected to achieve that stabilization, whatever the cost may be."

Investigation of the Pakhoi murder has been delayed by the 19th Route army's refusal to evacuate. Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek has ordered Chinese forces to march against that army and Foreign Minister Arita has consented to await the outcome.

Fear Explosion in China.

[Copyright: 1936: By the New York Times.]

SHANGHAI, Sept. 22 [Tuesday.]—Japan's decision to dispatch additional landing forces, besides increasing the strength of its fleet in Chinese waters, is likely to cause excitement and tragically explosive reactions among the Chinese public," a high Chinese government official said last night.

The greater Japanese pressure becomes, the higher rises the resentment of the Chinese people, with the result that Nanking now finds itself in the position of not daring to make even reasonable concessions to Japan for fear of domestic complications.

FACES ASSAULT CHARGE IN CRASH; FIANCEE DYING

Miss Lillian Layton, 19 years old, 632 Roscoe street, lay near death last night at the Edgewater hospital as Lake county authorities considered placing charges of assault to kill against her fiancé, Richard G. Novick, 24 years old, 2330 North Sacramento avenue.

Both were critically injured last Wednesday in a headon collision between his automobile and a truck near Waukegan. A note found in Novick's pocket indicated the couple intended to end their lives in the crash.

First Assistant State's Attorney Okel Fuqua of Lake county said yesterday he had determined definitly that Novick had written the "suicide" note.

Fuqua refused permission of Novick's family to remove him from the St. Therese hospital at Waukegan to the Edgewater hospital until he can be questioned. At the Edgewater hospital Miss Layton was given two blood transfusions in an effort to check an infection which developed after amputation of her right arm.

SUES TO MAKE HIS WIFE HELP SUPPORT CHILD

The first action by a husband in Cook county to collect support money from his wife under the new laws governing divorce and separate maintenance was filed yesterday in the Superior court by John Jerome Finlay, advertising company executive, against his estranged wife, Jane Scriven Finlay, who now lives in New York.

Finlay, who lives at the Webster hotel, 2150 Lincoln Park West, has pending a separate maintenance suit charging desertion. Yesterday his attorney, Robert Cantwell Jr., filed an amended bill declaring that Mrs. Finlay has a "lucrative" job in New York and asking that the court require her to help pay for the support of the couple's daughter, Barbara, 6 years old.

Woman Names Husband and Boss in Divorce Suit

Mrs. Laura K. Bishop, 45 years old, 836 Buena avenue, filed suit for divorce yesterday in Circuit court, naming as defendants both her husband, George L. Bishop, a lumber salesman, and his employer, H. S. Hoover, a lumber broker with offices at 180 North Michigan avenue. The bill, drawn by Attorney Earl Walker, charges that Bishop stays out of the state to avoid service of summons. Therefore the court is asked to assess whatever alimony is ordered against the salary due him from his employer.

New York, Sept. 21.—[Special.]—There are 2,141 millionaires in New York City and 1,066 wealthy widows according to figures released today by Boyd's City Dispatch.

On the national front, for those with a broader outlook, Boyd's mailing list compilers, lists 13,183 millionaires and multi-millionaires, not to mention 25,379 semi-millionaires.

Boyd's business is telling folks how much a man has got, how much he might be able to get, what clubs he belongs to, what his social standing is, and so on. Since 1930, the firm has prospered mightily by supplying advertisers with such odd items.

Today's catalog was issued without comment. It doesn't say that this year there are more rich men than last, or more poor men, or more money ridden manufacturers. It just issues.

LONDON STORES FIGHT TO WIPE OUT FAMED CALEDONIAN MARKET

[Copyright: 1936: By the New York Times.]

LONDON, Sept. 21.—The Caledonian market, London's world-famed "flea market" and the mecca of thousands of bargain hunting Americans, is threatened with extinction because London shopkeepers are jealous of its constantly growing business.

Other traders are protesting through various chambers of commerce against what they claim unfair competition, pointing out the market's merchants pay only insignificant rent and no taxes at all.

The Islington chamber of commerce suggested the market is no longer needed for the purpose for which it was established—a cattle market—and the site should be used as a housing estate in the slum clearance scheme.

Market folk, however, gain some consolation from the fact the municipal slaughtering house is in the middle of the property, which would make a housing scheme unlikely.

Edith R. McCormick Estate Asks Tax Redetermination

Washington, D. C., Sept. 21.—(AP)—The estate of the late Edith Rockefelle McCormick of Chicago asked the board of tax appeals today to redetermine an alleged estate tax deficiency of $444,175. The disagreement between the estate and the treasury was over the valuation to be given certain parcels of real estate. The treasury placed their value of $3,955,243.

REDS ASSEMBLE NEW SUBMARINE FLEET IN EAST

Posted at Vladivostok to Watch Japan.

[Copyright: 1936: By the Associated Press.]

VLADIVOSTOK, Soviet Russia, Sept. 21.—Russia is concentrating a new and secret submarine flotilla here, reliable sources disclosed today—to guard against the possibility of attack from Japan.

The submarines are the "mystery fleet" of the Pacific. They are unlisted in regular naval manuals. No prying eyes are permitted to fathom their design.

[The creation of the Russian submarine fleet at Vladivostok was first revealed authentically to the American public and the world at large by John Powell, Shanghai correspondent of The Tribune. Mr. Powell obtained the information for his dispatch, which was dated Oct. 18, 1934, while at Vladivostok en route to Moscow on a special assignment.]

Number Kept Secret.

Soviet officials admit no specific number. Informed sources estimate that between 40 and 50 undersea craft are stationed here. Japanese sources state 80 are based within the Vladivostok area.

The submarines are new, small and easy to conceal, capable of quick maneuvers—this much is known, observers here say. They are believed intended chiefly for defensive purposes because of their small size. They are subject to no restrictions or treaties, however, because the soviets retained a free hand on construction in the Pacific.

Intended for the Pacific, informants related, they were manufactured in European Russia thousands of miles from this Asiatic port. Knocked down for delivery they were transported 6,000 miles to secret shipyards here, these informants continued, and assembled. New personnel is being trained constantly to handle the craft as their numbers increase, it was learned.

Subfleet Much Enlarged.

What the eventual tonnage limit is intended to be is not known here—soviet sources say only that their submarine fleet in both Pacific and the Baltic sea has been increased 400 per cent within the past few years.

Some observers profess belief concentration of the subs along with a huge air force in the far east means these two types of warcraft are intended to comprise the backbone of defenses in the Pacific.

The soviets have no capital ships, cruisers, or destroyers in the Pacific, it was stated. But an army estimated at 500,000 men is stationed in the far eastern territory to back up submarine and aerial defenses.

SEN. VANDENBERG ANSWERS LEWIS' CALL TO 'DEBATE'

Offers Illinoisian 5 Points to Defend.

Grand Rapids, Mich., Sept. 21.—[Special.]—Senator Arthur H. Vandenberg today replied to the challenge of Senator J. Hamilton Lewis for debate, rejecting that proposal on the ground his time is definitly promised until late October, but suggesting five propositions for Senator Lewis to defend in campaign discussions.

"Your hospitable letter would have been answered sooner except that it had not reached me until this moment," the letter said. "I always am happy to hear from you and I always find discussions with you interesting.

"Every available moment of my own speaking time is definitly promised until late October, when I hope to be able to return to Illinois for one more speech before election. Under the circumstances, your proposal to me comes too late to be considered in its entirety.

Hopes for Final Meeting.

"But I urge you to proceed with your own discussions of the REAL constitutional questions involved in this campaign. Then we might hope to meet perhaps once at the finish; or I will be glad to endeavor to answer at that time whatever questions you may have put to me in your own speeches during the interim.

"But I respectfully suggest that the text for constitutional discussion should not be quite so adroitly circumscribed as in your proposal that I PROVE the Roosevelt party to have KNOWINGLY violated the constitution. While motives are fairly obvious most of the time, and always important, it is results and trends that are decisive things.

"A reckless cigaret smoker can start just as bad a forest fire as a deliberate incendiary. Dynamite hurts just as much when touched off by a pleasant reformer as when turned loose by a sinister bolshevik. One may be as dead from accident as from murder.

"What America wants to know is whether her institutions are in danger—regardless of the alleged benevolent motives, if any, of those who want to give us permanently a new 'social and economic order' [I have quoted a presidential phrase]. The important things, as I distinctly said in my Chicago speech, are TRENDS, ATTITUDES and IMPLICATIONS. These are what should be discussed.

Offers Five Propositions.

"To be specific, I suggest that if you disagree with the constitutional sentiments uttered by me in my recent Chicago speech, you should defend in your campaign discussions some such propositions as the following:

"Resolved: That the President was right when he asked congress to pass New Deal legislation regardless of 'doubts as to its constitutionality, however reasonable'; and the Supreme court was wrong when, in rejecting one of several New Deal schemes, it warned that 'every journey to a forbidden land begins with the first step.'"

"Or,

"Resolved, That it is best for America to be governed by concentrations of power which the President says could, in wrong hands, 'shackle the liberties of the American people.'

"Or,

"Resolved, That we approve the implications of the Democratic digest for March, 1936, in which this organ of the Democratic national committee suggests the erection of a guillotine in front of the Supreme Court building.

"Or,

"Resolved, That we want to take a journey toward frontiers quite different from any we ever have known in the United States, as described by Secretary Wallace; and that we want Dr. Tugwell's 'third economy' with its 'calculated change of institutions' and Dr. Ezekiel's 'blueprint society.

"Or,

"Resolved, That we favor the proposals of Senator Norris, the Roosevelt party's candidate for reëlection, to curb the authority of the Supreme court.

"It seems to me that some such tangible texts as these would be much more realistic and significant than any such theme as you have proposed—although I bow in admiration before your legalistic finesse in so framing your own question that none but a successful White House psychoanalyst should reach it conclusively. I doubt whether any one could undertake to prove what this administration 'knowingly' is doing.

"Expressing the hope of your continued good health, I am,

Very sincerely,
"ARTHUR H. VANDENBERG."

WAUKEGAN PUTS OFF RETURN TO CENTRAL TIME

Waukegan will continue on Chicago daylight time until Nov. 8, pending the outcome of the Chicago referendum on the time question to be held on Nov. 3. This was decided by the Waukegan city council by a vote of 7 to 5 last night.

Daylight saving time in Waukegan was to have come to an end next Sunday, but Ald. Walter Tannahill produced statements from many Waukegan manufacturers objecting to any change until the matter had been voted on in Chicago.

Since North Chicago, Winthrop Harbor and virtually all the towns in the western part of Lake county have agreed to abide by Waukegan's action, and the several north shore communities already have agreed to retain daylight savings time until after Nov. 3, there will be no immediate break in the time standard just north of Chicago.

ROBERT H. ICKES LOSES LICENSE TO DRIVE AUTO

Haverhill, Mass., Sept. 21.—(AP)—An automobile accident nine days ago tonight cost Robert H. Ickes, adopted son of Secretary of the Interior Harold L. Ickes, temporary loss of the right to operate an automobile in Massachusetts.

But shortly after the registrar of motor vehicles suspended his license, Ickes, now employed on a federal relief project in nearby Winchester, declared:

"I have no intention of driving my car in Massachusetts any longer. It is put up in a garage and it is going to stay there."

Inspectors found Ickes "entirely to blame" for an accident here Sept. 12 in which five persons claimed injuries.

Only a month ago, Ickes was acquitted of a charge of driving when under the influence of liquor. At that time his father charged police were "persecuting" his son.

U. OF C. WOMAN PROFESSOR WED TO EX-STUDENT

A campus faculty romance came to light yesterday with the revelation of the secret marriage of Nell Sawin, assistant professor of institution economics, University of Chicago, to A. B. Johnson, a former student there. They were reported on a belated ten day honeymoon last night.

Prof. Sawin and Johnson, whose home and business are in Yankton, S. D., were married at the First Presbyterian church, 64th street and Kimbark avenue, last March 24. His age was given as 38, and hers as 36.

The two met while he was a student at the business school, from which he was graduated with a Ph. D degree in 1925. They corresponded regularly after that until last March when they were married. The bride, who had been at the university fourteen years, has resigned, and will make her home with Johnson in Yankton.

BROOKS CHARGES POLITICAL 'GRAB' IN CONSERVATION

Alleges Misuse of Fees for Fishing, Hunting.

BY LLOYD WENDT.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Rock Island, Ill., Sept. 21.—[Special.]—Wayland Brooks, Republican candidate for governor, accused the Democratic state administration of using money received from the sale of fishing and hunting licenses for political jobs rather than for the promotion of conservation in the state, in addresses today in Geneseo, in Henry county, and at Rock Island.

"Fees collected from hunting and fishing licenses must be used for the promotion of conservation and not to furnish political jobs for an army of pay rollers," Brooks declared. "Illinois, with its rivers, lakes and forests, must be made attractive for sportsmen to fish, hunt and enjoy nature.

Charges Loss to State.

"Each week-end an army of our citizens leaves Illinois for Michigan, Wisconsin, and Indiana to seek the outdoor life that should be available here. Money taken to other states should be spent in Illinois.

"Illinois must have a modern, comprehensive, conservation administration. This can be accomplished efficiently and without added expense by creating a non political fish and game commission that would take from those states now having successful conservation administrations the best features of each."

Assails Pension System.

Brooks also attacked the old age assistance legislation enacted by the state administration in his talks today.

"The Democratic administration has imposed a pauper system upon our elderly citizens," he said.

"This old age pension law has been the cruelest hoax in Illinois history. A genuine old age pension system, free of burocratic red tape, should guarantee our elderly citizens the amount that our people intended they should have. The present law is not a pension law; it's only a pauper dole."

VOLUNTEERS' LEADER LAUGHS AT PLAN FOR 'FARLEY VOLUNTEERS'

New York, Sept. 21.—[Special.]—Mrs. Preston Davie, eastern chairman of the VOLUNTEERS, presided today at the opening of a second sunflower shop for the instruction of first voters. The shop, located at 7-9 Columbus circle, will be open daily until the election.

In a statement issued from the Landon VOLUNTEERS headquarters, 41 East Forty-second street, Mrs. Davie ridiculed the announcement that James A. Farley, national Democratic chairman, is going to form an organization of "Volunteers" among New Deal supporters in New York State.

"I have pictured Mr. Farley's Volunteers explaining to some woman about the more abundant life," she said. "I was interested in what Mr. Farley's Volunteer would answer when the housewife explained to him that she could no longer afford meat, owing to the increase in the cost of living.

"The promise of the more abundant life does not kid us. We know the price of pork chops. We do not want to surge forward with Comrade Tugwell. We do not want a dictator, even, as Al Smith said, a good dictator.

"We are horrified, Mr. Farley, by the cost of government under this administration. We do not want our children to be taxed because you want to build up a political machine. We do not want our families on relief or WPA work. We want them to have a job with a future. We know they would be working now if Mr. Roosevelt would leave business alone.

"We think your housing program is a flop. We think it was silly to kill all those little pigs when millions of people were going hungry. We think your brain-trusters are a bunch of impractical theorists. In other words, Mr. Farley, we women are going to elect Gov. Landon."

QUICK TRIGGER OUTLAW HOLDS UP 'L' STATION

An outlaw of the wild west type stepped up to the ticket window of the Kimball-Lawrence station at the end of the Ravenswood elevated line last night. He ordered Mrs. Ethel Rutledge, 1553 North Clark street, and Mrs. Cleo Berger, 6412 Glenwood avenue, agents, to give up the ticket money.

The two women refused. The robber roared impatiently, fired three shots in the air, then smashed in the glass panel of the ticket office door. Darting inside, he scooped up the contents of the till and fled.

There was no money in the till, but he got $600 worth of tickets, assuring him about ten years of free "L" rides at the rate of twelve for a dollar.

HAMILTON CALLS LANDON SPUR TO BUSINESS SURGE

Credits G. O. P. Nomination for New Confidence.

Baltimore, Md., Sept. 21.—(AP)—John Hamilton, national Republican chairman, said tonight that his party's nomination of Gov. Alf. M. Landon for President had started a surge of business recovery in the United States.

"There has been the beginning of a real recovery during the last three months through all the avenues of American enterprise and endeavor," Hamilton declared in an address here.

"I do not think it is by coincidence that this recovery began at exactly the same time that the character and principles of Gov. Landon became widely known and appreciated.

Sees Renewed Confidence.

"Gov. Landon deserves credit for creating throughout this nation a new confidence—a confidence that there are still men in public life who believe that promises should be performed, a confidence that the old and basic faiths which for the last three and a half years have been belittled and betrayed, still carry meaning."

Flaying the Roosevelt administration with charges of broken promises and betrayal of the Democratic platform and the party principles, Hamilton said he wished to "pay my tribute" to the newspaper, the Baltimore Sun, for its "courage and integrity" in deciding "it cannot support in this election the principles and implications of Mr. Roosevelt's philosophy."

Calls for Rally to G. O. P.

Hamilton offered the Republican party as "the one unit around which can rally . . . many Democratic papers and . . . thousands upon thousands of independent Democratic voters throughout the nation who have taken a similar stand.

"The theories which the Republican party questions and which many lifelong Democrats question," the national chairman continued," are the theories of a new party and ticket in our history—a one man party and a one man ticket—the party and the ticket of Franklin Delano Roosevelt."

'Tobacco Road' Actress Dies in Gas Explosion

Irvington, N. Y., Sept. 21.—[Special.]—Mrs. John Edward Tynan, 30 years old, an actress formerly with a "Tobacco Road" company on tour, was killed in a gas explosion which police believe was the result of a suicide attempt. The actress, known on the stage as Edris Rulienne, had been despondent for a year, her husband said. The explosion blew out a side of their home.

British Princess to Obey School Custom of 'Fagging'

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

LONDON, Sept. 21.—Princess Elizabeth, second in succession to the British throne, who will enter St. Leonard school, will submit to the system of "fagging" the same as other commoner pupils, it has been decided by her mother, the duchess of York. Fagging means acting as servant to older girls in upper classes. It consists of carrying messages to older girls, preparing tea for them, and shining their shoes.

Have the differences in cigarette manufacture any relation to coughs due to smoking? A group of doctors sought to find that out for themselves.

They made tests with Philip Morris Cigarettes, and cigarettes made by the ordinary method of manufacture.

In 3 out of every 4 cases, smokers' coughs cleared completely on changing to Philip Morris. And watch this: on changing back to cigarettes made by the ordinary method, coughs promptly returned in a large number of cases.*

On such conclusive evidence, you can smoke Philip Morris freely. Smoke them for good taste, as well . . . for their robust, full-flavored tobaccos.

SKINNY GIRLS REPORT QUICK WEIGHT GAINS
WITH NEW "7-POWER" ALE YEAST TABLETS

"I GAINED 10 pounds in 4 weeks and now get many compliments from both boy and girl friends," writes Iona White, Pampa, Texas. "I gained 10 pounds in 2 weeks—everybody says I look prettier," says Rose Marie Malaker, Aurora, Ill. "I gained 20 pounds in 5 weeks with Ironized Yeast and now have dates almost all the time," declares Celia Slonaker, Hughsville, Pa.

Thousands of others who thought they were "born to be skinny" have put on 10 to 25 pounds of solid, naturally attractive flesh with these new Ironized Yeast tablets—in just a few weeks!

What is more, this new discovery has given them naturally clear skin, freedom from indigestion and constipation, new health, strength and pep.

Why they build up so quickly

Scientists recently discovered that no end of people are thin and rundown for the single reason that they do not get enough digestion-strengthening Vitamin B and blood-enriching iron in their daily food. Now the richest known source of this marvelous body-building Vitamin B is cultured ale yeast. By a new process the finest imported cultured ale yeast is now concentrated 7 times—made 7 times more powerful. Then it is combined with 3 kinds of iron, pasteurized whole yeast and other valuable ingredients in little tablets known as Ironized Yeast tablets.

If you, too, need these elements to build you up, get these new "7-power" Ironized Yeast tablets from your druggist today. Then day after day watch flat chest develop and skinny limbs round out to natural attractiveness. Constipation and indigestion from the same cause vanish, skin clears to normal beauty—you're a new person.

Money-back guarantee

No matter how skinny and rundown you may be from shortage of Vitamin B and iron, try these new Ironized Yeast tablets just a short time. See if they don't build you up in a few weeks, as they have thousands of others. If you are not delighted with the benefits of the very first package, your money back instantly.

Special FREE offer!

To start thousands building up their health right away, we make this FREE offer. Purchase a package of Ironized Yeast tablets at once, cut out the seal on the box and mail it to us with a clipping of this offer. We will send you a fascinating new book on health, "New Facts About Your Body." Remember, results with the very first package—or money refunded. At all druggists. Ironized Yeast Co., Inc., Dept. NEW DEAL OPENS DRIVE TO ENLIST COLORED VOTERS

Hold 25 Meetings on Day of Emancipation.

New York, Sept. 21.—[Special.]—A nation-wide campaign to enlist colored voters in support of the New Deal got under way tonight with a massmeeting in Madison Square Garden. The proceedings were broadcast over a national radio hook-up and were linked with twenty-five similar meetings in cities throughout the industrial northeastern states.

The meetings were organized by the colored committee of the Good Neighbor league to celebrate the seventy-fourth anniversary of the issuance of the preliminary emancipation proclamation by Abraham Lincoln, as well as to indorse the candidacy of Franklin D. Roosevelt.

Turn On Old Loyalties.

After listening to a message from President Roosevelt which warned them that they must be constantly vigilant to maintain their liberty, the crowd at the meeting here adopted a resolution asserting that "we must emancipate ourselves from mere party names and party shibboleths even though this may shatter tradition and ancient loyalties."

Urging colored voters "not to be shackled by the slavery of dead issues of the day long past," the resolution exhorted them to join with forward looking citizens, regardless of race, color, or origin, to "carry forward the real spirit of Abraham Lincoln by supporting the social and economic program of our great President, Franklin D. Roosevelt."

Richberg a Speaker.

The speakers included Donald Richberg, Representative Caroline O'Day, Bishop R. R. Wright Jr. of the African Methodist Episcopal church, Dr. Stanley High, director of the Good Neighbor league, and the Rev. A. Clayton Powell of the Abyssinian Baptist church.

The President's message, read by Bishop Wright, extended greetings to the gathering, and emphasized that "it is an occasion for recalling the great progress which Negroes have made as citizens of our republic.

"It also is an occasion for remembering that in the truest sense freedom cannot be bestowed, it must be achieved," the message continued, "and that there must be constant vigilance if it is to be maintained."

17TH SUSPECT IN STOLEN SECURITY RING ARRESTED

Washington, D. C., Sept. 21.—(AP)—J. Edgar Hoover, director of the federal bureau of investigation, today announced the arrest at Haverhill, Mass., of Pete Metropolis, described as a member of an international ring disposing of stolen securities.

Metropolis waived removal, Hoover said, and was taken to New York for arraignment today.

The prisoner is charged with having participated in the disposition of securities stolen from the Bank of Manhattan company and the United States Trust company, both of New York. United States treasury notes valued at $1,456,000 were stolen from the Manhattan bank Jan. 28, 1935, while the trust company lost $590,000 worth of similar securities by theft Dec. 13, 1934.

Metropolis is the seventeenth person arrested by federal agents in connection with the two thefts.

VOLUNTEERS ISSUE A WARNING AGAINST SOLICITORS OF FUNDS

THE VOLUNTEERS' headquarters issued a warning yesterday against persons who are using the name of the organization to solicit funds. A few complaints have been received that people have been approached and asked to buy tickets for VOLUNTEER picnics.

THE VOLUNTEERS do not ask for contributions and hold no picnics at which there is any charge. The members of THE VOLUNTEERS are enrolled for personal service in a patriotic campaign. Persons solicited for funds are asked to coöperate with the headquarters in apprehending the solicitors.

The women's division of THE VOLUNTEER unit in the Seventeenth ward will hold a meeting tomorrow afternoon in the headquarters at 6918 Wentworth avenue. A large crowd is expected and more VOLUNTEERS will be recruited.

LA GUARDIA ASKS FOR 'CHANGES' IN U.S. CONSTITUTION

New York, Sept. 21.—[Special.]—The United States has grown into an "economic unit" and the constitution should be changed to meet the present interdependence of the states, Mayor F. H. La Guardia said today in a speech which opened the annual convention of the New York state district of Kiwanis International.

The New York mayor declared "we must face the situation eventually, and the sooner the better." There is no use quarreling with the courts, and the only way to correct the problem is to alter the constitution, he said. He assailed "cheap labor" and other industrial conditions now prevailing in some states, and said that morality in Nevada ought to be the same as morality in New York.

"If a crook crosses a state line, the federal government ought to have the right to grab him," he said. "Organizations like yours ought to take an interest in this and study the constitution. When you take interest in public affairs, instead of politics, the future of the country will be secure."

He urged the delegates to crystalize public opinion against child labor. He said they should use their influence toward making the New York legislature ratify the federal child labor amendment when it meets next January.

Sweden's Cabinet to Quit After Foes Win at Polls

STOCKHOLM, Sweden, Sept. 21.—(AP)—Axel Pehrsson, agrarian premier of Sweden for three months, announced today his cabinet would resign Wednesday following Social-Democrat victories in Sunday's chamber election. Pehrsson took office after the Socialist government of Premier Peralbin Hansson resigned on June 15, following its defeat on an old age pension bill.

STATE EMPLOYES PRESSED TO BUY HORNER'S PAPER

Propaganda Sheet Said to Be Educational.

Springfield, Ill., Sept. 21.—[Special.]—State employés who have contributed subscriptions to Truth, the campaign paper of the Democratic state administration, are promised a treat in campaign literature this week. The new publication is to make its appearance on the streets and be put in the mail Wednesday morning.

Miss Frances Krimmel, state employé in the office of the department of reports, is the editor. Miss Krimmel is located at the Democratic headquarters in the St. Nicholas hotel.

"It will be a very creditable publication," said Miss Krimmel, "eight pages in size and containing information of educational value concerning the state—this is an educational publication."

Nudelman Is Manager.

A prospectus of the publication, which was in circulation some time ago, gave the tentative setup of the organization with Sam Nudelman, assistant director of finance, as the business manager. The staf includes D. Fred Endicott and Cephus Page, employés of the statehouse. The Truth Publishing company is the publisher.

State employés have been asked to get five subscriptions each for the paper, which is to run until Nov. 4. The solicitation is really a campaign levy on employés, although Miss Krimmel says the request for subscriptions is general and no one is under compulsion to take or pay for a paper. "We want subscriptions wherever we can get them," she says.

Pay 2 Per Cent of Salary.

On the fourth floor of the Leland office building on Capitol avenue is the headquarters of the Iroquois league, another "educational institution" which is operated "to promote good government in Illinois." Harold Taylor of Effingham, clerk of the house of representatives, is in charge. All employés of Gov. Horner's code departments are members of this organization, which is regularly incorporated. It receives 2 per cent of the salary of members as "contributions" to the cause of good government.

Contributions from other sources also are welcome and there is nothing that requires the applicant for membership to be on the pay roll. The Iroquois league is particularly interested in Gov. Horner, having been formed among his supporters during his primary fight for renomination.

Shot to Death in Saloon; Police Told It's a Suicide

Raymond J. Duffy, 38 years old, 827 State street, Calumet City, was shot and killed last night in the tavern of Andrew Hornak, 45 years old, 125 Plumber street, Calumet City. Hornak told police Duffy picked up Hornak's pistol from the bar and shot himself in the head.

Two Illini Frats Victims of Burglars Same Night

Champaign, Ill., Sept. 21.—[Special.]—Two faternity houses on the University of Illinois campus were robbed last night. Phi Kappa Psi fraternity lost $600 in jewelry and cash while an unknown amount was taken from Phi Sigma Kappa.

ATTACKS HORNER FUND SOLICITING IN CIVIL SERVICE

Leader of Protective Group Hits Back.

Coercion of state civil service employés into contributing to Gov. Horner's political funds was condemned yesterday by William J. Thorp, secretary of the Civil Service Protective association, 105 West Monroe street.

The latest solicitation of funds from state employés, including those on civil service, is in the form of subscriptions to a forthcoming publication of the Truth Publishing company, which is to be issued as a chronicle of the achievements of the present state administration.

State Employés Solicited.

State employés have been solicited for $5 each to pay for five subscriptions and have been told to give the names of five friends to whom the publication may be sent.

Complaints have been received by the protective association that civil service employés are among those told to subscribe to the publication. Thorp said he is advising members of the association that they cannot be forced to take subscriptions. If any members are ousted from their jobs for failure to subscribe or for any other political reason, he said, the association will carry on their fight for them.

Recalls Primary Campaign.

Pressure on state employés to contribute to the Horner campaign in the primary last spring was the worst he ever has known, Thorp said. It became so bad, he declared, that the protective association found it necessary to get an injunction restraining five state executive officers from intimidating and forcing civil service employés to make campaign contributions.

If there is further evidence of coercion of civil service employés in the fall campaign, Thorp said, the association again will ask a court order restraining state department heads from soliciting funds from these employés.

ARREST DISGRACE THE O'DONNELL? GILBERT SAYS NO

Capt Daniel Gilbert, chief investigator for the state's attorney, denied yesterday that Edward [Spike] O'Donnell, former south side beer baron, was brought into "public scandal and disgrace" by being arrested. His denial was contained in an answer filed in the Superior court by Assistant State's Attorney William J. Kearney, representing Capt. Gilbert in a suit for $25,000 damages brought against him by O'Donnell, who charged he was falsely arrested last July 23.

Capt. Gilbert's answer denies O'Donnell is a man of good reputation, cites his police record of twenty arrests since 1916, and declares the arrest was made after one of O'Donnell's henchmen had threatened David Kornblith, with whom O'Donnell was negotiating a deal to sell his interest in a gasoline station.

Kornblith is the son-in-law of Master in Chancery Max Korshak, another defendant in the suit for false arrest. O'Donnell was seized in Master Korshak's office.

DEMOCRAT RIFT PERILS PARTY'S CHANCES IN N. Y.

New Deal Efforts Fail to Restore Harmony.

New York, Sept., 21—[Special.]—The candidacies of both President Roosevelt and Gov. Herbert Lehman in New York state today faced the threat of being dangerously undermined by a double-headed party rebellion, as week-end efforts of the New Deal managers to restore harmony in the widening city ranks met with dismal failure.

Thus a prospective wide open break, three years in the making, has become a critical situation for James A. Farley, state and national chairman and his tickets.

The forces of Frank J. Prial, declining to entertain repeated suggestions for peace, pressed hard for a recount of the vote in last Tuesday's primary in which Prial, an independent candidate, was defeated by Sherif William Brunner of Queensborough, organization candidate for the nomination for president of the aldermanic board. Tomorrow, it was reported, the Prial forces will appear before the board of elections and present their charges of fraud.

So thoroughly aroused are members of the Prial group that they have declared they will visit reprisals both on President Roosevelt and Gov. Lehman on election day as their means of hitting at Farley. Their anger is stirred by their conviction that Farley meddled in the city campaign.

KILLS FARM AID, ESTRANGED WIFE, THEN ENDS LIFE

Port Jervis, N. Y., Sept. 21.—(AP)—Three persons were slain today in what state police described as a double murder and suicide.

Lieut. Walter Riley said Merritt Meade, 28 years old, apparently killed Louis Davey, 62, a farm hand employed by Miss Isabelle Green, 82; forced his estranged wife, Grace, 25, into an automobile, and then killed her en route to the Meade farm at Greenville.

Meade, the trooper said, drove three miles to his father's farm where he was employed, dragged his wife's body from the automobile, and called to his mother. Terrified at the sight, the elder Mrs. Meade ran into a field to seek help.

When she returned with Meade's father, Riley said, they found their son's body lying beside his wife, with two bullet wounds in the head.

Riley said he learned from another employé at the Green place, that Davey had told Meade to stay away from the farm. Mrs. Meade had been employed as a housekeeper for Miss Green since the couple separated about two weeks ago, he said.

Mrs. Roosevelt Reported Recovering from Illness

Washington, D. C., Sept. 21.—[Special.]—Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, who is confined to the White House with influenza, was reported much improved today by Dr. Ross T. McIntire, White House physician. Her temperature was normal. It was expected she would be able to leave her rooms late this week.

'HI-JACK' FUNDS FOR VOTE DRIVE OF DEMOCRATS

'Shaking Down' Business in Defiance of Law.

BY ARTHUR SEARS HENNING.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

San Francisco, Cal., Sept. 21.—[Special.]—The Democratic national committee, it was learned here today, is raising a colossal Roosevelt campaign fund by shaking down corporations in defiance of the spirit, if not the letter, of the federal corrupt practices act.

It is assessing those corporations chiefly that have sold, are selling, or hope to sell materials, machinery and other supplies for PWA, WPA, and numerous other federal relief activities.

An army of collectors has been deployed in every state of the Union to put the heat on business men under pain of incurring the ill-favor of the New Deal. From what has been learned of the operations of these collectors, who exhibit the authority of W. Forbes Morgan, treasurer of the Democratic national committee, there is in their activities a scandal crying for the attention of the senate campaign fund investigating committee.

No Investigation Foreseen.

Inasmuch, however, as the Democrats control the investigating commitee and have demonstrated in the case of Maine their intention to use its powers for partisan purposes, there is little likelihood of any investigation of the Democratic fund gathering methods.

The federal law prohibits contributions to political campaign funds by corporations. To circumvent the letter of this law, the Democratic national committee is soliciting contributions from corporations in the guise of purchases of copies of the Democratic Year Book for 1936 at a price of $5 per copy.

The national committee collector is armed with a sheaf of blank contracts and a list of the amounts corporations have been assessed by the Roosevelt campaign managers. If the assessment is $5,000, for example, the corporation head is called on by the collector to sign a contract for 1,000 Democratic year books.

The contract provides that the signer may receive the books for such disposition as he wishes or he may furnish the national committee with a mailing list for distribution of the books or he may leave the books with the committee to be mailed in its discretion.

Armed with Figures.

The operations of the collectors have been the subject of gossip for several weeks. Large numbers of corporations are said to have been shaken down for large amounts. Business men have been exchanging accounts of the pressure brought to bear on them by the Farley agents. In virtually every case the collector had approximately accurate figures of the amount of business the corporation had done with the government. The assessment was a fixed percentage of this gross.

The affair came into the open when one collector, J. F. Gormley, called on the head of a cement concern with a demand for a $5,000 contract for the Democratic year books. Gormley showed a letter from Treasurer Morgan authorizing his activities. The cement man happened to be a Republican, who was outraged by the proposition.

"Isn't this a dodge to get around the law against corporation contributions?" he hotly demanded.

"Well, you can look at it that way if you want to," Collector Gormley was quoted as replying. Gormley didn't get the contribution.

Have Inside Track.

There is every indication that the Democrats have the inside track in this state at present. The trend has been strongly Democratic for the last four years. The registration is now about 500,000 more Democrats than Republicans. Republican leaders caution you not to attach too much significance to that fact, for in 1932, when Roosevelt carried the state, the registration was 400,000 Republicans. The Republicans, however, realize that they are up against an uphill fight, and the most optimistic are unwilling to say more than that they have a 50-50 chance to win.

The Republicans are without money, are embarrassed by sores left by the primary battle between the Landon-Hearst forces and the Hoover-led advocates of an uninstructed delegation to Cleveland, and are only just beginning to get their campaign launched. They were greatly encouraged by the large and enthusiastic meeting Col. Frank Knox had here last Friday night. The audience filled Dreamland auditorium, which has a capacity of 7,500.

A previously announced meeting in a hall with half that capacity on the same night for a speech by Harry Hopkins, WPA administrator, was called off by the Democrats. The vigorous speeches of Col. Knox have attracted wide attention everywhere he has appeared in the Pacific coast region.

New Deal Money Pours In.

The Democrats have plenty of money, have their campaign workers on the New Deal pay rolls, and are exploiting all New Deal expenditures for political advantage. More than 1¼ billion dollars have been poured into California by the various New Deal agencies. More than half a million persons are on relief. One reason for the large Democratic registration is the fear instilled in the minds of persons on relief that they would suffer from discrimination or perhaps lose their relief status completely unless they registered as Democrats.

The Democrats, of course, are facing the defection here as elsewhere of the conservatively minded Jeffersonians who cannot stomach the New Deal. They will either vote for Gov. Landon or not vote at all. There is on foot a plan to organize the conservative Democrats into a Jeffersonian Landon club. Al Smith has a large following here and efforts are being made to bring him here for a speech in aid of Landon.

Radicals Indorse Roosevelt.

On the other hand, all the radical elements of the population are pretty thoroughly consolidated in support of Mr. Roosevelt. The California Federation of Labor, which is perhaps the most radical aggregation of unions in the country, has just indorsed the President, and also John L. Lewis' radical labor leadership.

It is not unlikely that the labor disputes besetting these Pacific coast states will have an influence on the election results. California particularly is the scene of strikes and threatened strikes.

The gathering of the lettuce crop 175 miles south of San Francisco is being impeded by a strike of seasonal workers attended by much violence and some bloodshed. Sherif's deputies are patroling the region.

The federation of labor has demanded the recall of Gov. Merriam on charges that he has failed to protect the workers. The governor is endeavoring to arbitrate the wage dispute. The farmers contend that communists are inciting the strike at the crucial moment, when it is necessary to pick, transport, and pack lettuce within five days of its ripening.

Shipping Tieup Imminent.

A water front strike that will tie up the shipping of the entire coast on Oct. 1 is in the offing. If it materializes in anything like the extent of the one two years ago it will paralyze business. Owners already are rerouting ships in anticipation of a tieup. The sailors' union, in current negotiations for a new contract, insist on collective bargaining for themselves, but deny it to the employers. They have refused to negotiate with the shipowners collectively, asserting that they will deal with each company separately.

Encouraged by New Deal labor legislation that has strengthened union labor enormously, by the President's incitement of class feeling and by Secretary of Labor Perkins' antagonism to employers, labor leaders everywhere are spurring their followers to make hay while the sun shines.

If the worst fears are realized in the impending strikes, a class warfare at the ballot box doubtless will be the result, for that's exactly what happened two years ago when the conservatives rose en masse in the last two weeks of the campaign and on election day annihilated Upton Sinclair's socialistic EPIC which had captured the Democratic party.

VOTE TO LANDON

MISS ALICE J. BROWN.

Miss Alice J. Brown, 83 years old, 1414 Thorndale avenue, will vote in the November election for the first time in her life. She said yesterday that she registered Saturday and will cast her vote for Landon and Brooks and the whole Republican ticket. "I was born in Indianapolis," Miss Brown said, "and lived in the United States all my life. But I have never exercised my right to vote. The present trend toward dictatorship is too much for me and I have decided to do my part to change things."

INDIA'S SELF-RULE TO BEGIN IN APRIL, 1937, VICEROY ANNOUNCES

SIMLA, India, Sept. 21.—(AP)—The marquess of Linlithgow, new viceroy of India, in his first address to the Indian legislature today said the stage was set for provincial autonomy in April, 1937.

He added the transitory period until the inauguration of a federation in India probably would be of short duration.

"Great Britian and India are about to initiate an experiment in representative government, which for breadth of conception is without a parallel in history," Lord Linlithgow declared.

THE TRUTH ABOUT HAIR and HAIR TREATMENTS!

"IT isn't age that causes baldness," says Charles Nessler, leading hair biologist. "No matter what his age—the normal person can easily retain his hair—can encourage hair replacement merely by following a few simple rules."

"Nor is falling hair the cause of baldness," Charles Nessler goes on to explain. "It's as natural for a human's hair to fall as for an animal to shed. Don't try to stop falling hair. It can't be done! Help Nature to replace the hair that falls."

LEGION URGED TO COMBAT DANGERS TO U. S. FREEDOM

Newton D. Baker Points to Menacing Influences.

Cleveland, O., Sept. 21.—[Special.]—Pleas for the maintenance of liberty and peace in "a world of strange philosophies and subversive influences" provided the general theme on which the 18th annual convention of the American Legion opened here today.

Thousands of Legionnaires from all states of the Union and many foreign countries gathered here to disport themselves and relive the stirring days of more than 20 years ago.

The convention was called to order in the same hall where earlier this summer the Republicans nominated Gov. Alf M. Landon for the presidency and where the followers of Dr. Francis E. Townsend and the Rev. Charles E. Coughlin met in convention.

Called "Hope of American."

Newton D. Baker, secretary of war under war time President Wilson, addressed the opening session of the Legion conclave. He told the thousands of colorfully garbed Legionnaires that they are "the hope of America" in a peace time battle for democracy, liberty and peace in a world of "political heresy."

"The situation in the world at large," said the distinguished statesman, "is one that may fill the stoutest heart with concern. There have grown up in the world strange philosophies, different from any we have seen, and they are mastering the minds and hearts of many men.

Refers to Other Nations.

"If the American Legion has one mission above another it is to see that the principle of liberty, of individual liberty, is not surrendered in deference to any political heresy.

"It is possible to find at least a half dozen countries armed to the teeth which have embraced the philosophy that it is permissible for them to exhaust resources of science and united action for economic purposes."

"Friendly greetings" to the Legionnaires from President Roosevelt were contained in a message in which he said: "I shall be deeply interested in the results of their deliberations."

Voices Faith in Legion.

"Happily the energies of the members need not now be expended in warfare," the President's message said. "Nevertheless, the pursuits of peace impose solemn duties upon us all. But in peace, as in war, I have faith that the activities of the American Legion will ever reflect the watchword 'for God and country.'"

Criticism of the Veterans of Future Wars, an organization of university students, was made by Gov. Martin L. Davey of Ohio in an address of welcome to the Legionnaires. Davey charged that the organization was formed to "sneer at the service of the men who risked their all. Millions resent that sneer."

The need of an educational program against subversive influences in the United States was pointed out by Mrs. Melville Mucklestone of Chicago in her president's address to the national convention of the American Legion auxiliary, held simultaneously with the men's annual meeting.

Likens Menace to Octopus.

"The Red menace," she said, "can best be compared to an octopus, its head located in Moscow labeled 'Third Internationale,' whose slimy, tentacled arms are stretched out to all parts of the civilized world."

National Commander Ray Murphy called the Legion convention to order with a plea for universal peace, but declared that America cannot disarm in the light of existing conditions.

"We look upon a world of men and nations gone mad," he said. "America will never start a war, but she cannot disarm in the face of continual war threats in other countries."

Expect 200,000 Attendance.

The military blare of trumpets and the lively beat of drums echoed through Cleveland's public hall as the assembly gathered. The auditorium, which has a capacity of 15,000, filled quickly. A peak attendance of 200,000 was predicted.

Mayor Edward Kelly of Chicago and Gov. Henry Horner of Illinois extended an invitation to the Legion to choose Chicago for its 1938 convention city.

"Even the 1933 welcome will be exceeded in warmth by that of 1938," they declared.

Giles de Sprit of Toronto, Canada, said if the Legion meets next year in Canada all the delegates will have a chance to see "the eighth wonder of the world—the Dionne quintuplets."

"40 and 8" Holds Parade.

The "40 and 8," honor society of the Legion, staged its greatest night parade this evening. The spectacle brought thousands of Legionnaires, carrying imitation box cars and sirens, cannon, whistles, and bagpipes galore to Cleveland's proudest street—Euclid avenue.

The entire Legion will march tomorrow in a mammoth parade in what will be the outstanding demonstration of the convention.

Many Legionnaires arrived in trailers and parked them on downtown streets. Water for drinking and cooking purposes was obtained from handy fire apparatus. Their trailer idea probably was smart, for the city's hotels were filled to capacity.

Merry-Making Abounds.

Street scenes usual at Legion conventions were enacted by playful Legionnaires throughout the downtown district. An Illinois "gang" halted all cars on Euclid avenue with the explanation, "We're the car inspection service." The street was soon filled solid with stopped cars and onlooking pedestrians. Street cars were rerouted.

"Texas Jim" Lewis of Portland, Ind., "commander" of a miniature cannon, said he had hardly started his bombardment in downtown streets. He declared: "I've only used 200 shots and I've got 2,000 to go yet."

ADMIT ERROR IN TEXT OF ROOSEVELT BOOK REVERSES MEANING

New York, Sept. 21.—[Special.]—It was admitted today at the offices of the John P. Day Company, Inc., publishers, that a typographical error made it appear that President Roosevelt, in his book "On Our Way," had said he was willing to live under an alien flag.

The omission of the prefix "un" in "unwilling" made the difference between the intended meaning and the text as printed. As printed on page 162 of the book, the President was made to say:

"It is because I am willing to live myself, or to have my children or grandchildren live, under an alien flag or an alien form of government, that I believe in the fundamental obligation of citizenship to don the uniform of our country, to carry arms in its defense when our country is attacked and the things it stands for are attacked."

City to Count Sheets in Paper Rolls, Jobbers Told

City Sealer James O'Keefe warned jobbers of toilet paper yesterday that after Oct. 1 twelve inspectors will be assigned to count the number of sheets in a roll. "Any jobber who falls under the mark on the wrapper will be charged with short measure," O'Keefe said. "And they can't get around it by not labeling each roll because that would violate the state labeling law."

JUDGE SURPRISED AS DOWDLE TAX CASE COMES UP

Judge James H. Wilkerson expressed surprise when the long pending income tax cases against the Dowdle Brothers, general contractors, appeared on his federal court docket yesterday with the opening of the fall term of court. The judge was informed the cases have been pending since Oct. 23, 1930.

The company and the three brothers, Thomas, Raymond, and John, are charged with evading income tax payments amounting to $203,654. The brothers are nephews of Patrick A. Nash, Democratic national committeeman.

At the request of Assistant District Attorney E. Riley Campbell Judge Wilkerson set the trial for Nov. 10.

"This case should have been tried long ago," Judge Wilkerson declared. The court then instructed Campbell to confer with Judge Evan A. Evans of the United States Circuit Court of Appeals for the purpose of obtaining an out of town judge to hear the case.

According to Campbell, the Dowdles have a compromise offer pending in Washington.

HEARING IS BEGUN ON RANIERI CLAIM FOR $300,000 LOSS

Hearing on a $300,000 claim against the government by Alex Ranieri, 4901 Altgeld street, a contractor, was begun yesterday before Fenton W. Booth, chief justice of the federal court of claims at the United States appraiser's office, 610 South Canal street.

Ranieri is the father of Billy Ranieri, central figure in a sensational kidnaping case in September, 1928. He sued the government two years ago for losses claimed in the construction of levees at New Orleans, La. Hearings on his suit will be held here and later in Louisiana and at Washington. The government charges Ranieri used materials not specified in their contract.

Communist Candidate on a National Radio Hookup

New York, Sept. 21.—[Special.]—James W. Ford, the communist party's Negro candidate for vice president of the United States, made a nation-wide radio address tonight over the National Broadcasting company's network, in which he denied that the communist party was supporting President Roosevelt.

Picking up a phrase from the White House statement of last Saturday, denying that Roosevelt was linked with the left wing, Mr. Ford said "the reactionaries will stop at nothing to push through their sinister plans."

ADVANCE BILLS TO VALIDATE 30c TAX FOR RELIEF

Final Action in Senate Is Due Early Thursday.

BY PERCY WOOD.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Springfield, Ill., Sept. 21.—[Special.]—Smooth sledding for the bills to validate the 30 cent township relief tax, which was declared of doubtful constitutionality by the Chicago law firm of Chapman & Cutler, advisers to Chicago bankers, was predicted tonight when the Illinois house, without objections, sent the curative measures to third reading.

If 102 affirmative votes can be obtained tomorrow, the bills will pass the house and be carried across the hall to the senate. And assuming an amenable attitude on the part of the upper chamber, they can be finally approved at a post-midnight session early Thursday. Gov. Henry Horner's signature probably will be forthcoming.

Will Eliminate Double Tax.

Most important of the bills advanced tonight was one which will permit the Cook county board to relocate township lines, eliminating double taxation which threatened taxpayers in seven Cook county townships which lie partly within and partly without the Chicago city limits. Other bills validate portions of the Hickman-Lantz-Finn bills, on which the township tax is based.

About the only hitch impending in this week's session, it is anticipated, will come on a roll call in the house on Representative Frank Holten's bill to increase the administrative cost which the township boards may incur in distributing relief from 5 per cent in downstate counties and 8 per cent in Cook to a flat 10 per cent for all.

Horner Opposes Increase.

A conference in Speaker John P. Devine's office last Monday night appeared favorably inclined toward the increase. Gov. Horner, however, stated his opposition to the bill later in the week and many members on the scene tonight, particularly downstaters, were found to side with the governor.

On their desks house members found copies of a report by the Illinois emergency relief commission showing that despite 168,600 men with WPA jobs in Illinois, the current number of family cases on the dole in the state is 161,000. This, in spite of the growing industrial activity, is an increase of 18,000 families over the July load.

CHARLES MARSH, A POLICEMAN 45 YEARS, TO RETIRE

Charles Edward Marsh, a police telephone operator, will listen for the last time tonight as the men of the Pekin Inn station make their hourly reports at the call boxes. Marsh is 63 years old tomorrow, and under the voluntary retirement act he will leave the police department on that day after having served for 45 years and 6 months.

Marsh is the son of the late Charles Marsh, former customs collector for the port of Chicago, and a nephew of the late Frederick Marsh, chief of police in 1890-91.

Marsh joined the department at the age of 18. When he was 21 he was made an operator, with the badge "13." He has served as operator at the old Harrison street, Wabash avenue, and Pekin Inn stations.

Roosevelt's Aids Are Linked to Scheme for a Revolution

Washington, D. C., Sept. 21.—(AP)—The Republican national committee said in a statement tonight that "the men who advocated revolution, who calmly discussed the amount of 'blood that ought to be shed' still are in Roosevelt's confidence and controlling his actions."

The committee made its assertion in connection with announcement of a book by George N. Peek, first agriculture adjustment administration chief, and Samuel Crowther. The book, the committee said, "is damning evidence, enough to convince the most skeptical, that the New Deal was tainted with communism from its very inception."

"It is," the committee contended at another point, "too late for President Roosevelt to make any effective answer."

"Deceived Nation in 1934."

In the 1934 congressional campaign, the committee said, the President "deceived the country as to the influence this group had with him."

"He sent Rexford G. Tugwell to Europe," the committee said. "Jerome Frank was kept in the background. The visits to the White House of Felix Frankfurter, always furtive, were secret."

[Tugwell is undersecretary of agriculture, Frank is counsel for the AAA and Frankfurter a professor of law at Harvard university.]

"But with that election won, the radicals have mounted in public importance as well as in secret influence with the President. The old 'brain trust' was dismembered, the more sane who wanted reform and not revolution, progressivism and not bolshevism, were thrown into the discard.

"George Peek was thrown overboard, Raymond Moley embarrassed and then ignored. Why? Because they opposed various plans of the administration aimed at bringing about this much desired socialization of the farmers and the crushing of private business."

The committee quoted Peek as saying in the book:

"'I have been to several parties of Tugwell's and Jerome Frank's and they have a very different idea of this administration from what we have. They all are talking social revolution and they have an idea that it is the mission of the Roosevelt administration to turn us into some kind of socialistic state. They think the place to start is with the farmers, who in other countries have formed the chief obstacle to socialism.'"

Peek was described as saying later in his book:

"'For a while the notion was popular among a certain set that relief work should be pushed forward with the intent of driving the whole country on relief and thus making the capitalistic system commit suicide.

Hopkins Boosts Plan.

"'They insisted that Harry Hopkins [then Relief, now Works Progress administrator] was with them on this and was directing his talents toward forcing relief work to drive out private work and cause an ever greater number of unemployed.

"'They differed on what the revolution was about and what should be done afterward. They also differed as to the blood that ought to be shed. Some were for no blood and others for a lot of blood.'"

The committee statement then said: "Does it seem possible that President Roosevelt did not know what his subordinates, the very men who had the most influence with him, were doing and talking about?"

Schoolgirl Kills Self When Man Weds Another

Tuckahoe, N. Y., Sept. 21.—[Special.]—Despondent because a man ten years older with whom she was in love had married a week ago, Doris Purcell, 16, Bronxville High school student, committed suicide today.

Freed from Basement Slavery

with the aid of Instalment Buying

A winter morning, fifteen years ago, meant stoking a balky furnace. Today, the automatic heater keeps the home cozily warm without the slightest attention.

Until recently only men of means could afford such heating plants and they had to pay cash.

Then the Instalment Plan Was Introduced

The automobile industry had already demonstrated how the public benefits by instalment selling. The heating industry followed this example. Responsible householders were invited to enjoy the benefits of automatic heat while paying out of monthly earnings. Sales went up. Production bounded ahead. The product improved amazingly. Prices dropped steadily—now they are within easy reach of modest incomes, and the days of basement slavery are over.

Instalment selling has made America pre-eminently a land of convenience. Automatic heating plants, refrigerators, washing machines and other labor-saving devices bring cheer to millions of homes.

Since 1908 C. I. T. has had a substantial share in this achievement. Twenty-eight years devoted to the credit needs of the American people have made C. I. T. the largest independent sales financing institution in the world. The C. I. T. Budget Plan has brought home comforts to great numbers of American families of moderate means, increasing their leisure and saving their health.

Valuable 16-page Booklet, Free

"Buying out of Income" tells how the C. I. T. Budget Plan is used by thoughtful families to increase the effectiveness of current income. It shows what you have to gain by asking for C. I. T. when purchasing on the instalment plan. For free copy write C. I. T. Corporation, 1 Park Avenue, New York, N. Y., Dept.

IOWA PREPARES FOR CROWD OF 50,000 AT LANDON SPEECH

Des Moines, Ia., Sept. 21.—[Special.]—Plans were complete here today for at least 50,000 persons to hear Gov. Alf M. Landon explain his views on the farm problem at the Iowa state fair grounds tomorrow night.

Ninety-nine Iowa farmers, one from each county, today were invited to confer with Gov. Landon and 300 Iowa newspaper men at a luncheon at 1 p. m., Wednesday. One editor in each county was asked to choose a farmer from his county to attend.

The luncheon idea belongs to the candidate himself, according to Carl H. Cook, Iowa Republican chairman. It is specified that the farmers who attend must own their own land, must be representative of their county seat, and must not have been too active in politics in the past.

CANNADY STILL ABSENT; SO IS THE 'BIG BOY'

William Cannady, former policeman and precinct politician in the Eleventh ward, was still absent from the city yesterday, according to reports at his home, 3130 South Union avenue. Investigators were unable to learn whether he is "Big Boy Kennedy" whose influence brought about the release of Louis Swinberg, a pickpocket with a long record, on a personal bond without surety.

Swinberg was arrested on Sept. 10 after he had seized the purse of Mrs. June Walker, 115 Clyde avenue, Evanston, in a loop building. Two days later Judge Cecil C. Smith of the Municipal court at the request of "Big Boy" approved the bond, which was signed by Benny Berof. Swinberg failed to appear when his case was called in the Felony court the next day. He is being sought.

Yesterday Judge Smith said his bailifs were still seeking "Big Boy."

Sentenced to 60 Days' Jail as Unlicensed Physician

David B. Ingram, 49 years old, colored, was sentenced to sixty days in the county jail yesterday by Judge Albert E. Isley, sitting in the County court, on a charge of practicing medicine without a license. Ingram was the third to be found guilty of twelve persons recently arrested by the state department of registration and education in a campaign against quacks. A typewritten notice introduced in evidence is headed: "Dr. Ingram's Medical Laboratory for Women and Children for Chronical Diseases, entire second floor, 1075 West Roosevelt road."

FARLEY ACCUSED OF HERDING CCC BOYS AS VOTERS

Floats Southerners North for Nov. 3, Says Spangler

BY ARTHUR EVANS.

Accusations that the CCC camps are being organized as a "floating vote" for November by the New Deal machine under James A. Farley, Democratic national chairman and job dispenser, were made yesterday by Harrison E. Spangler, assistant Republican national chairman.

His charges followed reports from western states that efforts are being made to register young men from southern states now in CCC camps in the west and north, in the states where the camps are located, loading down the registration lists with southern Democratic votes. Spangler declared the activities may result in indictments for fraudulent voting.

"As election day approaches," said a statement from Spangler, "it becomes more evident every day that the Farley machine is desperately attempting to coerce many thousands of voters to vote the New Deal ticket. Many of the attempts which are being made by New Deal committees in many of the states are clearly fraudulent and contrary to law.

Reports of Virtual Coercion.

"Information has reached Republican headquarters that Farley committees are attempting to force the men in the CCC camps to register and vote for the New Deal in states where they are only temporarily residing.

"Many members of these camps whose homes are in southern states are being urged to register and vote in northern states where they are temporarily assigned in camps.

"Since voters are only eligible to vote in the states where they permanently reside, this is clearly fraudulent. No doubt it will result in many indictments, not only of Farley workers but of men in these camps who are forced to participate in this fraud.

"Many of the attempts of the New Dealers to force the civil service employés in the postal service and other services to vote the New Deal ticket are also fraudulent and are likely to result in many arrests if persisted in by the Farley workers."

Under the caption "The Public Debt Is 34 Billion Dollars," Republican national headquarters yesterday sent out a leaflet warning of the dangers of inflation. It says:

"The public debt has gone up like nobody's business since March 4, 1933. On March 4, 1933, it was $20,937,000,000. On June 30, 1936, it was $33,779,000,000.

"That is 8¼ billions more than the debt ever stood at the close of any fiscal year before Roosevelt. It is an increase of $12,842,000,000, or 61 per cent.

"Unless the New Deal is stopped the debt will be approximately $36,500,000,000 on next June 30. We will owe that much. It is a debt. Principal and interest are paid on it.

"In the ten years from 1921 through 1930, Republican administrations reduced the debt remaining from the war by an average of nearly three-quarters of a billion a year.

A Calamitous Spending Spree.

"The New Deal is on a spending jag that is running you into the hole. It has increased every family's share of debt by 55 per cent. Each family now owes $1,046. The New Deal has, in addition, increased hidden taxes to every buyer by 157 per cent. It has sliced 40 per cent from every dollar in your pocket by debasing the currency that much.

"Still the New Deal cannot keep within income. It spends $2.12 for every dollar it collects from you. Unless the New Deal is stopped it will bankrupt the nation.

"Senator Carter Glass [Democrat] on March 19, 1935, said: 'If we had a decline today in the market for government securities and they fell to 82, or even to 89 or 90, it would put every bank in the United States into insolvency, because during the last few years the portfolios of the banks have been filled with government bonds and notes.'

"When that happens, how will you get your money from the banks? Gov. Landon will stop waste."

Ruth Hanna Simms on Stump.

After campaigning her way from Albuquerque, N. M., Mrs. Ruth Hanna Simms, former Illinois congresswoman, is to reach Chicago for a meeting next Saturday night. Plans for the rally are being made. This week Mrs. Simms is to make 15 speeches in Missouri and Iowa.

Senator Frederick Steiwer of Oregon, declared in Chicago yesterday that the Landon-Knox ticket gaining throughout the northwest.

"Oregon has been regarded as a doubtful state," he said, "but with the upswing for Gov. Landon well under way, Republican leaders are claiming Oregon is now safely Republican. Landon is gaining in Idaho and the outlook there is brighter. In Montana I was advised the situation is similar to that in Idaho. The Maine election was among factors increasing Landon sentiment."

ROOSEVELT CREATES ANOTHER 'COMMITTEE' TO HANDLE NEW DEAL

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., Sept. 21.—[Special.]—President Roosevelt today created another "inter-departmental committee" to add to the scores of such groups already formed under the New Deal.

"In view of the passage and signing of the social security bill, there is increasing necessity for better coordination of the health activities of the federal government," the President declared in a formal statement. "I therefore am creating at this time an inter-departmental committee to give attention to this subject."

Mr. Roosevelt appointed Josephine Roche, assistant secretary of the treasury, as chairman; Oscar Chapman, assistant secretary of the interior; M. L. Wilson, assistant secretary of agriculture, and A. J. Altmeyer, second assistant secretary of labor.

The committee was directed by the President to study not only health activities but "closely related welfare activities as well." Its first task will be to appoint special committees of physicians and other technically trained persons to study and make recommendations concerning specific aspects of the government's health activities.

SALOONIST WARNED AND FREED.

Peter Turek, 56 years old, owner of a tavern at 3018 West 47th street, charged with failure to obey the closing law, was freed yesterday in the Stockyards court by Judge Joseph B. Hermes, who warned him his license would be revoked if the violation was repeated.

START CONTEST FOR LETTERS ON SHIFT TO LANDON

A new prize letter contest, on a new subject, "Why I Changed from Roosevelt to Landon," was announced last night by William Hard in his broadcast for the Republican national committee. The prize for the best letter is $500; second prize, $300; third, $200.

Winners of the three prizes for best letters on "Why I Am for Roosevelt" were announced in the broadcast. The winners were chosen by Prof. T. V. Smith, professor of philosophy at the University of Chicago, a state senator and a New Deal Democrat. They were as follows:

First prize—Duncan Fraser, a carpenter, 4440 North Hermitage avenue, $500. He is 54 years old and a native of Scotland. He has lived in this country 12 years and is not a citizen, but he has taken out his first papers.

Second prize—Nat M. Dysart, farmer, Peoria, Ariz., $300.

Drop Morals Case Against Dance Director for Movies

Los Angeles, Cal., Sept. 21.—(AP)—Morals charges against Dave Gould, film dance director, were dismissed today by Municipal Judge William R. McKay, who said officers had "acted much too hastily" in filing the complaint.

Day By Day Story of the Experimental Farms

By Frank Ridgway

Stock Graze Again

Sept. 21, 1936.

RAINY weather during the last few weeks has revived the drouth parched pastures, making it possible to shift live stock around and save corn, silage and other feed that will be needed this winter on the Tribune's Yorkville experimental farm. Excepting for burnt out spots on the high ground, the pastures on the farm are in as good condition today as they were last year following a more favorable summer season.

The live stock program on the place is being adjusted so that the grazing land can be used and the concentrated feeds handled in the most economic way. The cattle feeding program has been greatly reduced as compared with last year. So far only 177 steers have been bought to use up this year's crops while last year 426 head were finished for market. A few more steers may be brought to the farm later in the season.

Maneuver to Save Feed.

Corners are being cut wherever it is possible to save feed in handling the steers, sheep, brood sows and the breeding herd of cattle. The last bunch of 45 short yearling steers arrived the latter part of last week from Kansas City and the grass has revived to such extent that the manager thinks these animals can be kept in a thrifty growing condition on pasture without any other feed until cold weather.

To cut down the feed bill on the 132 heavier steers that have been running in dry lots where they have been fed green corn and hay since they were brought to the farm a few weeks ago, the manager is shifting some of the lighter ones out into pastures. Last Friday 25 head were taken out of the dry lots and put on pasture north of the Fox river. The caretakers will continue to feed these steers all the green corn they will eat but hay will be discontinued. The farm manager expects these lighter steers to make faster and cheaper gains on grass and green corn than they have been making on green corn and hay in a dry lot.

This week the manager plans to cut out 25 more steers from dry lots and turn them out on pasture where they will continue to get green corn.

He will continue feeding in dry lots 60 head of short 3 year old steers and 22 2 year olds.

Sheep Sorted for Season.

The Yorkville farm flock of sheep was sorted last week in preparation for the fall breeding and lamb feeding programs. The 53 ewes, 2, 3 and 4 year olds, will be kept for breeding purposes. The manager had planned to mate the ewes early but was unfortunate in losing his Southdown ram. The cause of the ram's death is not known. A new ram will be bought.

Forty-seven 1936 lambs are running on alfalfa pasture and are being given oats. The best ewe lambs will be saved for breeding purposes next year and the remainder will be fattened along with the wethers and sold this fall.

Rain and More Rain.

More rain fell at the Yorkville farm during the first half of September than fell between May 1 and Aug. 31. Seven and one-fourth inches fell between Sept. 1 and 16 compared with only 6.7 inches during the four months' period ending Sept. 1, according to the rain gauge records kept at the farm.

LAND OWNERSHIP NEW ROOSEVELT FARM PROPOSAL

BY WALTER TROHAN.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Hyde Park, N. Y., Sept. 21.—[Special.]—President Roosevelt tonight stepped from the light of the glistening candles of his mother's birthday cake into his study to dangle land ownership before tenant farmers.

In a joint letter to Senator John H. Bankhead, the member of the senate agriculture committee, and Representative Marvin H. Jones, chairman of the house agriculture committee, Mr. Roosevelt continued his attempt to steal thunder from the farm speech his Republican opponent, Gov. Alf. M. Landon, is scheduled to deliver at Des Moines tomorrow night.

Before setting out from Washington to his mother's birthday party the President appointed two committees to solidify the administration farm program. The first, headed by Secretary of Agriculture Wallace, is charged with working out a system of crop insurance and the second, headed by Rural Electrification Administrator Morris L. Cooke, was named to produce a long range program of land use and soil conservation by Jan. 1.

Tenant Land Plan.

Tonight Mr. Roosevelt followed these anticipatory offsets to his opponent's speech with a suggestion of government financing of land purchase by tenants. In the joint letter he said:

"Thoughtful people everywhere have been gravely concerned with the steady increase of farm tenancy from 1880 to 1935. Since the earliest days of history it has been an ideal of the American people that every American should have an ownership interest in land, or in some other means of production.

"Despite this fundamental objective, we have seen farm tenancy increase relative to farm ownership decade by decade. An enduring agricultural civilization must be built on the firm foundation of home and farm ownership. Any long improvement of the welfare of the nation and the farm people involves improvement of the tenancy situation.

Cites European Examples.

"The tenancy problem in the United States can not be solved over night. But through government financing of land purchased by tenants other countries, notably Ireland and Denmark, have substantially increased farm ownership of farm land.

"I think we need some such approach. It should give tenants who have demonstrated their ability to manage land an opportunity to buy farms on long terms on moderate interest rates."

Mr. Roosevelt asked Bankhead and Jones to coöperate in preparing plans for meeting the tenancy problem that might be undertaken by the government. He suggested that they meet with him "early in December when we can complete our recommendations to congress for legislation designed to bring about improvements in the tenancy situation."

82d Birthday Party.

The party on Mrs. Sarah Delano Roosevelt's 82d birthday was attended by the President, his daughter, Anna Boettiger; her husband, John Boettiger; her children, Anna Eleanor and Curtis Dall; his son, John Roosevelt; Mrs. Betsy Roosevelt, wife of son James and her children, Sara and Kate.

After the party Mrs. Boettiger went to Washington to see her mother, who is ill in the White House. She is expected to bring her mother to Hyde Park Thursday.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., Sept. 21.—[Special.]—Secretary of Agriculture Henry A. Wallace denied today that the Roosevelt administration had advance knowledge that Gov. Alfred M. Landon would discuss crop insurance in his Des Moines speech Tuesday and deliberately anticipated him by announcing the New Deal proposal. Wallace was named chairman of a special committee appointed by President Roosevelt last night to study the subject of crop insurance and report to him before the meeting of the next congress.

"I had absolutely no idea that Gov. Landon was going to discuss crop insurance," Wallace replied when asked at his press conference whether the White House announcement was another "coincidence."

"You just wern't taking any chances," it was suggested to Wallace, whereupon he grinned.

"I wrote an extended front page story on it in June of 1922," Wallace declared.

SEPT. 14 RIVER PLUNGE FATAL.

John Andronick, 48 years old, 2004 Chicago avenue, died yesterday in the County hospital of pneumonia contracted after he jumped into the river at Chicago avenue on Sept. 14. He was rescued by bridge tenders.

NEW DEAL OFFICE SET UP TO COAX BACK FARM VOTE

A headquarters has been opened in Chicago by the New Deal for the all-party Roosevelt agricultural committee to campaign for the farm vote in the corn-hog-cattle-wheat belt of the central west. The committee, according to its officials, is financed for the most part by the Democratic national committee.

Its chairman is William H. Settle, who for fifteen years was president of the Indiana Farm Bureau federation and is said by office associates to be registered as a Republican. The secretary-treasurer is William S. Bradley, Iowa Democrat.

Although the committee opened offices a few weeks ago at 166 West Jackson boulevard, its presence was not publicized until yesterday. Branches have been organized in ten states—Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Minnesota, Nebraska, North Dakota, Ohio, South Dakota, and Wisconsin. This area is regarded as a pivotal battle ground.

Response to G. O. P. Disclosures.

The literature of the committee indicates that it is setting forth to combat the reaction in some of the farm states against the Canadian reciprocal trade agreement and against the issue raised by the Republicans that the American farmer's domestic market is being flooded with foodstuffs raised abroad.

Congressman Marvin Jones of Texas, for the last five years chairman of the house committee on agriculture, was in Chicago yesterday. A statement from the committee headquarters said:

"Representative Jones has become the counselor for the Roosevelt all-party agricultural committee, which has established headquarters in Chicago. This committee, organized in all of the farm states, is undertaking to present the record of the Roosevelt administration to the farming region of the country in its relationship to agriculture.

Adviser Goes on Stump.

"In addition to his advisory capacity Mr. Jones is the spearhead in the speaking campaign in which agriculture undertakes to present the accomplishments of the Roosevelt administration for farming and for the farmer."

In the Minnesota branch one of the three directors as given on the lists is Frank W. Murphy, who made the argument for the farm plank at the G. O. P. national convention at Kansas City in 1928. The director at Chicago headquarters is Paul Porter, who formerly was under Chester C. Davis when Davis was AAA administrator.

ROOSEVELT IN A 'REAL FIGHT,' SAYS SEN. LA FOLLETTE

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., Sept. 21.—[Special.] — Confessing that President Roosevelt was involved in "a real fight" for reëlection, Senator Robert M. La Follette of Wisconsin and Maj. George Berry, the New Deal's "labor coördinator," today announced that the recently formed "National Progressive" group and the Labor Non-partisan league would coördinate their efforts in behalf of the President.

La Follette said speakers, charging that the President stands for "progressive principles," and Gov. Alf Landon represents the "reactionaries," would be sent into states where the election is in doubt.

"That means you are doubtful of the President's reëlection?" La Follette was asked.

The Wisconsin senator hesitated, then remarked:

"This is a terrific campaign. The President is in a real fight."

Marshall Field & Company presents here each day observations and opinions intended to be of interest and value to those it seeks to serve

MEN "OUT OF DATE"

By CALEB

ANY important executive will probably tell you, if questioned, that although there is still much unemployment, good men are needed. Many men who were good a few years ago don't seem to click. They are "out of date."

When a man finds a good job nowadays it is probably because he has been found to meet today's relatively high standards of excellence. Such men are scarce. The strange thing is that today's par is relatively high, despite relaxed training and the abandonment of formal educational efforts in many businesses.

The explanation of this high par lies in the average man's changed attitude toward his job in the last several years. In the late 1920's many a man showed about as much interest in his work as the pit orchestra leader does in a chorus girl. He'd buy a noon paper and look at the market opening. Then, assured that stocks were making him his daily quota of profit, he'd go back to "work," which might simply mean honoring the boss with his presence and a few broad gestures. His job? "He should worry. The market would support him." And the boss didn't care much because he didn't notice. The chances were even he was busy checking the broker on the telephone.

When the economic flip-flops came, however, all that changed. John Average adjusted his glasses and looked at his job with amazement. Why—dear old job! Here was security—if it could be kept! And he wooed that job as he wooed perhaps only once else in his life. He petted and pampered it. He really got busy.

The period taught John Average and the businesses that employed him that things could be done better—had to be done better. As a consequence job-holders were raising job standards almost universally. Despite this—many unemployed persons permitted themselves to get soft and to become ineffective. Some others turned their attention to getting all possible unhappiness and rancor out of the situation. These are now the "out of date" among the unemployed.

The depression has pointed out that when an individual is idle, it is no time to loaf. Some unemployed people turned their attention to laboratories and shops, trying to improve things. Others turned their attention to study, trying to improve themselves. For all these the depression has not been a total loss.

'WARNING' OVER TAX SIGNS WINS SCORN OF G. O. P.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., Sept. 21.—[Special.]—The Republican national committee today likened Attorney General Homer S. Cummings' threat to prosecute butchers displaying charts showing the multiplicity of taxes paid on meats to "the petty tyranny" of jailing a pants presser under the NRA.

The committee said the Cummings warning, delivered last week, bore out Democratic Chairman Farley's prediction that the campaign would be a "dirty" one, and asked why Farley didn't "chide Mr. Roosevelt for the President's admission, made to Roy W. Howard, Sept. 2, 1935, when Mr. Roosevelt wrote: 'In 1929 consumers' taxes represented only 30 per cent of the national revenue. Today they are 60 per cent.'"

Sees but 5 Per Cent Drop.

The President's statement was made in his exchange of letters with Publisher Howard announcing a "breathing spell" for business. He went further than the quotation cited by the Republican committee, saying that even with the passage of the "soak the rich" tax bill of 1935, the "proportion of these consumers' taxes will drop only 5 per cent."

The Republican national committee also released a handbook entitled "The New Deal Versus the American System" which contains a table of official figures obtained from the treasury showing the rise of indirect or hidden taxes under the Roosevelt administration. The exactions in millions of dollars:

Year.	Direct.	Indirect.	Total.
1930	$2,475	$1,151	$3,626
1931	1,908	898	2,806
1932	1,104	781	1,885
1933	781	1,089	1,870
1934	1,063	1,922	2,985
1935	1,410	2,232	3,642

"Petty Tyranny" Recalled.

"New Dealism under the NRA sent a pants presser to jail for daring to charge less for his work than the unconstitutional New Deal burocracy demanded," the committee statement said. "The national reaction to that piece of petty tyranny is well remembered. Will the New Deal now attempt to persecute the corner butcher for telling the housewife how much of the cost of pork chops goes into New Deal taxes?

"The Republican national committee thinks not. It does not believe that the Roosevelt-Farley régime will care to carry such an issue to the people despite the attorney general's threats. It does not believe that the New Deal, despite the policy of intimidation, coercion, and regimentation which has been carried on for three long years, will have the temerity to prosecute any citizen for telling the truth about New Deal costs."

Charges Fear Campaign.

Through the national committee, Carl H. Cook, chairman of the Iowa Republican state central committee, charged that Chairman Farley and his New Dealers, frightened by the swing to Landon, are launching a campaign of intimidation and fear.

"Long ago Farley promised that this would be a dirty campaign," Cook said. "Along with his dirt Farley is throwing threats of fines and jail sentences to any merchant who dares reveal to his customers the truth that the government is collecting from him federal taxes in the price of the commodities he buys.

"It is evident that the New Dealers do not want to acquaint the taxpayer with the fact that $3 out of every $5 collected by the federal government in taxes are paid by the consumer in the price of the commodities purchased.

Wrong for Movies, Too.

"If it is wrong for the butcher to post the amount of tax in a pound of meat, it is just as wrong for theaters and filling stations to post the tax on the price of their products. New Dealers have not been concerned about the latter postings.

"New Dealers are now trying to hide the hidden tax and in a campaign of intimidation they are threatening criminal action against citizens who are telling the truth about the 'consumers'' tax.

RUTH BRYAN ROHDE'S TRAILER CAMPAIGN RUNS INTO TROUBLE

Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 21.—[Special.]—Life in an automobile trailer had its disadvantages for Mrs. Ruth Bryan Owen Rohde and her husband, Capt. Boerge Rohde of the royal Danish guard, who were prevented from making their expected visit to Hoosier farm, the home of Mrs. Samuel M. Ralston, today, when their trailer developed mechanical trouble in Kokomo.

The anticipated visit with Mrs. Ralston took place, however, for the latter went to Greencastle to join them.

Mrs. Rohde, who is on a speaking tour in behalf of the reëlection of President Roosevelt, spoke at Greencastle this afternoon. She plans to include in her itinerary Washington, New Albany, and Bloomington, where she will be hostess to a number of friends in the trailer. The Rohdes are living in the trailer on the tour. Capt. Rohde doing the driving. Only the smaller cities are included in the tour.

Two Gazelles and Lamgur Monkey Born at Brookfield

WOMAN SHOUTS LIAR AT KNOX; DRINKS POISON

Los Angeles, Cal., Sept. 21.—(AP)—A woman arose in the midst of a campaign speech of Col. Frank Knox, Republican vice presidential nominee, tonight, called him a liar and drank from a bottle of poison antiseptic.

At the police receiving hospital later she said she was Mrs. Mabel West, 39, a tourist from Philadelphia passing through Los Angeles. Hospital attendants said she would recover.

Persons seated near her at the meeting said she apparently had been drinking liquor.

What Knox Was Saying.

Before her outbreak Col. Knox was saying:

"The dictator business has been a very unsuccessful business. The American people would not stand for it—business men would not stand for it—farmers would not stand for it—the Supreme court would not stand for it——"

The woman jumped up and cried: "You're a liar! You're a liar!"

She drank from a two-ounce bottle and hurled it down. She was hustled outside, screaming. Many persons rushed out of the hall.

Becomes Panic Stricken.

At the police hospital Mrs. West would not give her address, merely saying she was from Philadelphia.

"I don't know why I did it," she told detectives. "I must have become panic stricken."

Mrs. Minnie Luithle, an ardent Republican, wanted to be sure of a good seat to hear Col. Knox's speech. She was at the doors at 5 p. m. and hours later when they were opened she led the crowd inside. In her hurry she stumbled and her leg was broken. At the emergency hospital nurses placed a radio beside her bed so she could hear the address.

VOTE FOR ROOSEVELT ONE FOR COMMUNISM IS CHARGE BY LEMKE

Peoria, Ill., Sept. 21.—(AP)—Representative William Lemke of North Dakota, seeking the presidency as the Union party's candidate, said in an address prepared for delivery here today "A vote for Roosevelt is actually a vote for communism."

Centering his attack on the recent indorsement of the President by 115 progressive and independent political leaders meeting in Chicago, Lemke said:

"These 115 prima donnas were unanimous in their indorsement of the President. This is easy to understand, for most of them are to be found among the favored recipients of the New Deal's WPA sandwiches.

"They have worked with the President in a program which has given the American laboring man subsistence wages instead of real wages.

Binnie Barnes, Actress and Husband Agree to Divorce

Hollywood, Cal., Sept. 21.—[Special.]—Binnie Barnes, blonde British beauty of the movies, and her husband, Samuel Joseph, reached an agreement to disagree today, and Miss Barnes filed an action for divorce. She charges that Joseph, who is a London art dealer and book publisher, deserted her against her will on Sept. 1, 1934.

HAPPY RELIEF FROM PAINFUL BACKACHE

Caused by Tired Kidneys

Many of those gnawing, nagging, painful backaches people blame on colds or strains are often caused by tired kidneys—and may be relieved when treated in the right way.

The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking excess acids and poisonous waste out of the blood. Most people pass about 3 pints a day or about 3 pounds of waste.

If the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters don't work well, poisonous waste matter stays in the blood. These poisons may start nagging backaches, rheumatic pains, lumbago, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from the blood. Get Doan's Pills.

BACKACHE

35 CENTS PROVES IT

When your kidneys are clogged and your bladder is irritated and passage scanty and often smarts and burns you need Gold Medal Haarlem Oil Capsules, a fine harmless stimulant and diuretic that always works and costs but 35 cents at any modern drug store.

It's one good, safe way to put healthy activity into kidneys and bladder—you'll sleep sound the whole night through. But be sure and get GOLD MEDAL—right from Haarlem in Holland—you are assured of results.

REGISTRATION OFFICES TO BE OPEN EVENINGS

Vote Registration

Yesterday's registration ...	4,722
Total at city hall......	141,061

This figure, added to the precinct registration of 1,019,332 last Saturday, gives a total registration so far of 1,160,393.

For the added convenience of voters who wish to register at the election board offices in the city hall under the permanent registration system, the offices will remain open evenings and Saturday afternoon up to and including Oct. 5. This was announced yesterday by Alexander J. McKay, chairman of the election board.

Beginning today the offices will be open from 9 a. m. to 9 p. m. on all week days except Saturdays when they will be open from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. The previous hours had been from 9 a. m. to noon on Saturday and from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. on other week days. The last day of registration—Oct. 6—will be in the home precincts.

No Congestion at Offices.

"We want to aid citizens in every way to register," McKay said, "so they will be able to vote in the November election. While there has been no congestion in registering at the board offices, we are offering another convenience to voters by staying open evenings and Saturday afternoons. These new hours will afford opportunity to register for persons who for any reason have been unable to get to the city hall during the day."

McKay and County Judge Edmund K. Jarecki, head of the election machinery in Cook county, pointed out that the permanent registration statutes provide the board offices must be open from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. on weekdays and from 9 a. m. to noon on Saturday, but do not place any restriction on longer hours.

Judge Jarecki yesterday thanked civic and patriotic organizations for their support in urging voters to register. He asked these groups to continue their efforts through Oct. 6.

Figures compiled by the election board yesterday gave the registration in Chicago's 3,573 precincts on Saturday as 960,392. In the 192 precincts in the nine suburbs under the jurisdiction of the board, the registration was 58,940, making a total of 1,019,332 for the day. Up to Saturday night 136,339 registrations had been taken at the election board offices, making a grand total of 1,155,671. This was increased by yesterday's registrations to 1,160,393. The total registration last March for the April primary was 1,644,198.

Cicero	23,268	Chicago Heights	6,674
Summit	1,714	Morton Grove.	569
Harvey	4,773	Elmwood Park	3,410
Evergreen Park	522	Berwyn	17,289
Stickney	721

"We hope to break all records with a registration total of 1,750,000," McKay said. "That means that we have to get slightly less than 600,000 registrations between now and the closing of the polls on the night of Oct. 6."

Crusaders Urge New Effort.

Edward A. Zimmerman, commander of the Illinois branch of the Crusaders, a patriotic organization, declared yesterday that Saturday's registration, while pleasing to those who are working to get out the vote, emphasizes the necessity of greater effort in the remaining days. Zimmerman pointed out that there are about 2,500,000 persons in Cook county who are eligible to vote if they will register, and the importance of the issues at stake in the November election warrants the utmost effort to get these people registered.

"Check-ups made by the Crusaders indicate that a very large number of employés of business houses do not register," Zimmerman said. "We urge upon all employers that they coöperate and give their employés every assistance in getting registered. Good citizenship demands that we each do our share; that we make and keep this a truly American form of government by registering and by voting on election day."

Residents of country towns in Cook county outside the jurisdiction of the election board will register this Saturday and on Oct. 6. They are not under the permanent registration system.

These townships are under the jurisdiction of County Clerk Michael J. Flynn, who anticipates a record registration of 250,000.

LIFE OR DEATH FOR MALFORMED BABY IS PROBLEM

Mother Would Save It; Father Is Opposed.

chance. I sympathized with Mrs. Tafel. And I agreed with her. I had several other doctors look at the baby and, on the whole, they more or less thought that the baby should be given a chance, in accordance with our ethics."

Gets Lawyer's Advice.

Dr. Eastman said that the question was put up to Tafel, the father. He refused to consent to an operation. Without the consent of both parents, if both are living, it is illegal for doctors to operate on their children, Dr. Eastman said. Nevertheless, the problem threatened deeper legal complications. Dr. Eastman conferred with his lawyer, and was told that under all the circumstances, and in consideration of the mother's demands, it seemed to be the doctor's legal as well as medical duty to operate.

Dr. Eastman said last night that he hoped to win Tafel to Mrs. Tafel's side—and agree to an operation. The decision must be made today, certainly not later than tomorrow, he said.

"The baby is losing weight, and he will die within a few days of starvation if we don't operate," said Dr. Eastman. "He might die in three or four days; he surely could not live longer than seven or eight."

Cites Other Cases.

Dr. Eastman, in explaining other reasons for his approval of an operation, said that operations virtually similar to that necessary for the Tafel child are being performed frequently on adults.

"It seems to me that if adults can undergo similar operations and live for years, a child may have a chance," he said. "However, it's an extremely delicate case. And it must be remembered that there is a lot of justice in Mr. Tafel's arguments. I had to see his side—and I had to see Mrs. Tafel's side."

In [illegible]5, a case somewhat similar to the Tafel case attracted world-wide attention. The principals were Dr. Harry J. Haiselden, Mr. and Mrs. Allan Bollinger, and the Bollinger new-born baby, all of Chicago. This child, unlike the Tafel baby, was doomed to physical and mental helplessness. Dr. Haiselden, supported by Mr. Bollinger, resolved not to help the baby live. The baby died. The case caused considerable discussion of the ethics and morals of such a case.

Council Group Approves 3 Street Name Changes

Changing of the names of Lincoln street to Wolcott street, Garfield avenue to Dickens avenue and Grove avenue to Perry avenue was approved yesterday by the city council subcommittee headed by Ald. Thomas J. Terrell [29th]. A public hearing on new names for 195 broken link streets will be held Sept. 29. The revisions are part of a program advocated by the City club.

CITY'S DAIRIES INCREASE FARM PRICE OF MILK

Pure Milk association officials announced yesterday that Chicago distributors have agreed to advance the farm price of milk from 50 to 58 cents a hundred pounds above the average condensery price for 100 per cent of the producer's base. The association, coöperative bargaining agency for about 14,500 producer members, said that the new gross price is retroactive to Sept. 1.

The condensery price so far this month has averaged about $1.62 a hundred pounds for milk of 3.5 per cent butter fat content. On this basis for the month of September, farmers would be paid a gross price of $2.20 a hundred pounds [4.73 cents a quart], compared to $2.14 a hundred pounds [4.60 cents a quart] for the month of August.

There will be no change in the price of milk above the 100 per cent base. Last month farmers were paid a gross price of $1.74 a hundred pounds [3.74 cents a quart] for milk delivered above the base.

Why retailers use newspaper advertising

Squarely in the middle of today's intricate economic scheme stands the modern retailer. Without his services America's $32,600,000,000.00 retail sales would collapse.

To maintain this huge volume of business, consumers must be told where, what, when and how to buy. Because newspapers are read by virtually all consumers, retailers depend primarily on newspaper advertising.

This is why retailers use far more newspaper advertising than any other kind. Last year their newspaper advertising expenditures amounted to more than $382,000,000.00.

STRAUB MURDER CASE REVIVED BY INSURANCE FIGHT

On the night of Feb. 2, 1935, Louis K. Straub was shot to death in the Saddle and Cycle club at Sheridan road and Foster avenue, where he was the night bartender. The police and the state's attorney's office never have been able to determine who killed him.

Yesterday Straub's widow, Melba, appeared in the United States courthouse before Federal Master in Chancery Jacob I. Grossman who began taking evidence on the question of whether or not she shot her husband.

Mrs. Straub is not on trial before Master Grossman. The hearing is a civil proceeding involving $20,410 of insurance on her husband's life, which the New York Life Insurance company is ready to pay to some one.

If Master Grossman is convinced that Mrs. Straub killed her husband he will recommend to the court that the insurance money be paid to Ernest Straub, manager of the Saddle and Cycle club, brother of the slain man, and two nephews, Ernest and Wallace Shropshire of Organ, N. M. Otherwise the money will go to the widow.

The Difference Explained.

In a civil case of this kind, Master Grossman explained, a ruling against Mrs. Straub is permissable if it can be shown "by a preponderance of the evidence" that she shot her husband. To convict her of murder in a criminal trial, he said, it would be necessary to prove her guilt "beyond a reasonable doubt and to a moral certainty."

In an opening statement Attorney Theodore Hardeen Jr., representing Ernest Straub, made the direct statement that he would prove "Melba killed her husband."

Hardeen's first witnesses were Ernest Straub; Abe Rosenberg, chef at the Saddle and Cycle club; and Julius Drukker, a dishwasher at the club. They repeated previous statements concerning the finding of Louis Straub's body at the club after the doors had been closed for the night, and concerning a dish of spaghetti with turkey prepared that evening for Straub.

"Informer" to Be Paid.

Attorney Harold Levy, who with Attorney Emmet F. Byrne is representing the widow, brought out on cross-examination of Ernest Straub that $1,000 had been promised to Peter Bricke, termed "the informer" who gave information concerning a pistol of the same make as that used in the murder.

It was recalled that Bricke, who confessed clandestine visits to the Straub home to see Mrs. Straub while her husband was at work, was arrested after his story about the gun and was subsequently released. Mrs. Straub later admitted having owned such a gun, saying she had bought it from her father and had sold it to Bricke.

Neighbor Woman Testifies.

The last witness of the day, before the hearing was adjourned until this morning, was Mrs. Ruth Heaton. Mrs. Heaton lives on the third floor of the building at 901 Argyle street. Louis and Melba Straub had lived across the hall.

Her testimony, in the beginning, concerned the spaghetti found in the Straub home after the murder—spaghetti made at the club the night before. How it got to the Straub home has never been explained.

Mrs. Heaton also told of an instance when Melba had cut Louis with a butcher knife, and of another time when she struck him on the head with a vase. She said Straub had complained about his wife's drinking and staying out all night on several occasions.

In her testimony Mrs. Heaton mentioned Miss Billy Edlin, an intimate friend of Mrs. Straub.

It was said that Miss Edlin, whose friendship with Mrs. Straub was investigated by police after the murder, would testify at Master Grossman's hearing.

'LOHENGRIN' MARCH BANNED IN CATHOLIC CHURCHES OF CANADA

OTTAWA, Sept. 21.—(AP)—The wedding march from "Lohengrin" was banned in Canadian Roman Catholic churches by a pastoral letter read here by Archbishop Forbes.

Father L. Beaudoin, secretary to the archbishop, said today the reason for the pastoral, delivered on Sunday, was the desire of the church for the exclusive use of the Gregorian chant and Gregorian music.

"Ave Maria" by Gounod, Mascagni, Massenet, Schubert, Rosewig, or Lambilotte were on the banned list, as well as "O, Promise Me." Also banned were "O, Canada," Canada's national anthem, and "God Save the King," anthem of the British empire. Other music placed under the ban included: "O, Holy Night" of Adam; "Nazareth," by Gounod; "Hosanna," by Granier; "The Palms," by Faure; "All Praise to St. Patrick," Schubert's "Farewell, and Mendelssohn's Wedding March from "Midsummer Night's Dream."

The marriage ceremony is to be performed next Saturday in St. Luke's pro-cathedral by Bishop George Craig Stewart. Bundesen, a graduate of the Northwestern university law school, lives with his parents at 7410 Oglesby avenue. His bride-to-be, likewise a Northwestern alumnus, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. N. Hoel, 1920 Lincoln street, Evanston.

REVEAL TRAGIC DEATH OF GIRL FROM MENINGITIS

The death of a young woman from meningitis and the exposure of a New York mother and her two babies, were revealed yesterday by Miss Mildred Bracy of the Travelers' Aid society.

Mrs. Daniel Ribolla of Flushing, N. Y., wife of an official of the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey, and her children were traveling from the west coast by train last week with Miss Hazel Evans, 20 years old, of Tacoma, Wash., who had just been engaged as a nurse for the children. They were in a drawing room.

On Thursday Miss Evans became ill and lapsed into a coma. When the train reached Chicago on Friday she was transferred to the county hospital. Mrs. Ribolla and the children continued to New York. Meanwhile the disease was diagnosed. Miss Evans died on Saturday.

The Travelers' Aid in New York was notified in time to warn the Ribollas when they arrived there early cautions. Yesterday a physician assured her that she hand the children were practically out of danger.

Boy Pleads Guilty on U. S. Kidnaping Charges

SABATH CITES 21 FOR IGNORING HIS RECEIVER INQUIRY

Twenty-one men who have refused to appear at the federal building for questioning by J. L. Tupy, a representative of A. J. Sabath's congressional committee which is investigating receiverships and bondholders' committees, were served with summonses to appear today before the committee which is scheduled to meet in room 337 United States courthouse.

An announcement made by Mr. Tupy for Congressman Sabath stated the twenty-one persons named are being cited for "failure to comply with requests for information relating to defaulted securities, receiverships, reorganizations, foreclosures, etc." What action would be taken was not announced.

It was learned that the persons cited refused to appear before Mr. Tupy on advice of their attorneys. One of them, Frank J. Topinka, 6724 Cermak road, Berwyn, made the charge that Tupy's investigations were personal instead of official, and that he was using his position to cause trouble for personal enemies.

2 PRIESTS ON WAY TO BANK ROBBED OF CHURCH'S $500

Two priests from St. Mary of Perpetual Help church, 1039 West 32d street, were robbed of $500 yesterday by three gunmen who forced their automobile to the curb at Morgan and 34th streets. The money represented church collections, and the priests, Father Raymond Ploszynski and Father Henry Pobutkiewicz, were driving to a neighborhood bank to deposit the funds. One of the robbers wore colored glasses while his two companions had black masks over their faces. The priests obtained part of the license number of the robbers' car and turned the information over to the Deering street police.

BARGAIN FARES FALL and WINTER

Effective October 1, Western Railroads extend the return time limit on low round-trip first-class and coach tickets from 10 days to 30 days. For tourist sleepers and coaches to and from Pacific Coast a 6 months' return limit is allowed. These bargain travel accommodations, GOOD IN EITHER DIRECTION, on sale daily. Everyone can now afford to travel by train. The winter travel season is near at hand.

FREE PICK-UP AND DELIVERY SERVICE

Western railroads urge shippers to take advantage of this new Free door-to-door service on less than carload freight. Started early in 1936, it has already saved millions of dollars for shippers. It is a great convenience, for the railroads take full responsibility from door to door.

Other noteworthy improvements in railroad freight service include faster schedules.

Railroad passenger service is also being revolutionized. Western railroads pioneered in reducing fares to the lowest point in history, with substantial reductions on round trip tickets. Then they provided air-conditioned cars with temperature and humidity control. If you haven't yet traveled in a cool, clean, healthful air-conditioned car do so on your next trip—a revelation in luxury—but costs nothing extra.

Travel by train because it is safer, more comfortable, more economical, more dependable, faster. . . . Ask the railroad agent about travel or shipping to any part of the world.

Proud of our achievements, we appreciate the public's good will and increased patronage, and pledge continued progress

COMPLETE WITH 12 BLADES

(Not the usual 1, 2 or 5 blades)

Exactly the same razor which sells for $2.00 all over the country, in the Deluxe Kit.. plus 12 genuine Schick Blades... ALL FOR 89¢

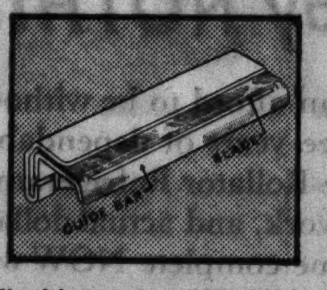
Double-thick Blades... Schick Blades take a better edge... and hold it longer... because they are twice as thick as other razor blades. Each blade is individually ground, honed, stropped and inspected.

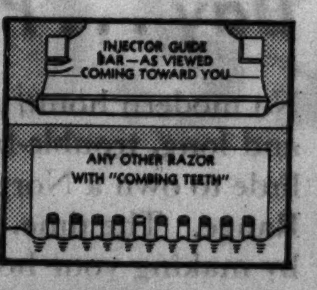
Sealed in oil in a metal cartridge. Instead of packing Schick Blades in a paper package which would rub and dull their edges... they are sealed in oil in a cartridge —their edges suspended in space!

Changes blades automatically! Nothing to unwrap, unscrew, twist or reassemble. Give the "trigger" a pull and a push—and out shoots the old blade, in goes a fresh one! Saves time, trouble and temper!

Trim, compact head... the head on the Injector Razor is half the bulk of other razor heads... yet shaves as wide an area. Gets right into those hard-to-shave spots... under your nose, for example.

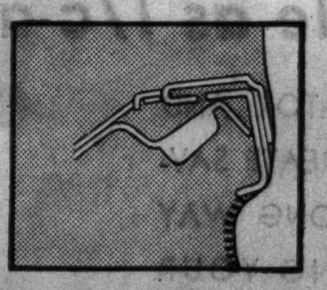


No nicks, no scrapes! The Schick Injector Guide Bar smooths the skin...keeps it in even contact with the blade... the keen edge gets closer to the base of the whiskers, yet doesn't scrape the skin.

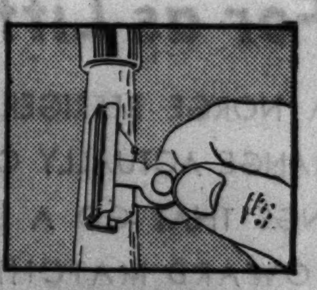


INJECTOR GUIDE BAR—AS VIEWED COMING TOWARD YOU
ANY OTHER RAZOR WITH "COMBING TEETH"

The famous Schick Guide Bar flattens the skin... doesn't "groove" it as razors with combing "teeth" do. There are no "bumps" to get scraped or nicked... no "valleys" where whiskers are missed.



You have three hands... when you shave with the Schick Injector! The Guide Bar stretches the skin taut just before the blade touches it. Does what you'd do with a third hand if you had one.



A rinse, and it's clean! Saves minutes every day. No need to wipe and dry the Schick Razor after every shave. A flush under the faucet and it's clean! All ready for the next quick, close, smooth shave.

Only a limited number of these Special Kits are available... thousands have already been sold... if you want one, you'd better get one soon! Any Dealer in Chicago (and vicinity) will be glad to give you a demonstration... DEALER NOTICE—Window displays for this special sale are still available. "Let's see your Tongue!"

The vivid editorial supremacy of THE SATURDAY EVENING POST is a mirrorlike reflection of the people who buy and read it.

These are the pick of the flock—people on the way up—the men and women from seventeen to seventy who are growing.

They are, in business, the veteran boss with the young brain, the get-action executives under him, the never-say-die salesmen, the up-and-coming cubs.

They are the able doers in law and medicine who win cases and save lives; in politics, who fight to better America; on farms, who plow with their heads as well as their hands; in schools and colleges, who teach and study for advancement here and now.

These are the sane, solid, solvent, aspiring Americans—to whom The POST is edited with the utmost care, clarity, courage and integrity that the greatest magazine on earth can supply—and who gave The POST during the first six months of 1936 the largest average circulation in its history.

These are the people who dominate and will dominate American life—and The POST is their favorite magazine simply because it so faithfully and effectively represents them and their thought.

The measure of the character and influence of any publication is not only in how it looks or what it claims, but also in how it speaks and what it says to its readers.

There's no better way to diagnose a magazine's value as a carrier for your sales-message than by its editorial standards—in other words, "Let's see your tongue"!

HITLER WATCHES GERMAN ARMY IN HUGE SHAM WAR

Biggest Games Since Days of Kaiser Opened.

BY SIGRID SCHULTZ.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

BERLIN, Sept. 21.—In the same area where, twenty-two years ago, an imperial army corps was scheduled to hold maneuvers under the eyes of the "all highest war lord," but instead marched to the battlefields of the world war, Reichsfuehrer Adolf Hitler today attended the opening of the biggest army maneuvers since the days of former Kaiser Wilhelm II. Hitler was present in the capacity of "supreme commander in chief of the German fighting services."

The maneuvers will last five days "without interruption, to get as near as possible to real war conditions." They are to be the "severest test" of the youngest troops called to the colors a year ago after the introduction of conscription. Under a recent decree governing conscription service, recruits must serve two years instead of one.

Two Corps Participating.

Forces participating in the exercises are operating in a vast area extending from the Fulda river on the east to the Rhine plain on the west, and from a line through Bebra, south of Kassel on the north to Franconia on the south. The forces embrace two fully equipped army corps and numerous units of the nation's new tank corps.

For the first time the air force is coöperating with the land forces on a big scale. Many bombing squadrons, pursuit planes, and other combat aircraft are participating in the exercises under the eyes of Col. Gen. Hermann Wilhelm Goering, reichsminister of air, who, as well as the commanders in chief of the army and navy, is attending the maneuvers.

Victor Lutze, chief of staf of the Storm Troops, and Heinrich Himmler, chief of the schutzstaffel and of all police forces in Germany, also are present. Himmler recently decreed that the police forces must receive "soldierlike training" and ordered that they hold field exercises from time to time.

Russian General Attends.

Foreign military attachés turned up in full force for the maneuvers. Among them was Brig. Gen. Alexander Orloff of soviet Russia. Representing one of the oldest Russian noble families, he likes to embarrass German officers by asking jokingly: "Do I look Jewish?" He refers to the Nazi campaign which alleges that all bolsheviks are Jews and vice versa.

The press unanimously praises the achievements of the new army.

"In every respect our army is up to date," the papers say. "It has modern equipment as well as a high standard of training and can stand comparison with any army of any other great power."

The recruits who must prove their mettle in the five day sham war belong largely to the 1914 class. Under the conscription laws, military chiefs were entitled to call the classes of 1915 and 1916 to the colors this year. However, only those of the first three months of the 1915 class have been ordered to join up next October.

Reported Hitler May Quit; Goering Is Likely Successor

[Copyright: 1936: By the Associated Press.]

BERLIN, Sept. 22 [Tuesday.]—Germany pondered today a widely-circulated report Adolf Hitler may resign as Nazi chancellor and retain the simple title of "Der Fuehrer" [the leader].

The same report mentioned Col. Gen. Hermann Wilhelm Goering as Hitler's possible successor.

Persons in authoritative circles refused to comment on the predictions, confining their expressions to an evasive "we have not heard of it."

"Merely Your Torch Bearer."

However, the persistency with which the report has cropped up again and again and the divers and cautious quarters from which it emanates has led some observers to believe there might be an actual basis for the forecast.

Before assuming power, the reichschancellor often told his supporters:

"I am merely your torch bearer. You must close in behind me and attend to the details."

In addition, Hitler's declarations at the recent Nurnberg convention of the National Socialist party disclosed he has reverted, to an increasing extent, to the rôle of standard bearer and prophet of his movement.

"The miracle of our time consists in the fact that you found me among so many millions," he said to his armed forces at the convention, "and Germany's good fortune consists in my having found you."

Voice Strikes Their Heart.

To the 140,000 political organizers he declared: "You heard the voice of a man, and it struck your hearts. And now the miracle has happened that we are one."

In the opinion of foreign observers in Germany, Goering has shown from the beginning of the Nazi administration he is no respecter of party rank or seniority claims.

His various duties as minister of aviation and governor of Prussia have brought him into constant contact with party officials and organizers.

New Type of Régime.

Should the reported resignation materialize and Goering succeed to the highest governmental post Germany would be handed a new type of régime in which Hitler would be the moral voice of the nation and Goering the executive administrator.

This arrangement was believed to be under consideration as a measure to free Hitler from routine duties of state and offer him the opportunity to formulate, unhindered, the policies and programs which Goering, in his part, would undertake to make effective.

SAVE SHAVING TUBES TO OBTAIN METAL, GERMANS ADVISED

BERLIN, Sept. 21.—(AP)—Now is the time, the government says, for all good shavers to come to the aid of the foreign exchange.

The purchaser of tooth paste or shaving cream in Germany today finds the tube wrapped with a note which says:

"Please don't throw away this tube when you've opened it.

"For it is made of metal that we need most urgently and that, in part, we must import from abroad.

"Preserve this tube, which is worthless to you, for your old metal picker. He will bring it to the metal utilization center. You will help save the foreign exchange."

Firemen from Four Towns Fight Blaze at Wilmington

After a five hour battle last night firemen from four towns succeeded in quenching a fire at Wilmington in Will county which threatened to get out of control. The fire was confined to a three story brick building, housing two stores and a theater. Damage was estimated at $25,000, according to Mayor J. C. Thompson. Two explosions preceded the fire, which spread quickly through the structure. Wilmington firemen were aided by apparatus from Joliet, Braidwood, and Coal City.

DOUBT GERMANS CAN MAKE OWN RAW MATERIALS

British Experts Skeptical of Four Year Plan.

BY DAVID DARRAH.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

LONDON, Sept. 21.—British experts are skeptical of the success of Germany's four year plan to make its own raw materials. They believe the reich would have difficulty in manufacturing synthetically in bulk some commodities such as rubber.

More than two years ago synthetic rubber had become a commercial proposition in this country, but it is still supplied only to those manufacturers willing to pay heavily for its special qualities.

It has greater durability than natural rubber and does not deteriorate from age, oxidation, heat and contact with various oils. This makes it particularly useful for tires and airplanes, gun turrets and so on.

Aims to Cut Cost.

Germany, it has been announced, proposes to halve the cost of synthetic rubber. This, in the opinions of Imperial Chemical industries experts, can be done only by mixing natural rubber with it and this method has an important drawback.

According to Reichsfuehrer Adolf Hitler, Germany intends also to manufacture synthetic cotton. This, it is presumed, will be done either from wood or milk.

"Lanital," an Italian product recently exhibited in London, was made into coats and dresses. The basis of this was milk and the treatment resulting in the production of the weavable threads was considered to have been an engineering rather than a scientific accomplishment.

Make Textiles from Wood.

The making of textiles from woods is well understood in Great Britain. While it is quite likely Germany could make synthetic cotton from wood, experts doubt whether it could do so on a commercial basis within four years.

German chemists, as is well known, have succeeded in saccharification—that is, turning wood into sugar—but it is an extremely costly process. It is of the same order of research as the production of oil from coal and some 20 years of intensive experimental work were necessary to make this commercial.

Though it might be possible to produce sugar at reasonable cost from wood in four years' time, experts are not confident about it.

PLAY SAFE! GET SILVERTOWNS

Silvertown

FREE! A million more motorists pledged to safe driving is the Goodrich goal for 1936. Join the Silvertown Safety League and receive—free—a handsome emblem to protect you if your tail light fails. Come in today.

Driver: "A little more and that blow-out would have sent us clean through this fence and down the bank."

Girl: "We should have known that sooner or later gambling on tires ends this way."

When high-speed blow-out accidents are happening week in and week out, isn't it important to make sure that the tires on your car are specially constructed to give you real protection against this danger?

Remember, Goodrich Safety Silvertowns differ from all other tires made today. And here's why: They're the only tires in the world with the Life-Saver Golden Ply, a layer of special rubber and full-floating cords, scientifically treated to resist the terrific blowout-causing heat generated inside all tires by today's high speeds. By resisting this heat, the Golden Ply keeps rubber and fabric from separating. It keeps blisters from forming. Thus, the dangerous high-speed blow-out that might have caused a serious accident doesn't get a start.

And with winter not far away, don't forget that Silvertowns will also protect you from dangerous "tail spin" skids. The big ribs in the center of the tread act like the windshield wiper on your car, sweeping away water—giving the double outer rows of husky Silvertown cleats a drier surface to grip.

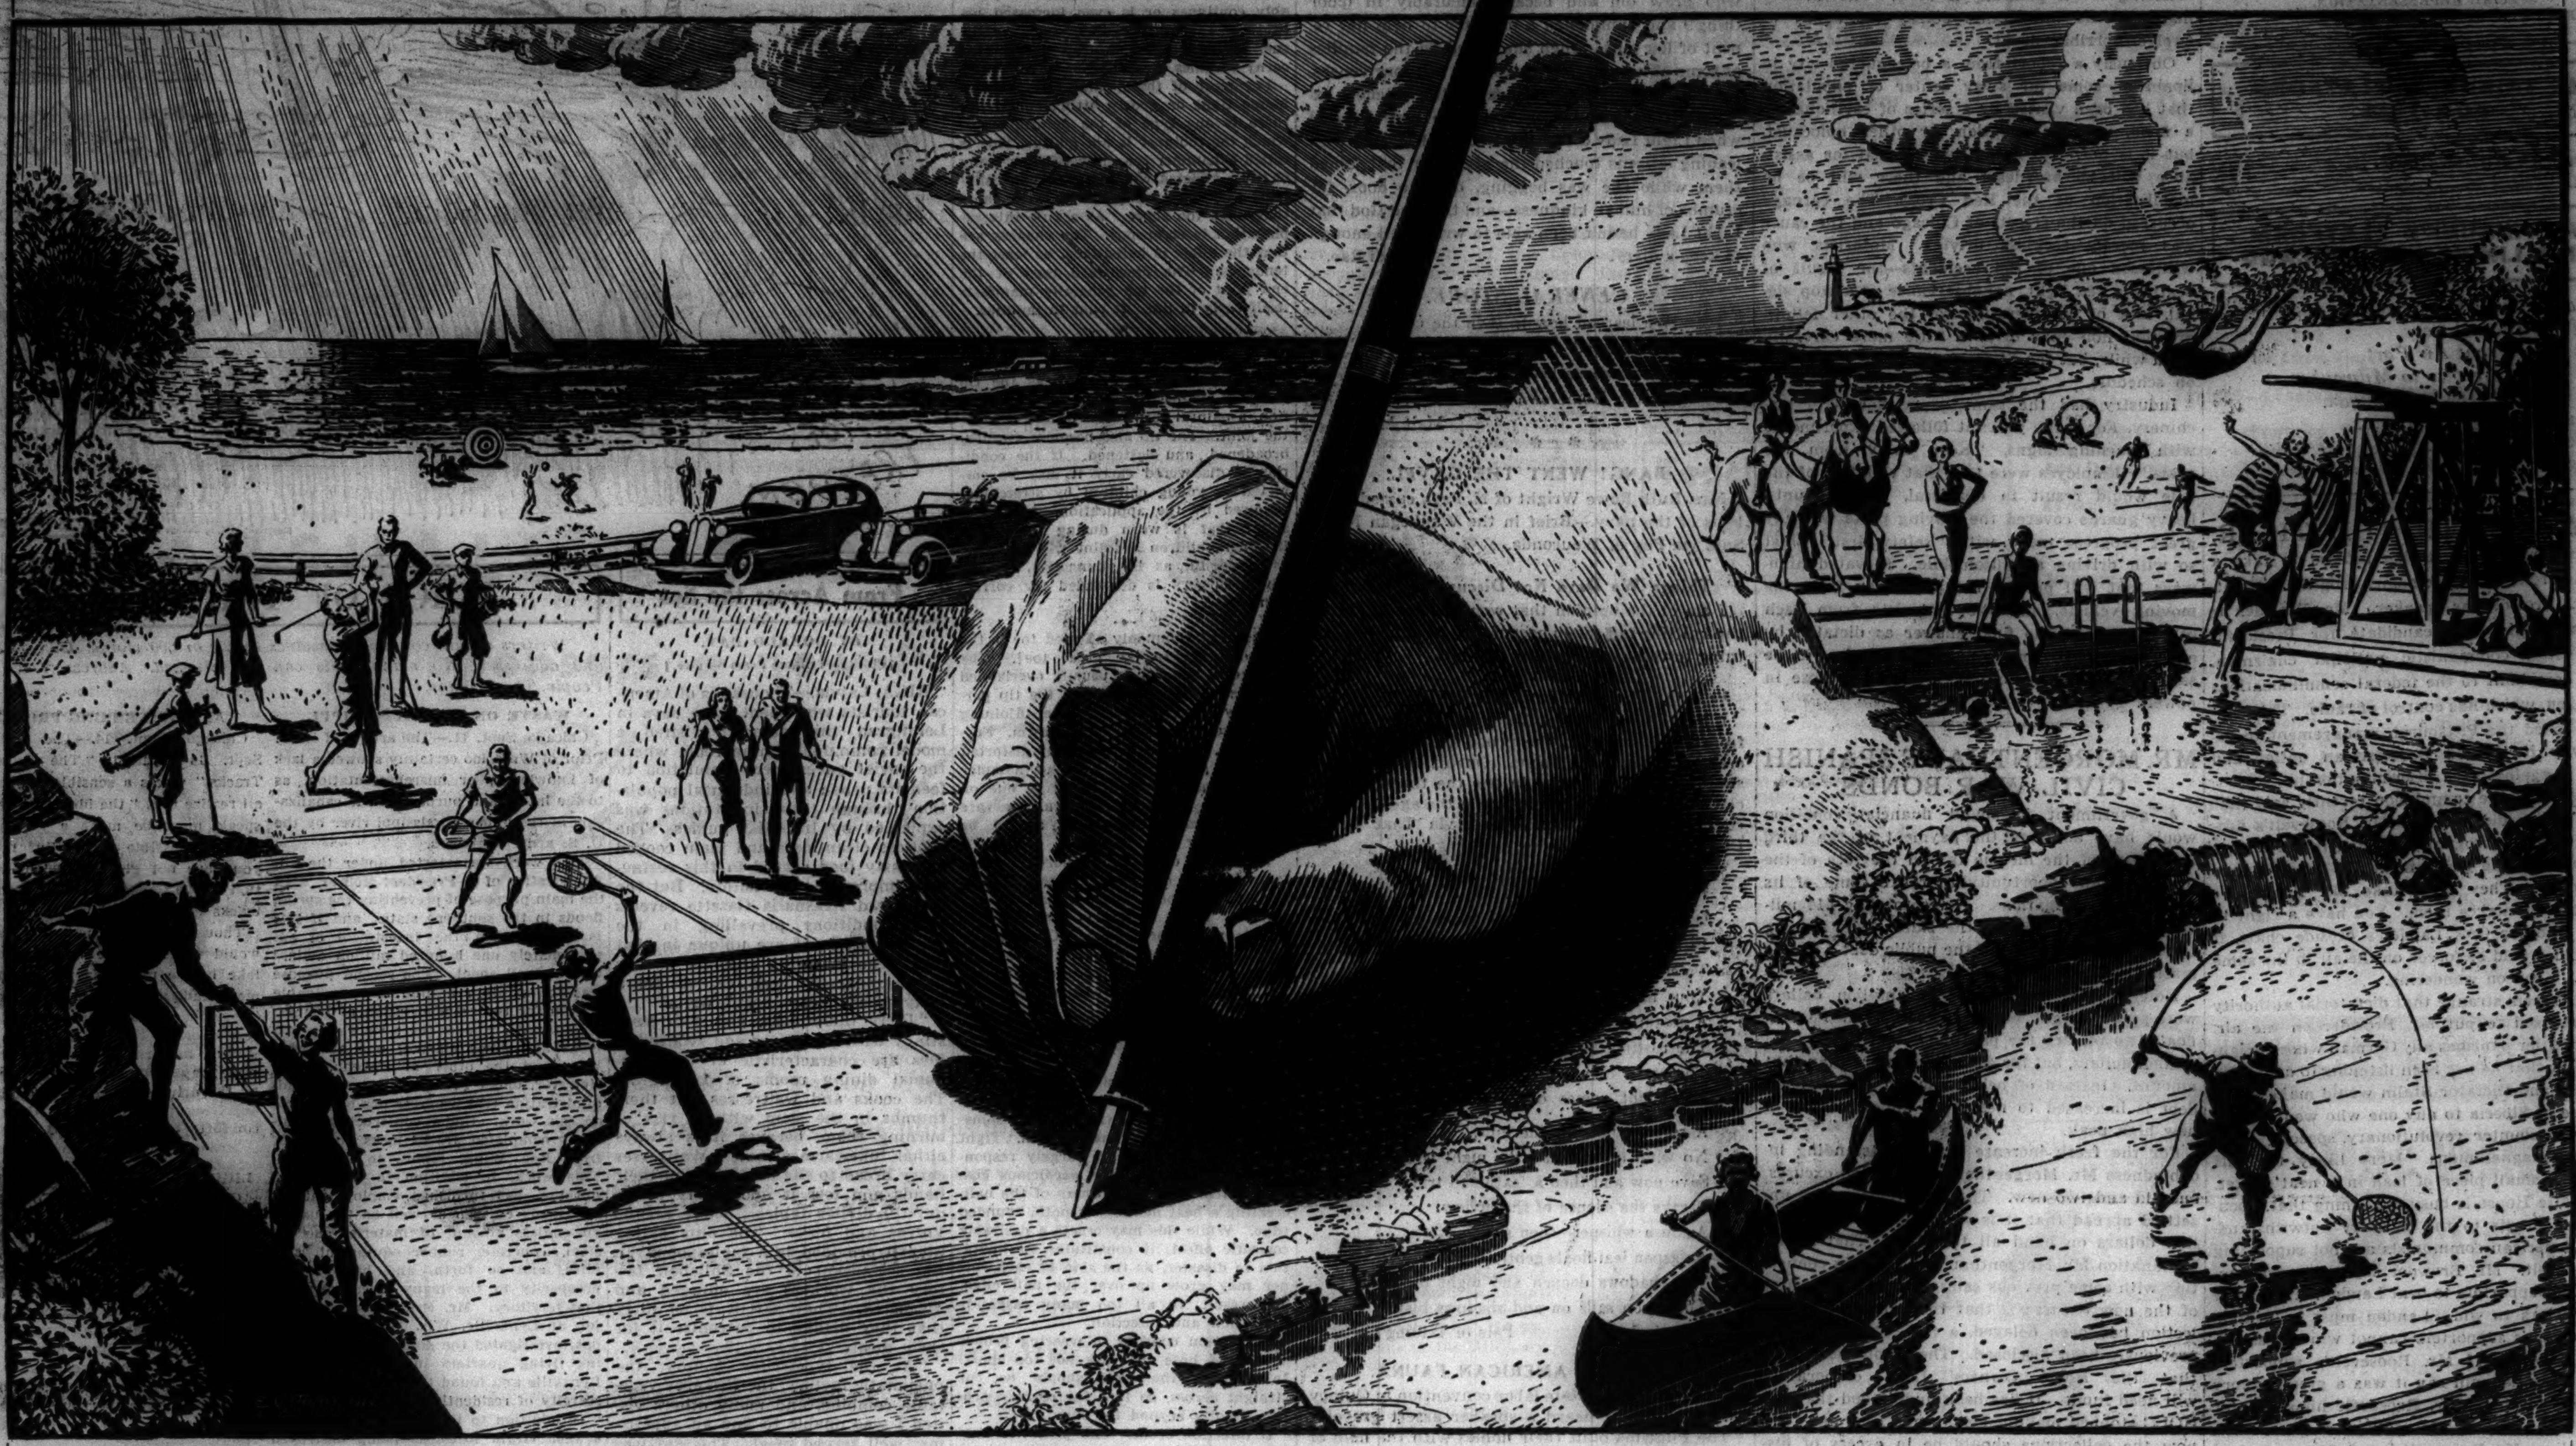
HIS PEN SELLS SUNSHINE TO AMERICA



An obscure "health-crank" becomes a vital force in the lives of millions through his amazing Editorial Technique

NOT many years ago, sunshine was something to stay out of.

George's bathing suit covered most of George. Bessie's covered absolutely all of Bessie. Children's sun suits were unknown. Anthony Comstock, "The King of Prudes," would have arrested girls for playing tennis in their shorts.

Something happened to change all this. Somebody sold the American people on sunshine—to the everlasting good of everybody concerned.

No one has achieved more in this transformation than Bernarr Macfadden, who, for half a century, has devoted his pen, his personality, and his fortune to better the lives of people. In the face of opposition—sometimes even ridicule—Macfadden's pen "sold" sunshine until his ideas took root and grew.

Many other Macfadden principles, radical when he first advanced them, are accepted now as vital to health, happiness and good common sense. Fresh air, wholesome food, sane exercise—to mention just a few.

The key to the spectacular success of Macfadden's crusades and his magazines, is his editorial technique, so different from others that it amounts almost to psychological discovery.

The Macfadden editorial technique springs from years of welfare work—a deep understanding of the real interests of people. Love, hope, progress, health mean more to people, he knows, than tax bills or international disputes. His knowledge of people is unique. Gleaned from his millions of letters and personal contacts, it has created a group of magazines entirely unlike any others in the world.

Each Macfadden magazine is vital in its own right. Each meets a need which this keen editor foresaw... and that is the story of every editorial success. Look at Liberty, with the swiftest tempo and most human touch of all the weeklies. Look at that great success, True Story. Look at Macfadden's Women's Group.

Today the Macfadden editorial technique with its homely, human qualities, affects the lives of over twenty-five million active, worth-while people every month. It stirs them, challenges them, pleases them. Macfadden's readers follow these magazines for what they are—a vital force in life, as these millions of people themselves live it.

A DATE WITH THE TIGER.

A Pittsburgh radio station refused to take a National Broadcasting company program presenting Earl Browder as speaker. Mr. Browder is the communist party candidate for President. Zack Foster, communistic national chairman, made a complaint to the federal communications commission, which has control of radio. The commission asked the Pittsburgh management to explain why it refused Browder an outlet and warned it against such discrimination.

Mr. Payne of the commission recently said that stations which did not take Mr. Roosevelt's fireside chats were arrogantly abusing the privileges given them by the government and must change their policy. They must take Mr. Roosevelt's talks when he makes them. You have a right to wonder whether Gov. Landon's fireside chats, if he chatted, would be forced on the air in the same manner. Keep on wondering.

It might seem strange that dictatorial authority would be used to put Mr. Browder on the air. Dictator Hitler punishes any German whose neighbors report that he has been listening to a Moscow broadcast, and Dictator Stalin would make a gift of a piece of Siberia to any one who went on the air with a counter revolutionary speech. That would be magnanimous. More likely the gift would be a small piece of lead in a neat jacket.

The White House is busy explaining that, documents and proofs to the contrary notwithstanding, the American communists are not supporting Mr. Roosevelt. Mr. Browder says they are supporting his supporters to beat Landon. They want his supporters to win. Landon must be beaten. Mr. Roosevelt's supporters cannot win unless Mr. Roosevelt wins. If Mr. Roosevelt's supporters win Mr. Browder will say it was a great victory for the revolution. Mr. Roosevelt himself later will be the subject of another chapter. Mr. Browder says Mr. Roosevelt is not firm enough.

The Pittsburgh station will take Mr. Browder's next speech. The management, through its attorney, says there is nothing else to do. It must allow the communist to talk or risk being prosecuted and having its license taken away. Licenses are renewed for short periods. The dictator dictates for the dictator.

For the time being Kerensky and Lenin are together. Mr. Roosevelt has said that he has a rendezvous with destiny.

TRAINLOAD RATES.

When some event of nation-wide interest is planned the public expects the railways to offer cut fares, and it is seldom disappointed. A Century of Progress was a good example. The carriers would go bankrupt on these special rates as a steady diet, but when full trainloads are assured the bargains produce highly satisfactory earnings. What is true of passenger service is doubly true of heavy freight movements. Passengers detrain and scatter to their homes, while box cars must be switched to private or public sidings. To offer delivery of a whole trainload on a single track will greatly reduce the cost of railway terminal work, thus producing savings that may be added to the economies of handling full trains in the line haul service.

THE TRIBUNE has frequently argued that the railways were missing something through their failure to offer trainload rates when the necessity is apparent or their trafic threatened. Boats and barges have been built to offer bulk service for raw materials because the railway unit of transportation, the carload, is too small. Unnecessary pipe lines have been constructed because the railways could not, or would not, offer trainload tank service. True, the interstate commerce commission has frowned on trainload rates because in theory they would favor the large consumer. This argument, however, overlooks the many trades that cannot exist on a one horse basis. The grain exporter, as an instance, cannot talk carloads to foreign buyers.

Differing with the federal regulatory body on every point, the Michigan public utilities commission has recently permitted railroads under its jurisdiction to publish multiple carload rates on shipments of sand. In order to secure the lower rate fifteen cars must be loaded by one shipper on one day and consigned to a single consignee at a specified point of delivery. After reviewing previous decisions on the subject, the Michigan commission observed, "We are not impressed with the reasoning of the interstate commerce commission in its earlier years with regard to trainload rates. We believe the rail carriers should be given reasonable latitude in meeting competition." The whole sense of the decision is that a trainload rate cannot be discriminatory since discrimination, if any, has been created by competitors.

The necessities of commerce, the wider use of transportation, and the public interest are other factors that call for the use of trainload rates. Undeniably, every form of transportation should offer the citizens of the United States the best and cheapest that it is able to produce. The railroads should look about for other situations where the trainload principle can be used to advantage not only to meet competition but to develop trafic. If the interstate commerce commission refuses to accept trainload rates the carriers should appeal to the courts or to congress for a broader interpretation of the act. Public interest in low transportation costs will assure eventual victory.

Bargain passenger fares give the citizens an insight into the possibilities of trainload movements. The same principle can produce lower fuel, food, and building costs.

THE FOURTEENTH THOUSAND.

Forty-three killed and a thousand injured! Volunteer rescue parties are removing the victims from beneath the wreckage! Doctors and nurses of all the available hospitals in the city of ——— are doing their utmost to relieve the suffering of the painfully injured! The faces of many of the inhabitants betray the agony of twelve horrible days!

Obviously a report from a beleaguered city in Spain or some far away center of population that has been visited by a series of earthquakes, a flood, volcanic eruption, or other holocaust, but it is not. No nation-wide appeal for assistance will be broadcast and there will be no mobilization of the Red Cross. The carnage occurred on the streets of Chicago and the cause was merely reckless driving. Motorists who witnessed one of the accidents—the result of beating a red light, nonobservance of a stop signal, lack of consideration for the other fellow, or what not—may drive a little more carefully for a while, but the fifteenth thousand will arrive on schedule.

Industry had the same experience with machinery. For many years it followed experiments with warning signs, "Keep away from the gears." Employés were told that violation of the rule would result in dismissal, but not until heavy guards covered the moving parts was any great progress made with "safety first." Just so with driving an automobile. Elevated highways that will protect the pedestrian from the moving vehicle, and the motorists from each other, must be the final answer as dictated by experience. How many more thousands will be sacrificed before something is done by those in power?

MR. MORGENTHAU'S SPANISH CIVIL WAR BONDS.

A government in sound financial condition would have accepted the payment of the third instalment of the income tax on the 15th of the month as an opportunity to retire some of its outstanding obligations. Notes totaling 514 million dollars fall due on the same date, making the retirement of some of the public debt a simple matter.

Notes in the amount of 514 million dollars were paid all right, but an issue was immediately floated to replace the paid notes, but not for 514 million dollars, but for 400 million more than that amount. Instead of being reduced the national debt is increased to nearly 34 billion dollars, a new high peak.

For the fresh increase in the outstanding indebtedness Mr. Morgenthau offers three excuses, one old and two new. The conditions are so unsettled abroad that it is desirable to have a billion dollars on hand all the time. That is the explanation Mr. Morgenthau has given in connection with some previous sales of bonds. The first of the new excuses is that the windfall tax collection has been delayed, a fact which had not previously been disclosed. The second excuse is that the Home Owners' Loan corporation will need funds. It has been understood that the HOLC stopped making loans some time ago. By now the collections should be in excess of disbursements. The newer excuses, being rather lame, leave Mr. Morgenthau with the alibi that he is borrowing because of disturbed conditions abroad, by which he must mean the civil war in Spain. To be consistent Mr. Morgenthau should refer to the new bonds as the Spanish civil war issue.

The excuses offered are, of course, mere persiflage. They have no more truth in them than the claims about the approaching balanced budget. Together with the third quarter income tax collections the new increase in the national debt is intended to provide Roosevelt with the money the government will spend during the presidential campaign. Thus the work of the last congress is to be completed. Congress made the appropriations for a campaign fund, and the loan converts the appropriation into spending money.

[Sioux City (Ia.) Journal.]

Last week the Baltimore Sun published a sensational editorial denouncing the Roosevelt administration. It declared it could not support President Roosevelt for reëlection. It set forth somewhat in detail its reasons for taking this stand after 99 years as a Democratic newspaper.

Baltimore, where the Sun is published, is right next door to Washington, D. C. The Sun circulates freely in the national capital. The editors of the Sun have made it a practice for generations to devote vast amounts of space to the official life in Washington, to study trends in government, to observe the behavior of federal authorities, to study and analyze federal policies and programs; in short, the Sun has kept its trained eye on the national capital year by year and administration by administration. It therefore was in a position, because of its intense interest in and proximity to the seat of government, to know what was being done or left undone, to appraise the results of the New Deal and to reach a logical conclusion as to what has been right or wrong in the handling of public affairs by the Roosevelt regime.

The Sun, as this is written, is not committed to the candidacy of any man for the presidency. However, in its anti-Roosevlt announcement it indicated it would not be difficult for it to throw its support to Gov. Landon. After asking in its editorial whether Gov. Landon believed "that the fundamental policy to which the government should commit itself is a genuine competitive system, with such liberal adjustments in lower tarif policies, in debt policies, in credit policies, in currency stabilization policies, in law enforcement policies and in labor policies as will promote the kind of competition that is healthy and real," the Sun said: "In the Sun's opinion there is reason to believe he does. His brief confession of faith at his birthplace pointed in that direction, and there have been hints and indications in other speeches, as in certain of his acts before he became a candidate." It is evident that the Sun has not far to go to reach the conclusion that it can and will support Gov. Landon for the presidency. It will be interesting to see just what this truly great American newspaper decides as the campaign gains momentum.

LIGHT LADY OF HOMETOWN.

A tiny crick runs, northwest to southeast, through Hometown. When I was a kid I used to start out to Grammaw's by way of the North Western tracks, cut through the yard of a rosy little old Irish lady (she loved her wee nip and kids, too) to reach the footbridge. There, through the long summer afternoons, I would sit and watch the schools of minnies come down. Sometimes I read "East Lynne" and wept over it. But when the hour of reality struck I always hastened to Grammaw's for ten minutes so I could say truthfully I had been there. . . . Now and again the little crick went on a rampage. It had been even more unruly in the time of our elders. I remember Mom telling about her sister floating around a bedroom in her old-fashioned cradle; and of the young wife who struggled to her knees and held her newborn infant out of flood waters to save its life. Of course the mother died. . . . But I really started out to tell you about the Light Lady of Hometown who grew old and became incurably ill (poor thing!) and summoned a minister to help her repent of her sins. Then she called on the families of some of her onetime patrons to ask forgiveness. I heard one good matron (ah, little pitcher) exclaim: "She had better not come here!" And when Light Lady died I think some of Hometown's leading citizens touched the gray hair that joined them while she was begging, door to door, for crumbs of human kindness—and thanked God that Light Lady hadn't been able to write well enough to keep a diary. COME WITH ME.

O, come with me where wood-winds sigh
In aspen hills where nightbirds fly,
To sit and dream of days gone by;
Your hand in mine—the aspen's song,
A gleam of spears—a silver light—
The rustling leaves sing to the night.
The stars, like spangles, fill the sky,
The night comes on, the moon sails high.

A softer quiet fills the hills,
No wind blows now—the night is still,
Save now and then a feathered trill
Breaks the silence of the hollow.
Again a whisper—then a sigh,
An aspen leaf floats gently by.
The shadows deepen and night descends,
The moon sails on and shadows blend.

Memory turns back. Twenty years ago I left my habitat just off the brow of Cooney's Knob in Tennessee. Pretty soon now some one will set fire to the dying mountain grass. In the wake of the flames will come razorbacks to feast on the toasted acorns, and if you were there and kept quiet you'd see turkey gobblers leading their flocks across the burnt woods. I think—no, I know—that if you stood on a certain break in the mountain side you would behold smoke curling from six or eight stills. And, if you were wise, you would not start down the trail, bordered with ivy and rhododendron, that leads to them. Mountaineer.

PRESSURE TROUBLES OF THE FEET.

MOST of us have heard the paraphrase, "Great aches from little toe-corn grows," and but few have failed to experience "corn" distress. Whenever and wherever the skin is subjected to undue pressure it thickens and forms a callus in an effort to protect the tender area. The difficulty lies in the fact that the pressure probably continues or is even increased because of the overgrowth of hornlike tissue. As a result, nature's shield [the corn] becomes a weapon of offense.

For most of these painful regions we blame tight or poorly fitting shoes, but there is one type of toe deformity for which the footgear is not guilty. This is called a hammer toe. Nevertheless many of those afflicted will relate that in childhood they were compelled to wear shoes that were too short. As a rule this explanation is erroneous. The chances are that the affair is hereditary, at least the tendency. The downward turn of the end joint of the toe generally manifests itself early in life. It runs in families.

Because of the right angle bend which the toe assumes, no modern shoe can fail to exert some pressure, as the tip is forced against the inner sole. In addition, a painful corn forms on the head of the joint. The tip also becomes swollen, broadened, and flattened. If the condition is discovered early it may be corrected in young children by stretching, followed by the application of a small splint that is worn during the night. In older children a splint will often be as successful as in youngsters, but in adults surgery is demanded for correction.

The most commonly affected toe is the second [next to the great toe]. The contracted member is usually overlapped by those adjacent to it, and the tip particularly is compressed by the adjoining toes, assuming a hammerlike form. Furthermore, the nail is frequently distorted and may give trouble. A true hammer toe is always single—limited to one on either foot. Whenever several toes are involved some other cause should be sought.

Treatment consists in shortening the toe so that it can be straightened. This destroys the joint, and a rigid, stiff toe results. It is necessary frequently to divide one of the tendons. Operation is not recommended, however, except in those cases in which the use of splints has not been attended with success.

Another pain producing affair—also brought on by pressure—is the so-called ingrowing toe nail, which causes no small amount of disability. The trouble ordinarily appears on the outer edge of the great toe nail, although it is sometimes found on the inner margin. Tight shoes and stockings are largely responsible, together with the pernicious custom of trimming the corners of the nail, creating a neat looking, smooth, rounded edge. While this may create a desirable cosmetic effect, it constitutes an invitation to disaster, as the skin at each corner may grow up over the nail edge. The result, in all too many cases, is ulceration and infection.

Prevention consists in wearing proper shoes and hose that are not too short. In addition the nails should be cut straight across, so that the corners project slightly beyond the skin.

If infection occurs—and pain will usually warn of the true circumstances—soaking the foot daily in hot water and wearing an old and comfortable shoe will bring about healing promptly. Allow the nail to grow out until it projects well beyond the end of the toe. The generous use of sterile talcum powder before donning the hose is advised. An antiseptic solution of perchloride of iron may be helpful in stopping the spread of the infection. In neglected cases it may be necessary to remove the nail surgically under a local anesthetic.

MILK LEG.

J. M. writes:
1. What is the cause of milk leg?
2. Is it serious?
3. What is the treatment?

REPLY.

1. Milk leg may follow childbirth, and is caused by a clotting of the blood in one or more of the veins. This may be due to infection or to stasis of the blood in the veins because of prolonged rest in a horizontal position.

2. It may be, if due to infection.

3. Movement of the affected leg must be restricted to a minimum to avoid embolism. Elevating the leg slightly by means of soft pillows may help to aid return circulation. After four or five weeks of normal temperature the patient may get out of bed. Massage is not permitted until the sufferer has been up and about for several months. The nutrition must be maintained. A rubber stocking is sometimes worn and aids in preventing vein enlargement.

NEURO-DERMATITIS.

G. writes:
1. What is neuro-dermatitis?
2. Its cause?
3. Its cure?

REPLY.

1. Inflammation of the skin, accompanied or preceded by severe itching. It usually appears beneath the arms and in the groin.

2. Disturbances of the nervous system, of the gastrointestinal system, and of the glands of internal secretion have been suggested as possible causes.

3. X-ray and ultraviolet light treatments are beneficial. If the condition is persistent a visit to a skin specialist is advised.

REPEATED SKULL FRACTURE.

E. F. B. writes: What are some of the effects of two skull fractures in the same place? The person in question is 35 years old, but acts like one of 85—continual fatigue, no appetite, and a desire to sleep most of the time.

REPLY.

There may be some pressure on the brain or the injuries may have been severe enough to cause hemorrhage and result in adhesions between the covering membranes, the brain, and the vault of the skull. Careful X-ray studies should be made. It may be necessary to lift a section of the bone to relieve pressure.

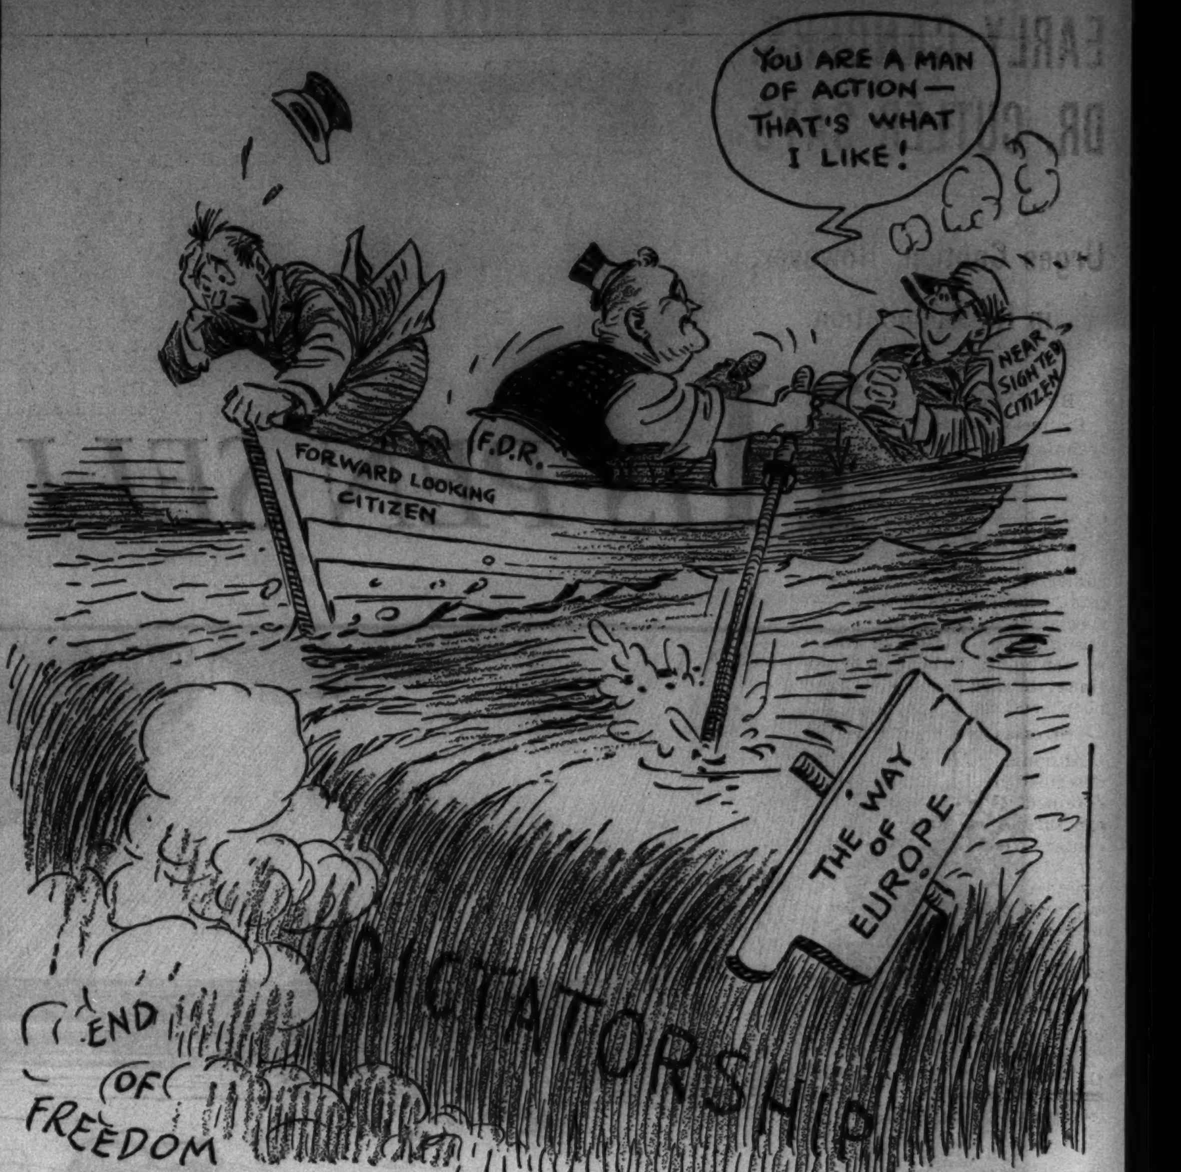
ALCOHOLIC HEREDITY.

W. E. C. writes: Is there any truth in the fact that a heavy drinker, that is a person who consumes from one to two pints of whisky or gin a day would in all probability have feeble-minded or epileptic offspring?

REPLY.

Not necessarily, although the germ plasm transmitted to his children will develop the same unstable nervous system that permits one to become a chronic alcoholic.

DOWN STREAM WITH ROOSEVELT



From Across the Sea

BY DONALD DAY.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

RIGA, Latvia.—Thousands of American tourists who spent some days in Leningrad this summer visited a model communal dining room where the soviet government's ambition to feed its urban and industrial population through these institutions was explained by Intourist guides. The spotless cleanliness and plain cooked but tasty food served in this restaurant impressed the visitors. But the Leningrad Krasnaija Gazette reveals that conditions prevailing in the model restaurant are unique in that city. The inquiring reporter of this paper under the headline, "O, for a tasty, good cheap meal," writes:

"Dirty tablecloths, girl waitresses stingy with politeness and swarms of flies are characteristic of the communal dining rooms of Leningrad. The cooks and waitresses put their thumbs in the soup without risk of burning them, because it is always either lukewarm or cold. Waitresses carry bread to the customers in their hands and toss it upon dirty plates or still dirtier tables. There are no knives and forks. The only eating utensil provided is a tablespoon. In the restaurant of the Shilaboff factory the workers are enraged and disgusted. They say it is so dirty that they dislike to patronize it for their meals.

"At the typewriter factory, the pneumatic factory, the Piskarev vegetable combine, and many others visited I was unable to find an appetizing, well served meal. The staf was dressed in dirty and worn street clothes, dishes were washed in cold water. The usual menu was the choice of two soups and two meats. Vegetables and sweet dishes were lacking.

"Government reforms have been extended to include the restaurants, and more liberty and initiative is permitted in preparing food. For instance, the amount of pepper to be added to the soup and other similar directions have been canceled. The result is that managers have not improved the quality of the food served, but have made it worse. The cooks feel they can cook how they like and feed what they like.

"I took samples of the meat cutlets being served and had them analyzed. In dining room No. 49 of the Smolninski ward the cutlet was found to contain: Fats, 7.8 per cent; bread, 21.1 per cent. It weighed 60 grams and contained 120.6 calories. The cutlet of the Red Banner restaurant weighs 65 grams, contains 10.8 per cent of fats and gives 161.7 calories. The worst cutlet found was in the October Ward restaurant. It contained only 3.4 per cent fats, weighed 75 grams and gave 111 calories. The large size was attained through adding bread [30.7 per cent]. The laboratory report on this cutlet read: 'Weakly colored and of a smearing consistency.'

"The analysis and conditions which I discovered confirm the mass of complaints about the exceptionally poor quality of food being served by the Leningrad communal restaurants. The managers and cooks are only concerned with making as big a profit as possible to earn bonuses and vacations for themselves."

Other soviet newspapers reporting similar conditions prevailing in other centers believe that much of the prevailing unrest among the workers is due to the bad food. They recommend a government inquiry.

WASTE ON THE MISSISSIPPI.

Chicago, Sept. 11.—The article of E. H. Prior of Waterloo certainly showed a lack of knowledge, or misrepresentation, as to the intent and purpose of the canalization of the upper Mississippi river by the U. S. army engineers.

This work was started under the administration of ex-President Hoover, with the main purpose of preventing the spring floods in the southern states, and if this is accomplished the investment of approximately one hundred million dollars will be well spent. The second purpose was to maintain a nine foot navigable stream for the transportation of freight.

Under Mr. Hoover there were only two locks and dams started, one at Alma, Wis., and the other at Davenport, Ia. However, under President Roosevelt's administration real progress has been made on this work. Under construction or already completed are 24 locks and dams, from Red Wing, Minn., to Alton, Ill. This work, in addition to its original purpose, has furnished employment for thousands of men as well as the use of an endless amount of material such as steel, concrete, rubber equipment, supplies, and so forth, and has brought prosperity to the many river towns in that territory. Mr. Prior mentioned the job at Lynxville, Wis. I wonder if he has investigated the possibility of obtaining living quarters in the towns near Lynxville and found that there is a great scarcity of residential accommodation.

In addition to this, his statement that a vast virgin forest is being destroyed is a distortion of fact, as a clearing is made at these jobs of only a small area for the completion of the spillway, or storage. His statement that a well informed river man would not contract to operate the lock at Guttenberg dam in return for the revenue derived may be correct, as there is no revenue collected for the passing of boats through these locks.

I recommend that THE TRIBUNE include in its automobile route information a trip along the picturesque upper Mississippi, so that any one desirous can learn at first hand of the many advantages that are going to be attained by the building of these locks and dams.

In addition to the practicability there is the beautification of the Mississippi, and were the completion accomplished last spring it would not have been necessary for such boats as the Mark Twain to have been tied up at La Crosse because of lack of water.

AN ENGINEERING PROBLEM.

Chicago, Sept. 14.—The editorial of Sept. 14 entitled "The Lake Shore Tracks" voices a sensible argument; we all realize that "the ideal" of which you speak must be made a reality in the shortest possible time. But I feel that you have not given sufficient consideration to the importance of the surface line tracks leading to Navy pier.

Thousands of mothers and babes who would otherwise be denied the cooling lake breeze make Navy pier their summer headquarters, and they may thank the surface lines for transportation to the very doors of the pier.

With modern engineering what it is, some way certainly can be found whereby the drive can be put through without depriving poor people of their summer comfort. S. B. KOMAIKO,

LIGHT ON AN EVANSTON MYSTERY.

Ottawa, Ill., Sept. 15.—Folks have been wondering who has been prowling around the home of a certain Vice President in Evanston. Perhaps it was one of the employés of the Reconstruction Finance corporation who was trying to find some way to collect the balance of a certain 90 million dollar loan.

When we who have been in the loan business for several years know that we have a sour loan, we keep close watch of the delinquent borrower to see if he is making any extravagant expenditures.

WANTS TO RECOVER LOAN.

Chicago, Sept. 19.—[Legal Friend of the People.]—A friend of mine went to California last winter and said she met with an accident and asked me for money which amounted to between three and four hundred dollars. I believed her story and sent the money. She ceased writing and I became suspicious, so wrote the chief of police where the accident was said to have occurred.

1. He replied that there was no such accident on file.
2. Can I charge this person with using the mails to defraud, as she obtained the money falsely?
3. Who can I go to see about this?
4. Tell me whether I can do anything or not.

RADIUM MAY NIP EARLY CANCERS, DR. CUTLER SAYS

BY VIRGINIA GARDNER.

By means of a recently perfected technique in implanting radium in diseased tissues, cures may be effected in cases of small, localized cancer of the breast in its early stage, Dr. Max Cutler declared yesterday.

Dr. Cutler, who is head of the tumor clinic of Michael Reese hospital, addressed more than 175 cancer specialists in the Palmer house at a post-graduate course being sponsored by the clinic. The course will continue through Saturday, with afternoon sessions in the hospital.

Stresses Need of Experience.

Although cures of the radium type described by Dr. Cutler can be thus obtained without surgery, the standard surgical treatment in these early cancers yields a 75 per cent chance for a cure, he said. He questioned whether the newer method should supplant the old, and emphasized the need of experience on the part of physicians before success can be gained.

"Radiation in the treatment of cancer of the breast still is in a state of evolution," said Dr. Cutler. "Changes are so frequent that in three years a technique becomes obsolete. The last three years have seen the most rapid strides. Results are not available yet."

Surgery Alone Ineffective.

The use of surgery alone in cancer of the breast generally yields only 33 per cent of five year cures, Dr. Cutler said.

"Results of surgical treatment of mammary cancer are far from satisfactory," he went on. "It is a highly malignant type of cancer and undergoes early and wide dissemination during the course of development. The extent of this is difficult to determine by clinical examination.

"No doubt many patients who suffer from small and apparently localized cancer already harbor foci which become evident later but cannot be detected now."

Sir G. Lenthal Cheatle, London surgeon, a leading authority on cancer, and Dr. Henri Coutard, chief of the division of X-ray treatment for cancer in the Curie institute, Paris, addressed the physicians during the day.

Operator of Dental Chain Sues Mayor and Courtney

Dr. A. A. Dubin, operator of seven dental parlors, yesterday filed suit in Circuit court for an injunction to restrain Mayor Kelly, State's Attorney Thomas J. Courtney, and Police Commissioner James P. Allman from interfering with his business. His largest place of business, at 84 West Madison street, was raided Sept. 9 and employés taken to the state's attorney's office on a charge of soliciting customers in violation of the dental practice act.

1,500 HOMELESS AS TEXAS FLOOD RACES ON SOUTH

Brownwood, Tex., Sept. 21.—[Special.]—The list of 1,500 already made homeless and damage of more than $5,000,000 increased today as the destructive flood crest of the Colorado river of Texas passed between San Saba and Lometa and swept on southward.

The swollen stream, which took up the flood menace where the Concho river left off in the San Angelo area last week, reached a stage of 62 feet, two feet higher than ever before recorded, at the bridge between San Saba and Lometa.

Warnings Given by Planes.

The death list remained at two. Observers believed a greater loss of life was prevented by adequate warnings and effective work of rescuers. Two radio equipped coast guard planes flew over the threatened territory Sunday to warn residents to seek safety.

Lieut. Commander N. M. Nelson reported he circled numerous houses submerged to the roof and flew over thousands of inundated acres but sighted no one on the roofs or in need of rescue.

The little town of Bend was deserted, its score of stores and houses abandoned. Water was deep in the streets and was still rising. Residents fled as warnings were broadcast.

Churches Shelter Homeless

Nearly 300 persons were driven from the homes in San Saba county and damage to agriculture alone was placed at almost $300,000. Many homeless were sheltered in churches and schools.

At San Angela, where the Concho river, a tributary of the Colorado, wrought tremendous damage last week following cloudbursts, workmen were hauling away tons of dèbris piled high in the main parts of the city.

The Rio Grande, far to the south of the Colorado river, also was on a rise. Some apprehension was felt for levees at Matamoros, Mexico.

DEMANDS ENGLAND RECOGNIZE EQUALITY OF FREE CHURCHES

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

LONDON, Sept. 21.—The Rev. M. E. Aubrey, moderator of the Federal Council of Free Churches of England, tonight launched a claim that the free churches—Methodists, Baptists, and others—are entitled to equality with the Anglican church.

"Exact figures cannot be obtained, but it is probable that the free churches, between them, comprise about half the regular church attendance in this country," he said.

"May we not put it to the Anglican brethren that, whatever the relation of the Anglican church to the state, as a simple matter of justice the same recognition is due the free churches that is given the Church of England?"

RUSSIAN VESSEL BREAKS FREE OF ARCTIC ICE JAM

MOSCOW, Sept. 21.—(AP)—The Russian icebreaker Rusanoff tonight broke free of the ice jam which held her prisoner for two weeks in the arctic and floated in open water.

Officials in Moscow were advised of the little vessel's successful fight against the floes by a radio message from the icebreaker Sadko, which had gone to the Rusanoff's aid. The Rusanoff was caught by shifting ice packs.

An expedition of soviet scientists is aboard the Rusanoff.

Gleam and Glitter

The season opens with more brilliance than it has in a decade. Sequins again glitter on new dinner and evening gowns; beads gleam on afternoon and dinner dresses. For Paris philosophizes, "Be gay while you may!" Every couturier from Schiaparelli to Vionnet proposes this carnival mode. Guaranteed to lift your spirits and make you the star of first afternoon and dinner parties are these new gleaming, glittering costumes from the Grand Salon.

Lanvin and Maggy Rouff did little jackets like the one above to wear over your dinner and evening gowns. Sketched, one of a collection in blue, plum, coral, tortoise. $29.75. Others from $8.75 to $50. After-Five Gowns—After-Five Room, Sixth Floor.

First of the new evening bags—the drawstring pouch in glittering sequins—which you dangle on your fingers Black or gold, $10.50. Handbags, First Floor.

In the manner of Chanel—the lace evening gown embroidered in sequins. A dress for many occasions which you'll love throughout the season. In black, royal blue or white $45. After Five Gowns—Grand Salon, Sixth Floor

10 AUTO DRIVERS ARE SENTENCED TO COUNTY JAIL

Wife of Manufacturer Is Fined in Evanston.

Ten automobile drivers were sentenced to the county jail yesterday by Judge Gibson E. Gorman in Safety court. They are:

Raymond Howard, 23 years old, 10520 Ewing avenue, thirty days for leaving the scene of an accident and ten days for reckless driving. Both sentences to run concurrently.

In the Evanston Municipal court Mrs. Royal C. Vilas Jr., wife of the vice president of the Pyle-National company, manufacturers of railroad equipment, paid a $7 fine for speeding 38 miles an hour in Evanston last Wednesday while hurrying to attend a bridge party.

Robert Wallace, 18 years old, 815 Mount Pleasant road, Winnetka, was directed yesterday by Judge John Gutknecht in Trafic court to visit the county morgue and county hospital on Thursday for an "object lesson." The youth, son of Walter F. Wallace, head of a printing company, was charged with driving 58 miles an hour in Lake Shore drive near Sunnyside avenue.

DR. H. P. NEWMAN, PIONEER CHICAGO SURGEON, IS DEAD

Dr. Newman was one of the founders of the American College of Surgeons, founder and president of the Marion-Sims hospital and training school at Chicago, which later was incorporated into the Henrotin Memorial hospital, and for ten years was treasurer of the American Medical association.

Honors bestowed upon him included life membership in the Chicago Medical society and the Illinois State Medical society; fellowship in the American Academy of Medicine; and memberships in the Western Surgical and Gynecological society, and California and Southern California Medical societies.

Before he came to San Diego 30 years ago he was appointed professor emeritus in the medical department of the University of Chicago.

WILLIAM WRIGHT FUNERAL WILL BE HELD TOMORROW

Funeral services for William E. Wright, 1360 East 48th street, president of a wholesale paper company bearing his name, will be held tomorrow at 10 a. m. in St. Ambrose's church, 47th street and Ellis avenue. Mr. Wright died Sunday at the Chicago Osteopathic hospital. The widow, Mrs. Madeline Brown Wright, survives. Mr. Wright, who was born in Chicago, organized his paper concern in 1903. He was once a member of the 131st infantry, which was known as the "Dandy First." He organized Illinois council, No. 33, of the Royal league and belonged to the Chicago Athletic association and the Hamilton club.

Clement F. Levinson Dies Suddenly; Order Inquest

Following the death yesterday of Clement F. Levinson, 36 years old, 3527 Cottage Grove avenue, secretary of the Hump Hairpin Manufacturing company, police asked a chemical analysis of the contents of his stomach. Levinson died after being stricken in a barber shop at 2134 South Wabash avenue, where he had just been shaved. Just before he collapsed, Mr. Levinson complained of illness, took some medicine from his pocket and swallowed it. He was dead when taken to the St. Luke's hospital. He is survived by his wife, Ida, and two children, Hilliard, 7 years old, and Norman, 1 year old.

Amedee Chabrison, 82, Former Chicago Chef, Dead

Eagle River, Wis., Sept. 21.—(AP)—Funeral services will be conducted here tomorrow for Amedee Chabrison, 82, owner of the Muskie inn resort on Big St. Germain lake and former chef at the Union League club in Chicago. He had operated the resort since 1906. Before coming to the lake country Chabrison was chef at the Union League club for 12 years and at the Grand Pacific and Lakota hotels, Chicago, for 8 years.

WOMAN STRUCK BY HIT-RUN CAR DIES; THREE HELD

Trap Suspects Through License Number.

Mrs. Mary Burns, 76 years old, 3934 South Rockwell street, a widow, died yesterday in the County hospital of injuries incurred Sunday when she was struck by a hit and run automobile at 39th street and Archer avenue as she was on her way to St. Agnes church, Pershing road and Washtenaw avenue.

According to witnesses the car stopped for an instant and then drove away. One of the witnesses obtained the license number and police traced the car to Walter Slomin, 24 years old, 937 West 31st place, an elevator operator. Slomin named Anton Kwiatkowski, 21 years old, 3055 Lyman street, a laborer, as driver of the car. Both men and their companion, Anthony Parish, 34 years old, 927 North Winchester avenue, were held for the inquest.

Killed by Truck.

Jack Fiorito, 53 years old, 1233 Vine street, was fatally injured by a truck at Milton and Division streeets last evening. Matthew Samek, 23, of 2850 North Talman avenue, took him to St. Elizabeth's hospital, where he died.

Anton Swanson, 43 years old, janitor for a building at 1609 North Latrobe avenue, died yesterday at St. Mary's hospital of injuries incurred in a headon collision of two automobiles Sunday in front of 877 Milwaukee avenue. Two other men were seriously injured in the accident.

Mrs. Julia Lieshowitz, 44 years old, 628 Christiana avenue, died yesterday in the Michael Reese hospital of injuries suffered Sept. 12 when she and her two daughters, Beatrice, 8 years old, and Florence, 5, were struck by an automobile at Kedzie avenue and Ohio street. At the time of the accident John Furstoss, 20 years old, 3215 West Ohio street, was charged with reckless driving. The two children incurred internal injuries.

Identify Young Woman.

The young women killed early yesterday when the automobile in which she was riding ran off the road on a curve in Northwest highway, three miles east of Crystal Lake, was identified later in the day as Miss Genevieve Ciochon, 17 years old, of Cary. Edward Baczkowski, 26 years old, 2237 Monticello avenue, driver of the car, was injured. Another couple in the car escaped with minor bruises.

Up to 4 p. m. yesterday 703 persons had been killed in automobile accidents in Cook county since Jan. 1. Of these 542 were killed in Chicago. In the same period 13,531 were injured in trafic accidents in the city.

INJURED BY AUTO; FILES SUIT UNDER DRAM SHOP ACT

The dram shop act, which makes tavern keepers and the owners of tavern buildings responsible for injuries resulting from intoxication, was invoked yesterday in a suit for $50,000 filed in Circuit court by Mrs. Frances W. Pingrey, 54 years old, 1207 Leland avenue. She charges that liquor and beer were sold in excess to Mrs. Marian Howland, 35 years old, 6431 North California avenue, on Sept. 23, 1934, in the Churchill Downs tavern, 3401 Church street, Niles Center.

As a result, the bill charges, Mrs. Howland's automobile struck and seriously injured Mrs. Pingrey at Ashland and Montrose avenues. Named as defendants are Eugene and Esther Swenson, former owners of the building housing the tavern; Charles H. Albers, receiver of the Foreman-State Trust and Savings bank as trustee for the property; E. Edwin Mills, present owner, and Jacob Smith and Sam N. Dill, lessees of the building.

Mrs. Pingrey already has a $50,000 personal injury suit pending against Mrs. Howland, who served thirty days in the Bridewell for reckless driving after the accident.

FRANK HORNBY, TOY INVENTOR, DIES IN ENGLAND

LONDON, Sept. 21.—Frank Hornby, inventor of the Meccano toys and manufacturer of the Hornby toy trains, died at Liverpool today after an operation at the age of 73.

He founded the Meccano business in one room of a workship in Liverpool in 1900. Today the factory covers five acres, employs 1,500 persons, and made net profits in Great Britain last year of more than $200,000.

A few years ago, when millions of children in Europe and America had played with his toys, Hornby said the idea of Meccano came to him while he was on his way to spend Christmas with relatives.

"I wondered how I could amuse the children," he said. "The train stopped opposite a freight yard and there was a small crane there. It occurred to me that I might make a crane like that with little strips of steel. I chose the name Meccano because people of all nations can pronounce it. I made the first set, drilling all the holes myself."

Hornby's widow and two sons survive.

Trenton, N. J., Sept. 21.—[Special.]—The $115,000,000 Dorrance estate settled accounts with the state of New Jersey today, making a final inheritance tax payment of $1,180,310. The payment was a compromise of pending state claims, affecting various contingent bequests of the late Dr. John T. Dorrance, former head of the Campbell Soup company of Camden.

Some of the bequests involved tax payments which would not have become due for 60 days. The total was estimated at $2,600,000 and the tax department agreed to settle for an immediate payment of $1,180,310.

The Dorrance executors fought payment of an inheritance tax in New Jersey for more than five years, contending Dr. Dorrance's legal residence was in Radnor, Pa.

The executors, failing finally to obtain a review of the New Jersey assessment in the United States Supreme court, were forced to pay this state more than $17,000,000. Pennsylvania collected more than $14,500,000.

J. Delano Cole, Distant Kin of Roosevelt, Is Dead

DIES IN POLICE STATION.

Anthony Kern, 58 years old, casual, died yesterday of a heart ailment as he was waiting to be arraigned in the Desplaines Street court on a charge of intoxication.

HOLD SERVICES TOMORROW FOR H. D. STURTEVANT

Funeral services for Henry Dexter Sturtevant, Chicago broker, will be held tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock at Rosehill cemetery. Mr. Sturtevant died at the age of 74 last Sunday at his summer home, The Timbers, on White Lake, Mich., near where he was born. His Chicago home was 1448 Lake Shore drive.

Mr. Sturtevant started on La Salle street in 1881 as a telegraph operator in a broker's office. He became a partner in the brokerage firm of Counselman & Day. The firm was dissolved in 1904 and he became a general partner of Shearson, Hammill & Co.

Mr. Sturtevant entered the firm of Raymond, Pynchon & Co. in 1915, and became a partner of its successor, Pynchon & Co., in 1917. He retired from business in 1930. For eleven years he was a director of the Chicago Stock exchange and was a member of the Board of Trade from 1894 until 1929.

He was a direct descendant of Samuel Sturtevant, who established the American branch of the family at Plymouth, Mass., in 1643. He was a member of the council of the Society of Colonial Wars, the Chicago club, Chicago Athletic club, South Shore Country club, and commodore emeritus of the White Lake Yacht club.

Surviving are his widow, the former Edith A. Taylor of New York, whom he married in 1917, and an adopted son, Jack C. Sturtevant.

FATHER BRADLEY OF MT. ST. MARY'S COLLEGE DIES

Emmitsburg, Md., Sept. 21.—[Special.]—The Rt. Rev. Bernard J. Bradley, 69, president of Mount St. Mary's college, died today at the Providence hospital. Death was attributed to hypostatic pneumonia which developed after he became ill from pleurisy Saturday.

Msgr. Bradley had been president of Mount St. Mary's for 26 years and was widely known as an educator and builder. His career centered around that college, which doubled its enrollment and added many improvements under his administration.

He was ordained to the priesthood in 1892 and two years later returned to teach at Mount St. Mary's, from which he had graduated. He successively became treasurer, vice president and then president of the college.

HALF CRAWFORD FORTUNE GIVEN FOR CHARITIES

Crawford, former president of the McKeesport Tin Plate company, stipulated that approximately $1,500,000 of his $3,825,000 estate should be devoted to religious, educational, charitable, public, and "other deserving uses."

He instructed the executors to give "first consideration" to employés of the tin plate company who have "suffered through illness or misfortune." The company's main plant is situated in suburban McKeesport.

At last!—

"Hear Programs as Actually Played"

Believe it or not!—you never hear programs as they are actually broadcast! Broadcasting stations "monitor" or cut down the full, strong passages and "step up" soft passages—kill much of the marvelous musical expression intended for you by composer and actually played at studio!

Now—sensational SCOTT "Magic Maestro" reverses this "monitoring"—at last you can hear radio music as it is actually played—from faintest silver whisper of flutes, to mightiest crescendo of symphonies!

Before you decide on any other radio—"Hear the SCOTT and Hear the Difference!" You never regret owning the best. Come in TODAY! The Studios are open from 9 A. M. to 9 P. M. daily (except Sunday). ESTATE OF $100,000 IS LEFT TO FAMILY BY JOSEPH A. REES

Joseph A. Rees, former librarian of the Illinois Appellate court in the Cook county district, who died on Aug. 22 at the age of 76, left an estate valued at $100,000, according to his will which was admitted to probate yesterday. Under the terms of the will two-thirds of the estate will go to his widow, Anne, 4605 Sheridan road, and the remainder to a son, Nathaniel, of Los Angeles.

Mr. Rees was active in politics in the 48th ward for years. He was born on his father's estate in the town of Lake View before it was annexed to Chicago.

Other wills were admitted to probate as follows:

MARY SESECKA, died July 4. Estate of $7,500 to three daughters and son. John, son, executor.

ANTON BAUMANN, died June 16. Estate of $8,500 to six daughters and five sons. Charlotte Oswald, daughter executrix.

MARIE SAMUEL, died June 12. Estate of $17,000 to sister. Executor, Continental Illinois National Bank and Trust company.

CATHERINE MOHL, died Aug. 28. Estate of $11,100 to two daughters and son. Clara Gundlach, daughter, executrix.

SCHOOLS REMAIN SHUT IN ALABAMA UNION CAMPAIGN

Jasper, Ala., Sept. 21.—(AP)—More than 1,000 Walker county children remained away from classrooms today while school authorities studied demands of labor leaders that teachers be required to join the American Federation of Classroom Teachers.

Dr. J. A. Keller, state superintendent of education, discussed the movement with County Superintendent A. S. Scott.

Union sources said classrooms virtually were deserted at three schools at Parish today, adding nearly 1,000 to the ranks of children who remained away from classes last week.

A union massmeeting has been called for Friday night when the county board of education will be in session. Union sources claim 110 members out of 375 teachers in Walker schools. The American Federation of Classroom Teachers is an affiliate of the American Federation of Labor.

Street Scene

How often this scene is repeated along Philadelphia's streets! Tree-bordered pavements, modest individual homes, comfortable porches, spacious lawns with their play-yards and gardens.

Not by accident is Philadelphia unique among the cities of the world. Not by chance has Philadelphia grown to be America's greatest City of Homes . . . but by deliberate foresight, dating back to Penn's original plan.

If Philadelphia's streets were laid in a continuous line they would reach beyond Denver, nearly two thousand miles away!

A two-thousand-mile highway lined with homes! That is the market which Philadelphia offers the manufacturer, today.

Individual homes . . . single-family dwellings. More than in New York City and Buffalo combined; more than in Chicago and St. Louis added together; more than in any one of twenty-two states in the nation.

Individual homes . . . each with its heating and laundry problems; each with its full-sized kitchen to equip; each with demands for rugs and draperies, furniture and bedding, papering and paint, awnings and screens . . . each with its hundreds of needs, from basement to rooftop, which no apartment dweller knows.

The Philadelphia Bulletin has grown with Philadelphia during the last forty years. Its circulation is home circulation. Its growth is rooted deep in the home life of Philadelphia.

For the last thirteen years, that circulation has averaged more than half a million daily. (Two and one-half times that of any other Philadelphia evening newspaper and more than the morning newspapers combined.) All without premium or contest . . . without any artificial method of obtaining readers.

The American Association of Advertising Agencies, in its survey of Philadelphia newspapers discovered: that The Bulletin reaches 78.9% of Philadelphia families; that among higher income families the percentage of coverage is even greater—89% among families with incomes of $3,000 and over.

If you manufacture a home product, tell this greatest of all groups of home dwellers. Tell them in The Bulletin, the newspaper nearly everybody reads. Consult your Advertising Agency.

Five firsts and a second

Volume of national advertising is a good indication of the importance of a market—or the value of a newspaper. Its placing represents the best judgment of advertisers and advertising agencies all over America. During the last six years The Bulletin has been first five times and second once in volume of national advertising among all six-day newspapers in the nation.

New Child Star to Shine Again in Hill Tragedy

Marcia Mae Jones' Curly Hair a Problem.

BY GEORGE SHAFFER.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Hollywood, Cal., Sept. 21.—[Special.]—When Warners' signed Marcia Mae Jones, the 12 year old blonde who was the "sweet child" [as compared with Bonita Granville, the "mean child"] in "These Three," the studio failed to consider one complication. That was the matter of hair straightening. Blue eyed, 61 inches tall, and weighing 86 pounds, little Miss Jones has blonde hair of such overpowering natural curliness that Warners' makeup man could hardly get her hair to look straight and straggly, as it was supposed to, for her part as the little mountaineer sister, Bethie, in "Mountain Justice."

Finally it was necessary practically to bake Marcia Mae's hair out of its curl, pull each strand back tight, and slick it down hard. In this manner, Bethie, in her ginghams, becomes a believable sister to Josephine Hutchinson [Ruth], the feminine star, who has the tragic main rôle as the mountain girl who kills her own father [Robert Barrat] to stop his abuse.

Marcia Mae has a tense bit of acting in this connection, but the assignment was not too difficult for this latest outstanding addition to the ranks of Hollywood's promising juvenile players. Enacting a child of 14 whom her father tries to marry off to a man twice her age, she tells her story in childish pathos on the witness stand, and provides one of the big scenes for "Mountain Justice." Marcia Mae is such an experienced and intelligent youngster despite her age that when the time came for her screen tests, based on this major scene, she did the courtroom climax wholly without assistance of other film players and without coaching.

Entering the camera room for the test, the little girl asked simply: "Where is the judge supposed to be? What part of the room is my sister supposed to be in?" With these simple directions and no stage setting, or special help from Director Curtiz, the little Jones girl went through her complicated scene, with its long dialog, so successfully the camera man melted into a sniffle and the studio signed her at once.

Marcia Mae has been in films since 18 months old. At that age she was the baby with Barbara Stanwyck in "Night Nurse." She is the youngest of four children, all of whom have been in and out of films, the others being Margaret, 19, now no longer interested in the movies; Macon, 16, who was in "Beau Ideal" and a dozen other minor rôles, but now is interested chiefly in college; and Marvin, 14, who, like Marcia Mae, is in Bancroft Junior High school in Los Angeles and who, like his sister, is intent on a film career. Marvin is to be one of Freddie Bartholomew's boy companions in his next M-G-M film.

Since making her big impression as the misled child in "These Three" little Miss Jones has had rôles in "Gentle Julia" with Jane Withers and "Garden of Allah" with Marlene Dietrich, and is currently being tested for Becky Thatcher in "Tom Sawyer." Her salary is $350 a week. Her father comes from North Carolina mountaineer stock, which gives the child a sincere interest in her present rôle, and her mother, the former Margaret Mallory of Flint, Mich., has several relatives in that city.

Papa Bill Jones is a leased wire operator at the Los Angeles Times, probably the only telegrapher who ever had the satisfaction of tapping out a syndicated article about the movie success of his own daughter. The screen story of "Mountain Justice" was partly inspired by the Edith Maxwell murder trial at Wise, Va.

At present Marcia Mae has been transferred from the junior high school to the Warner studio school maintained for under-age movie players on assignment there. The only other pupil is Marcia Mae's stand-in, Dorothy Gray, 14. The two girls are ardent devotees of the game of parchese while about the set.

Florence Lake confirms that she is living separated from her husband, Jack Goode, who is now out around the country in vaudeville. Miss Lake and her daughter, Joyce, 2, have moved in with the actress' mother, Mrs. Edith Lake, but there are no divorce plans at present. Miss Lake is sister of Arthur Lake. Her current escort about Hollywood is and for some weeks has been Lee Tracy.

Victor Moore has decided to leave the New York stage and stay here. He worked out a deal to swap his $16,000 Long Island home for a residence here. Accordingly he wrote a check to mail to New York, completing the deal. Unfortunately Moore was making out a monthly check of $20 to his local gardener at the same time, and got the checks switched in their envelopes. He found this out when the gardener came to tell him he had made a mistake in the name on his check. Moore looked at it and nearly fainted. The gardener had never noticed that his check was made out for thousands of dollars.

Tact Is Rule in Checking Boys on Behavior

BY DORIS BLAKE.

"You say, Miss Blake, that popular girls are those who have charm and manners and who are not loose in their morals. You're wrong, lady, and I know it. In our town it isn't true. The boys won't go with the nice girls. The boys here think that if they take you out and spend money on you for a dance or meal the least you can do is to allow them to kiss you. The first time out, too. I don't believe in it and I won't allow it. Consequently I never have the same date twice!"—Spry.

Now you're not so spry, young woman, or you'd see that there must be something decidedly wrong with what you choose to call the nice girls. Nasty nice, we'll wager they are. Stiff-necked, prissy, and preachy. You can't tell us that in any town there aren't, per capita, just as many nice young men as there are girls answering the description.

But there's nothing that irritates men so much as the prissy, holler-than-thou attitude of the girl who classes herself with the unpopular nice girls. Were we men we'd rather stay home and play checkers alone than take you out. You're too stiff-necked. And, mind you, although we're giving it to you straight, we're not defending girls of loose conduct.

Suppose a boy does suggest a kiss the first date out! Does that mean that he's a bounder? It does not. Nine times out of ten he'd just as soon move along home sans the osculatory expression, but he thinks it's expected of him. Some of you niceys, indeed, lead the boy on just for the sheer viciousness of being able to brag next day about your irresistibility and your virtue in turning down the advances.

But even if you aren't of this mettle, haven't you the wit to turn away diplomatically and not make the boy feel he's a criminal for asking? That's where the other girl gets in her champion strokes. And we'd suggest that instead of wasting time panning her and gloating over your smug, superior virtue you learn a little of her technique in turning the boy's offer down and leaving him liking her better for it.

Culbertson's "Gold Book of Bidding and Play"

Herewith is presented another portion of Mr. Culbertson's latest work on contract, the "Gold Book of Bidding and Play," which is being reproduced in this column in daily instalments.

LANGUAGE OF BIDS.

The language of bids tells much more through the silent language of indirect inferences in bridge, which are so called because their premise is not what partner actually bids, but what he fails to bid, and why. For example, I bid "one spade" and you raise my bid to "two spades." Because you did not raise it to three or four spades, because you did not make any number of other bids, I, by a process of elimination and negative inference, deduce that you hold something like this:

♠ J x x x ♥ x x ♦ Q J x x ♣ K x x.

The Principle of Economy of Bids. Practically the entire structure of partnership language and strategy springs from the principle of economy of bids. It is astonishing how much information can be packed into a single bid. The two partners may hold any one of millions of possible hands and yet, with the logic of inferences as clews, they join, in most cases, the two unknown hands for the precise bid. The player carefully must avoid wasting precious rounds and, by thinking ahead, must so arrange his bidding sequence as to give and obtain the maximum of information at the lowest possible level.

The bidding:

West	North	East	South
1 heart*	Pass	2 hearts	2 spades
4 hearts	4 spades	Double	Pass
Pass	Pass

*East-West were not using the two-way three-bid.

East's four spade double was not the best bid at his command. A pass, virtually forcing under the circumstances, would have been correct. West could have made five hearts by guessing the diamond distribution.

West opened the ace of hearts and, when he saw the dummy, was hard put to it for a second lead. But two things convinced him that declarer had two hearts: the fact that East doubled four spades instead of passing the decision to him, and that East played the nine of hearts on the ace. So West continued with the heart queen. Dummy ruffed and led a low diamond; East ducked and declarer's queen went to West's ace. West returned a diamond; dummy played the nine, East the ten, and declarer ruffed. Now the spade king was laid down; West showed out; East took the ace and returned the three of spades. Dummy's eight took this trick and now another low diamond was led and ruffed by declarer, who then drew East's remaining trump.

At this stage, three tricks having been lost, the success of the contract pivoted on losing no club trick. Normally, of course, there is only one logical way to play the North-South club combination; that is, a lead to the ace and a finesse back to the king-jack. But the declarer had been watching the fall of the cards with an eagle eye, and now proceeded to fill in the gaps from inference. West had led the heart ace. There could have been no reason on this hand for him to conceal an ace-king holding; therefore he didn't have the king [which his second play of the queen confirmed] and that card was in East's hand. East had actually shown the ace-ten of spades, and the series of diamond plays clearly established that East had started with the king-ten of diamonds. That was all declarer had to know. Why, East could not have the club queen! If he had held it, he would have had 2½ honor tricks, plus at least two tens, and 4-3-3-3 distribution, and he would certainly have responded to a heart bid with two no trump, rather than a mere single raise.

Once declarer had satisfied himself that West must hold the club queen and that a normal finesse could not succeed, there was only one alternative left him—a backward finesse. He therefore led the club jack; West covered; dummy's ace won and then a club was returned and the nine spot finessed. Declarer was lucky to find the ten in East's hand, but it must be noted that if West had held it with the queen, nothing could be done about it. The sound reasoning that located the queen deserved a little luck!

TODAY'S QUESTION.

Question If a penalty has been paid and it is later discovered to have been wrong, what should be done about it?

Answer A penalty once paid stands even though at some later time it is discovered to have been incorrect.

Unknown Student's Courtesy Brings Gift to Washington and Lee

Lexington, Va., Sept. 21.—(AP)—The courtesy shown by an unknown student years ago to a campus visitor has enriched Washington and Lee university by approximately $1,500,000. The visitor was Robert P. Doremus, New York Stock exchange broker, who inspected several southern universities with a view to bestowing his estate upon one as a memorial. He was impressed by the cordiality shown by a student, and when Doremus died in 1913 he specified that his estate should go to the institution after his wife died.

New Tunic Mode Requires Slenderization of Hipline

BY ANTOINETTE DONNELLY.

One thing the fashion reviews indicate plainly for the coming season is the flaring hip tunic. If you haven't the hip for it you're going to be peeved as all get-out. You'll see those lovely willowies floating by, charming replicas of silhouettes as they should be.

Even if the peplum sort of thing isn't your gold plate, a streamline hip isn't anything to cast off as an ambition not worth seeking. You always can use that smooth fitting dress line in the sector of which I speak. And hips, believe it or not, are planed down more easily than anything in the whole reducing program. I've seen it done time and time again.

I'm going to repeat an old-timer in exercises, because a better hip reducer I've never come across. I know from hundreds of testimonials that it works. You must put wim and wigor in its execution it goes without saying. In fact, two old-timers are on the boards this morning.

First one: Down on floor, head and shoulders kept close to floor. Arms stretched horizontally wide. Now swing your right leg over left and stretch toes and leg in effort to touch the left hand with right toe. Reverse, swinging left leg over right. Roll on hips only.

The second old-timer is the bicycle movement, but bicycling as if old Nick in person were trying to overtake you on his motor bike. You write and tell me at the end of a month's daily routine of these two exercises just what your tape measure has recorded in the way of hip loss.

New Velveteen Raincoats Ideal for Cool Days

BY RHEA SEEGER.

Here's good news for shoppers who are a bit weary of the thin, high colored rainy day outfits. Velveteen raincoats designed by that inspired genius, Schiaparelli, have made their appearance. They are made of a velveteen that has been treated by a process that makes every inch absolutely waterproof. It doesn't even spot—and that's something!

Besides the waterproofing trick, these velveteen garments look exactly like smart daytime coats, as designed by this same wizard of snap and perfection of streamline.

The coats are long, fit around the waistline neither too snugly nor too loosely. The backline is a honey, a double panel effect to the waistline and an inverted plait to the hemline. The collar is perfect. It stands up or takes an equally effective line when worn down.

There are four pockets, two vertical affairs on the chest rather high and two patched on, unusual in shape on each hip. A double row of buttons holds the coat warmly and smoothly. The colors are almost as exciting as the coat itself—black, King Edward red, green, and a stunning rust reddish brown.

These velveteen raincoats are the most exciting things in town, and what a double life they will lead. They're ideal for the first fall days and football games. One of each color is on display. You order your size and color and the wait of a week is well worth the delay.

Novotney	Robert O'Connor

BY CHARLES COLLINS.

"Blossom Time," which has come to the Grand Opera house for its eighth Chicago engagement, is ripe for ranking among the classics of operetta. It stands the test of time; it gives fresh pleasure whenever it is revived. The smarties who deride it because it is merely an old show to them are not as sophisticated as they believe. They are refusing to keep up with the procession which is carrying this work of lyric charm toward a niche in the theatrical hall of fame.

After all, "Blossom Time" really was born a classic in the musical field, for the melodic inspiration of Frank Schubert, its hero and also its true composer, may be found in almost every number of the score. These immortal songs are always honey to the ear and refreshment to the soul; the age of the jaz and the deluge of music from the radio has never put them out of fashion.

This production of "Blossom Time," which will start on a cross-country tour after its two weeks in Chicago, is as good as any of recent years. It contains J. Charles Gilbert, whose treatment of the rôle of Schubert is the best in the operetta's American history—fine of voice, sound and sincere of acting. Its Baron von Schober, who makes the plot because his name sounds much like Schubert, is admirably sung and gracefully characterized by George Trabert, a player of many achievements on the light lyric stage. He is the best of the several Schobers whom I remember.

Mitzi, Schubert's lost sweetheart who gives the story a bittersweet ending, provides a début for Diana Gaylen, a plump, blonde singing ingénue with more temperament than her predecessors. She is an accomplished prima donna with excellent diction. You have heard Miss Gaylen many times, although you probably never saw her before. She has been using her fine voice as first-aid to motion picture stars who couldn't sing. She has supplied the music while Greta Garbo, Sally O'Neill, Claire Windsor, Laura La Plante, and Norma Talmadge merely stood in front of the camera and moved their lips, and has also served in the production of the Silly Symphonies. Hollywood press agents have often called her "the phantom nightingale."

The comic duties of Kranz, paterfamilias of this Viennese tale, have been assigned to a newcomer named Douglas Leavitt, who gives definite reality to the rôle. He gets all the laughs but is not merely a fantastic clown. Count Sharntoff is well acted by Henry Rabke; Manila Powers is still the flagrant Bellabruna; and Robert O'Connor puts brisk comedy into the eccentric rôle of the detective.

My favorite song in "Blossom Time" is "Tell Me, Daisy," which comes out of the second movement of Schubert's "Unfinished Symphony."

"Pride and Prejudice," dramatization of Jane Austen's novel, will come to the Harris theater on Oct. 12 as the second play in the American Theater society's subscription season. This play, staged by Max Gordon, had a long run in New York last season, and is now in the eighth month of a London run. Muriel Kirkland will lead a cast of 30 players.

"Black Jack" Logan—Town Talk.

THE grandson of an Illinois senator and patriot passed through Chicago the other day and he had with him in his car a pair of dueling pistols presented by his grandfather's constituents when he went to congress in 1858, and the sword he used at the battle of Atlanta. He was Jack Logan, grandson of Gen. John A. Logan—"Black Jack" to members of the 15th corps who fought under him in the civil war.

Mr. Logan, soldier and explorer, who was himself a major at 27 in the world war, inherits the black eyes, black mustache, and raven hair of "Black Jack" Logan, as well as his dueling pistols, the sword, some Lincolnania and innumerable civil war souvenirs. Also inherited are some busts of his grandfather Mr. Logan was hopeful of having the Chicago Historical society take off his hands. The dueling pistols and sword he was taking on with him to Tucson, where he now lives, for his private museum there.

WHEN Jack Logan was 12 he went on a fishing trip into Tennessee. There he encountered a rangy old mountaineer who inquired his name, and, when it was told him, inquired if he were any relation of "Black Jack" Logan.

"He was my grandfather," answered the lad. "Did you know him?"

"Saw him when we was a a fightin' in Tennessee, and he was commanding the army of Tennessee," answered the confederate veteran. "Black eyes a shinin' and a yellin' at his men. It was just after we got McPherson." Then he added wryly, "We all took a crack at 'im."

* *

THE dueling pistols had been used, probably, on a historic occasion when Senator Logan, who practiced law at Benton, Ill., made a speech for the Union at the beginning of the civil war. He was dared to come across the Big Muddy and make the same speech. He sent word he would be there, and arrived on the stage from a back door the night of the meeting, a pistol in each hand. He made his speech, holding both guns leveled at the audience while he talked; then escaped out the same back door.

Garritys are back from Honolulu and Hollywood—and were pretty busy being entertained by the movie colony, including Mary Pickford, at Pickfair. . . . Variety says there is a strong movement around town to tag the circle just north of Michigan bridge on the avenue Radio Center, due to the proximity of W-G-N, Columbia, Mutual, WBBM, Music Corporation of America, and various agencies. . . . E. Stories about her last visit to Chicago are still being told. . . . Roy Handcuff is running for sherif in a little town near Pittsburgh, Pa. . . . And Frank Ketcham is an undertaker at Halsted and 55th.

N. U. Enrollment Shows Gain in First Two Days

An enrollment of 4,315 full time students in two days was reported yesterday by Northwestern university. This is an increase of 12 per cent over the 3,852 who enrolled during the first two day period last year. The graduate school led the increases with a 34 per cent rise. Up to yesterday, 909 freshmen had enrolled, twenty-four more than for the comparable time last year. Approximately 39 per cent are from other cities.

Cardinal Mundelein Keeps 27th Anniversary as a Catholic Bishop

Cardinal Mundelein observed his twenty-seventh anniversary as a Catholic bishop yesterday at Holy Name cathedral when solemn high mass was offered in his honor. Faculties and students from Quigley Preparatory seminary and St. Mary of the Lake seminary, Mundelein, in accordance with their annual custom of observing the cardinal's anniversaries, attended the service.

The Chicago cardinal-archbishop was appointed to succeed the late Archbishop James Edward Quigley in 1915 after serving as auxiliary bishop of Brooklyn since 1909. In 1924 the Chicago prelate was created cardinal. Accompanying monsignori to Cardinal Mundelein at yesterday's service were the Rt. Rev. James J. Horsburgh, diocesan director of the propagation of the faith, and the Very Rev. Joseph P. Morrison, rector of Holy Name cathedral.

Young People Start Exodus for Colleges

Chicago Academies Open; Farewell Teas Given.

BY JUDITH CASS.

NOTHING but the starting of school could persuade the summer colonists at Lake Geneva to desert the lake at this beautiful time of the year, but all the Chicagoland private schools are starting now, and the youngsters who have had a carefree and pleasant vacation are all back at home ready to resume their studies. The Lake Geneva Country club is having its harvest home dinner next Saturday night and it will be the last social event of the season, although the clubhouse will not be closed until Nov. 1.

The Philip Wrigleys of 1500 Lake Shore drive are among those who have brought their children back to the city, but they are keeping the house at the lake open until later in the season and they plan to spend week-ends there as long as the weather is nice. The two cowboys whom they imported from Catalina Island this summer to ride with the children contributed a western atmosphere to Lake Geneva that was the envy of all the other youngsters who would have liked nothing better than to have been accompanied by two real cowboys in broad brimmed sombreros as they rode on the bridle paths and country roads around the lake.

Return to Town Is Well Under Way.

The Sangston Hettlers have returned to their Hawthorne place home after another summer in Miss Gleason's house at the lake, and the junior Albert J. Madleners and their children are back in their Lake Shore drive apartment after having spent much of the summer with the senior Madleners at the lake. The Earle J. Zimmermans have moved back to their Commonwealth avenue residence and Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Ford have vacated the C. H. Morgan house at Lake Geneva, which they had for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Ford are in California, but will return to Chicago about Oct. 1. Mr. Ford's daughter, Miss Joan Ford, who made her debut last winter, is going to stay at home this year and attend the Art institute instead of going back to Vassar. Charles Ford is returning to the Boys' Latin school, which opens today.

The Girls' Latin school opened yesterday and the Harris schools resume classes tomorrow. The Francis Parker school also opens tomorrow. The children who are receiving their pre-college educations at the North Shore Country Day school in Winnetka were at their desks yesterday morning and the pupils of the Lake Forest Day school also returned to their studies yesterday. The children who attend the Bell school in Lake Forest unpacked their books in time to start back to school last Wednesday, the same day that the youngsters who go to the Geneva Country Day school started back to work.

Noted Old Academy Opens for 79th Year.

The Lake Forest academy will open for its 79th year and the 24th of Headmaster John Wayne Richards' régime this morning. Some of the students are following in the footsteps of their grandfathers when they attend classes at this old school. Among these are Albert Farwell Mi-

New Art Shows About Town Give Much Promise

BY ELEANOR JEWETT.

Several promising little exhibitions are scattered about town. The first exhibit of the new season, to be sponsored by the All-Illinois Society of the Fine Arts, is a group of paintings by Mrs. J. Jensik Halverson, in their galleries at the Drake hotel. It is, unfortunately, a rather placid affair.

The paintings unroll with regularity and one finds never an exclamation point among the lot. It is as though one read through a page of commas. The All-Illinois has stood back of many more brilliant shows.

Another one-man exhibit by a woman painter is seen in the Tudor gallery, Chicago Woman's club, where Nan Rice has a room filled with portraits. The portraits, in the main, are of children and include three interesting likenesses of Mrs. Rice's daughter, Adele, at the ages of 9, 15, and 18 years. The various other portraits are of young people living anywhere from Ravinia to Beverly Hills. The owners have been generous with their loans. The portraits are recently painted in many cases and show Mrs. Rice at her ablest. It is an alert and vigorous show.

The first exhibit of the season out on in the Katharine Kuh gallery, Diana Court building, is of water colors by Annot Jacobi and monotypes by Julio de Diego. Mrs. Kuh has been giving a series of interesting talks on Van Gogh while that exhibition continued at the Art institute. It closes tomorrow. Her own gallery show is amusing.

Max Herzog offers a comprehensive exhibit of paintings at the Palette and Chisel Academy of Fine Arts, 1012 North Dearborn street, to Sept. 30. One of the most intriguing of these is his portrait of Mrs. Herzog. "Daisy" is effective in a dashing manner. The "Garden" is the richest and most beautiful painting in the show. "Morning" deals with brilliant flowers, and "Lincoln Avenue" is an excellent account of repair work going on with the street car lines. The two studies of monks, "St. Franciscan Father," are well done.

WASHINGTON SOCIETY

Washington, D. C., Sept. 21.—[Special.]—The new Polish ambassador and Countess Potocki arrived this afternoon at the embassy from their home in Poland. The ambassador was here in the spring and presented his credentials, then going home to spend the summer. The countess was not with him on the first visit.

Mrs. William Phillips, wife of the new United States ambassador to Italy, has closed their summer home at Beverly Farms and their home here and is now in New York to sail in a few days to join the ambassador and their daughter, Miss Beatrice Phillips, who sailed several weeks ago.

ADVERTISE IN THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE

The Black Automatic

By William Byron Mowery

SYNOPSIS.

After 13 years with the Canadian Mounted, Inspector Noel Irving, at 33, finds himself without relative, friend, or career. Noel, in his Winnipeg apartment, receives a midnight call from an engaging young stranger.

INSTALMENT II.

ONE NIGHT OF SAFETY.

With sharp observant eyes Inspector Irving studied the young stranger, as the latter lit a cigaret. Whoever the man was and whatever had brought him here, he was emphatically no city person. Yet none of the ordinary outdoor types—prospector, timber cruiser, whatnot—seemed to fit him or seemed big enough to hold him. In the full flush of youth and self-confidence, he gave impression of being some footloose adventurer looking for worlds to conquer.

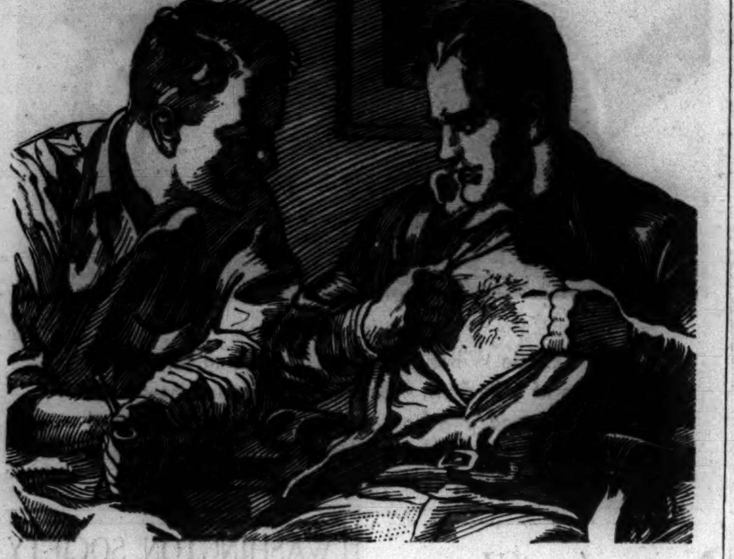
"Since you know my name," Noel remarked, sitting down on the couch, "I'm tempted to remind you of the quaint old custom known as introducing oneself."

The young stranger laughed. "Call me 'Jimmy,'" he said. "That much is correct, and it'll do as a handle for the present."

Noel eyed his visitor thoughtfully. "A cagey young devil," he decided. "Before telling me his name or business, he intends to sound me out. In the name of heaven who is he?"

Though he seldom made snap judgments, he instinctively liked this hard-bitten enigma who had come to him out of the moonlight and mist of a Winnipeg night. The youngster's buoyant cheerfulness was as invigorating as a breath of pine-spiked air. With his rare smile and warm good will he barged his way into a person's friendship like a young bull moose through a thicket of buckbrush.

Jimmy picked up the open book on the desk, glanced at it, whistled. "Latin! The Georgics! Jee-rusalem, partner, d'you actually read that stuff for pleasure? I once got as far as 'Arma virumque cano,' but there I said: 'To hell with it! Too many girls and airplanes and good times in the world to monkey around with ablative absolutes'——"



"I got that for failing to barricade my cabin door one night."

Noel interrupted him. Sixty seconds of reading Jimmy's actions and manner had given him a rough idea of his guest's trouble; and he was uneasy.

"Jimmy," he asked quietly, with no intention of displaying professional wizardry, "are you sure that those men didn't trail you here to my apartment?"

The unexpected question dumfounded Jimmy. "Hell's b-bells!" he gasped. His cigaret dropped from his fingers, and he stared wide-eyed at Noel, as though at a clairvoyant. "How did you know anything—uh—I mean, uh——" He broke off, got hold of himself again, and picked up his cigaret. "What men? What're you talking about?"

Noel smiled. "No use, Jimmy. You're carrying a piece of hardware in your pocket; when you crossed the boulevard out there, a few minutes ago, you looked back twice; when that car went past just now, you listened with both ears to make sure that it didn't slow up or stop; and——"

"Don't!" Jimmy burst out, dropping his useless denial. "Don't go on. You know! And quit looking at me like that. You make me feel like an insect on a pin. Lord, I didn't realize, myself, that I did those things, and here you see 'em and see what's behind 'em and tell me all about it!"

"That sort of observation has been my work for years. I ought to be fairly competent at it."

"Competent?" Jimmy snorted. "Artistic, fellow! Downright artistic. No wonder they brought you all the way back from Shanghai, when the federal men and the rest of the Mounted couldn't bag Frank Rocco. And no wonder it didn't take you long to have him hanging out on the line to dry!"

"Better answer my question about those men, Jimmy—are you in danger?"

"Then why are you all on edge?"

"Just jittery. Been playing tag with those mothers' sons long enough to jitter anybody's nerve. But I shook 'em, a while ago. Down town. They'll cold-trail me, all righto, and I'd better be scarce tomorrow, but tonight——" He leaned back comfortably and blew a lazy smoke ring ceilingward. "Say, it feels funny—and mighty good, Irving—to breathe a safe breath for once."

Noel merely nodded. Quite evidently these "mothers' sons" were trying to kill Jimmy. They must have been hounding him for days or even weeks, playing this grim game in which "it" meant death for the lone-handed youngster.

"A city gang, Jimmy?" he asked, rather certain that they were not.

Jimmy laughed scornfully. "I wish they were! I could handle a fieldful of alley rats. But this outfit, they're men. They're brainy and tough, and they hang onto a fellow's trail like a pack of March wolves."

"An outfit, you say? How many men?"

"I don't know. Half a dozen anyhow. Likely more. I can't say exactly. They're so—so—damned ghostlike. You can't see 'em, can't fight 'em; you just know they're there and they've got you on the spot."

"Ghostlike? Isn't that a bit imaginative?"

Somewhat indignantly Jimmy pulled open his jacket and shirt and disclosed a long ugly knife-scar, just above his heart. "D'you call that imagination? I got that for failing to barricade my cabin door one night."

"Hmmph! I stand corrected."

Jimmy buttoned his shirt, tapped the ashes from his cigaret and looked again at Noel. "It's none of my business, Irving, but are you planning to go back with the Mounted? I've been thinking you might, as soon as this Rocco dust has settled a bit."

It was an outright honest question, and Noel answered it frankly. "No. As one newspaper put it, my usefulness in the Mounted is ended. And I wouldn't go back if I could. I'm done."

"Don't blame you," Jimmy grunted. "If I'd given thirteen years to the public and then the public turned around and gave me a kick in the pants, I'd have a bellyful too. The idiots!—making a Robin Hood out of a bloody handed killer like Rocco." An anger blew across Jimmy's face, and he clenched his big fists as though wanting to go out and give the general public a licking.

"The fault was partly mine," Noel stated, grateful to this friendly young stranger who was championing him so sincerely. "I should have taken Rocco alive, Jimmy. In an open trial the federals and we Mounted could have stripped all the glory clothes from Rocco and showed him up as just a sordid dollar-snatcher. But when I dynamited him in that cabin I made a hero of him—and a coward of myself."

He leaned forward, opened a desk drawer and tossed Jimmy a newspaper clipping. "Read that. It's typical of the stories on the morning of the break."

Jimmy turned the clipping to the light and scanned it aloud.

> Rocco is dead. The spectacular desperado who flashed like a meteor across the world of crime is dead today. At 9 o'clock last night at a little lake between Winnipeg and the border the notorious criminal and gang leader who defied the police of two nations and had more than a dozen gangs shot out from under him, but always escaped himself, was trapped in a lonely cabin rendezvous, along with three of his lieutenants and two women of the underworld, by Inspector Noel Irving and a Mounted detail; and his career replete with hairbreadth escapes ended in death. Not in a gallant death, shooting it out with his enemies, as Frank Rocco would have chosen, but in sudden and violent oblivion—blown to eternity by a bomb barrage, without being given a chance to cut his way out with blazing guns. . . .

With a gesture of contempt Jimmy threw the clipping aside and brushed his fingers. "I see. When you dynamited him, you gave the romancers their chance."

Child's Fears Vary with Age, Temperament

BY GLADYS HUNTINGTON BEVANS

We were talking yesterday about children's fears, and how carefully and sympathetically we must deal with them, never using ridicule. We can't hope to keep our children from ever having any fears, though we fervently wish we could, because any one of any age who has been in the grip of fear knows what hampering, even paralyzing thing it may be.

But if we can't prevent them, can't we hope to banish all the fears of our children when they do get them, as the sun banishes the mist? No, we can't even do that. Children are complex little creatures, and in some cases where parents are baffled by a persistent fear, time and growing up are the only forces that will do the trick.

But we can, with imagination, prevent or dispel enough of their fears so that our children will grow into normal and happy young men and women.

Children's fears vary not only with their temperaments and their experiences, as we were saying yesterday, but with their ages. What terrifies a child at one age, may amuse him at another. But that fact does not make his fear any the less real at the moment.

The little child may be afraid of a dog, or thrown almost into hysterics by a grimace, or at the sight of a "false face."

Young children develop fear of a perfectly harmless piece of furniture or ornament. The child a little older fears the dark, or he fears being alone. Some children get panicky when their mother goes out. They seem to fear that she will never come back. Still older boys and girls fear failure—school failure, usually—but also social failure.

So, depending upon how they have been treated, upon their temperaments, and their ages, children experience many kinds of fears.

Generally speaking the surest safeguard against fears is the existence of a warm, friendly feeling between a child and his parents. With this in the background, and keenness of observation, tact, and imagination in the foreground, most children either do not have fears of any consequence, or quickly are released from the thrall of those that do grip them.

"How to Gain Obedience without Punishment" is the name of a fully written booklet which will be sent on receipt of a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request.

Mrs. Bevans' column also appears in the Sunday Tribune.

GUARANTEED RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION

Common constipation is usually due to meals low in "bulk." Pills and drugs give only temporary relief. The sensible thing to do is to put "bulk" back into your meals.

Millions of people get this needed "bulk" in a delicious cereal: Kellogg's ALL-BRAN. Its "bulk" is much like that in leafy vegetables. Within the body, it absorbs moisture, forms a soft mass, gently cleanses the system.

Some years ago an investigation was made among thousands of ALL-BRAN users. 98 per cent found it satisfactory. Only 2 per cent had the type of constipation that would not respond to ALL-BRAN.

ALL-BRAN is guaranteed. Try it a week. If not satisfactory, your money will be refunded by the Kellogg Company.

World's Wonder.

Patterns of this design are 5 cents, stamps or coin. Address Nancy Cabot, Chicago Tribune, or call at one of the Tribune Public Service offices: 1 South Dearborn street or Tribune Tower.

BY NANCY CABOT.

"World's Wonder" is a crib quilt made of blue and white. Close observation will reveal the patches as identical with "Solomon's Puzzle," but the color and arrangement of the pieces has created a design which might be appropriately termed "World's Wonder." The completed square for the crib quilt measures 12 inches, and 12 pieced blocks are required for an entire coverlet. A half inch binding serves as a border.

Young People Start Exodus for Colleges

let, son of Mrs. Paul Moyer of Lake Forest and grandson of the late Francis C. Farwell. Frank Farwell Ferry Jr. of Winnetka, grandson of the first John V. Farwell, is at the academy again this year, and so is Charles H. Wacker III., son of the Frederick H. Wackers and grandson of the late Charles H. Wacker.

College boys and girls also scarcely have arrived at home from their vacations before they are off again to school. Among the first to leave were the freshmen who went east last week to enter Vassar. Twenty-five girls were in the group, the largest ever to enter the college from Chicago

Two debutantes, Miss Celia Coit and Miss Kathrine McNulty, are among the first year students at Vassar, and there are several subdebs, including Miss Nancy Blaine, the Clark J. Lawrences' daughter, and Miss Mary Paul Welling, who is following in the footsteps of her elder sister, Miss Harriet, who is a junior.

Miss Katherine Barkhausen is another of the freshmen who is following the example of her elder sister, Mrs. Andre James Perry, the former Helen Barkhausen, in going to Vassar. Miss Evelyn Gordon, daughter of the Frank M. Gordons, and several north shore girls also are in the group, among them Miss Elizabeth Burlingham, Miss Virginia Creigh, Miss Marian Halls, Miss Nancy Leigh, and Miss Nancy Wolcott of Winnetka, and Miss Barbara Austin and Miss Mary Lee Neeves of Glencoe.

Miss Mary Warner is the only debutante entering Smith as a freshman, but two others, Miss Mary Lyon and Miss Julia Smith, will be sophomores.

Among others entering Smith are Miss Martha Brainerd, Miss Ann Goddard, and Miss Victoria Schrager, four Winnetka girls; Miss Katherine Adams, Miss Marjorie Hamilton, Miss Elizabeth Johnson, and Miss Ann Winscott; Miss Margaret Webbe and Miss Beatrice Harding of Hubbard Woods, Miss Dorothy MacArthur of Oak Park, and Miss Emily Harmon of Highland Park.

In the large contingent entering Yale this week will be I. Newton Perry Jr., Ellis Ballard, Leslie Wheeler Jr., Bowen Blair, Arthur Burrows Jr., and Brooks McCormick. The last three have older brothers, Edward Blair, Walter Cummings Jr., and Deering McCormick, who are undergraduates at New Haven.

William McCormick Blair Jr., who studied last year at the University of Hawaii, has gone west to study at the University of Southern California this winter.

Miss Ethel Fisher also went west to enter Scripps college in southern California, just a few days after she returned from her summer in France. Her elder brother, Walter, who also spent the summer in Europe, is among the students returning to Harvard.

Off to Cambridge for First Year Studies.

Going to Cambridge for their first year are William Daughaday of Winnetka and his cousin, Hamilton Daughaday. The former received a Harvard prize fellowship and the latter the Harvard club of Chicago scholarship. Philip Comfort Starr, Nicholas Blatchford, William Fetcher, and Edward Prince are other north shore young men entering Harvard, and so is Edmund J. Doering II, who escaped from a motor accident last week with just a slight limp.

Miss Nancy Freund, Miss Marian Farwell, and Miss Barbara Frey are debutantes who are returning today to Sarah Lawrence college. So is Miss Adele Proxmire, a debutante of last season, whose brother, William, already has returned to New Haven for football practice. Two other debutantes, Miss Caroline Montgomery and Miss Mary Randall, will be at Wellesley.

Miss Joan Revell this year is joining the group which attends Dobbs Ferry. Miss Emmy Lou Freund, Miss Sally Perry, Miss Mardo Pattou, and Miss Jane Zimmerman are returning this week to the Masters school there.

Miss Grace Shumway, the Edward D. Shumways' daughter, who recently returned from a summer in England and Scotland, is going east to St. Timothy's the end of the month. Also studying at the Maryland school will be Miss Mary Ryerson, Miss Mary Gardner, and Miss Margaret Hutchins.

Young Men Start to School in East.

Edward Cummings, youngest of the three sons of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cummings, went east last week to enter Hotchkiss. Clifford Leonard also is a student there. Joseph Ballard is entering Choate, and George Foster, Harry Wheeler, and Philip D. Armour Jr. are returning to St. Mark's. Edward L. Ryerson III. and George Burrows are going back to the Hill school, Edward's cousin, Anthony Ryerson, is returning to the Brooks school for another year, and Roper McCormick, youngest of the Chauncey McCormicks' sons, is going back to Groton.

Miss Natalie Bell, youngest of the Laird Bells' four daughters, is entering Milton academy this week. Her sister, Miss Margaret Bell, will begin her sophomore year at Bryn Mawr, where Miss Elizabeth Ballard also is a student.

Women Golfers Will Rule at Onwentsia Today.

Shopping for her own or her children's fall clothes is not on any feminine Lake Forest golfer's program for today, that is if she golfs at the Onwentsia, for that club is having its annual women's powwow and no one wants to miss it. The players will take their golf seriously this morning, but after luncheon they will indulge in all sorts of monkey-shines including left handed driving and obstacle approaching and putting.

Last year there were 75 players and it is expected that there will be that many, and perhaps more, today. Mrs. Charles Dennehy is women's golf chairman at the club and also one of the best players, having achieved many honors in golfing tournaments when she was Miss Virginia Wilson.

Mrs. Franklin G. Clement is women's tennis champion of the Onwentsia, having defeated Miss Sarah Hinde in the finals the other day.

"Bring a Mad Hat, bring a Top Hat, bring a Gay Hat, and come to the Mad Hatters' Party!" read the invitations soon to be sent out by the junior board of the Chicago Home for Convalescent Women and Children to a dinner-dance Oct. 17 at the Congress hotel. And the board is serious when it says "Bring a hat," for Mrs. Edwin S. Ford and Mrs. Philip Grassell, co-chairmen, have promised prizes for the oldest and most comical headgear displayed at the dance.

"Do you think the women guests actually will wear peculiar hats with their evening clothes?" asked a reporter doubtfully as she had luncheon with several board members at the Key club yesterday.

"That depends on whether there will be any cocktail parties beforehand," said another, wisely.

"O, there will be lots of parties," Mrs. Alan T. Lockard, president, assured them.

Evidently members of the board of the Junior Edgewater center of Infant Welfare are not the least bit superstitious, for they have made arrangements to give a dinner-dance on the night of Friday, Nov. 13, at the Mayfair room in the Blackstone hotel. Mrs. Norton V. Smith Jr. is chairman. Assisting her are Mrs. Carl Wittbold, Mrs. George Bockwinkel, Miss Elnora Harkness, Mrs. Andrew Sandegren, Mrs. Paul Curtis, and Mrs. D. Hayes McLaughlin, president of the group.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Victor Young and their daughter, Miss Mary Young, have gone to the HF Bar ranch near Sheridan, Wyo., for the month. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Ferguson of Winnetka also are at the ranch where they will stay until Oct. 1.

Mrs. James H. Channon has returned to her East Chestnut street apartment from her summer home near Grand Haven, Mich.

Mr. and Mrs. Orville Thompson are leaving today by motor for California where they will spend the winter. They have given up their apartment in the Drake Towers, so perhaps like many people who travel to California for a few months they will make their home there.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Norman Brown are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter, Nancy, Sept. 9, at the Presbyterian hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. George M. Michael of Geneva announce the engagement of their only daughter, Marian Elizabeth, to Dr. Ralph M. Stuck of Jonesboro, Ark., son of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Stuck of Jonesboro. Miss Michael, who is called Betty by her family and friends, is a graduate of the University of Chicago, and her fiancé, who spent the last week-end in Geneva, is a graduate of the Washington university medical school in St. Louis, Mo. No date for the wedding has been set.

Miss Ellen Louise Dick, one of the winners in THE TRIBUNE's Century of Progress beauty queen contest, will be married to Arthur Van Brocklin Hitchcock, son of Mrs. Charles A. Hitchcock of La Grange, Ill., on Oct. 10 in the Presbyterian church of Watseka, Ill.

A reception will follow at the home of Miss Dick's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Dick of Watseka. After a wedding trip to Canada and the east Mr. Hitchcock and his bride will live in Toledo, O., where Mr. Hitchcock is in business.

Acorn Squash Is Tasty with Sausage Patty

BY MARY MEADE.

Sign of fall—green acorn squashes in grocery windows. Side by side they sit with some of their lingering summer cousins, waiting for some eager housewife to snatch them home and bake them with sausage.

They're good enough baked without the sausage, simply split in two, seeded, brushed with butter, sprinkled with salt, and baked in a moderate oven. But a sausage patty filling the cavity of each half will take care of the meat problem and also give to the squash a still better flavor.

A mushroom, crum, and tomato stuffing for acorn squash also is worthy of consideration. The amount of stuffing given will fill four medium sized squash halves.

Mushroom Stuffing for Acorn Squash.

2 acorn squashes
1 medium onion, minced
1 small can mushrooms, minced
6 tablespoons butter
1 cup bread crums
1 egg
Salt, pepper
Tomato juice

Brown the onion and mushrooms in the butter. Add the seasonings and crums. Beat the egg and add it, and add also enough tomato juice to moisten the stuffing well. Brush the squash cavities with butter, sprinkle with salt, and fill with the stuffing. Bake in a 350 degree oven until the squash is tender when pricked with a fork.

Winter squashes, as well as the summer ones, take to steaming as a method of preparation. Steamed and strained squash may be whipped up into peaks and seasoned with salt, pepper, and butter to make one of the finest of table vegetables. The larger Hubbard squash is better for this purpose than the acorn squash, which seldom is cooked in any other way than baking.

Squash pie is similar to pumpkin pie in taste, which is quite natural since the pumpkin is a squash. A rich and delicious fall dessert is this squash pie made with heavy cream instead of milk.

Squash Pie.

1 cup squash, steamed and strained
1 cup heavy cream
1 cup sugar
3 slightly beaten eggs
3 teaspoons pumpkin pie spice, or
1 teaspoon nutmeg
1 teaspoon cinnamon
½ teaspoon cloves
½ teaspoon ginger
¾ teaspoon salt

Mix all ingredients together and pour into a pie shell, the bottom of which has been brushed with egg white. Bake in a moderate oven [350 degrees] until filling is firm. If desired, the crust may be pricked and pre-baked for five minutes in a hot oven before the filling is added. This is an added precaution to keep the filling from soaking into the crust.

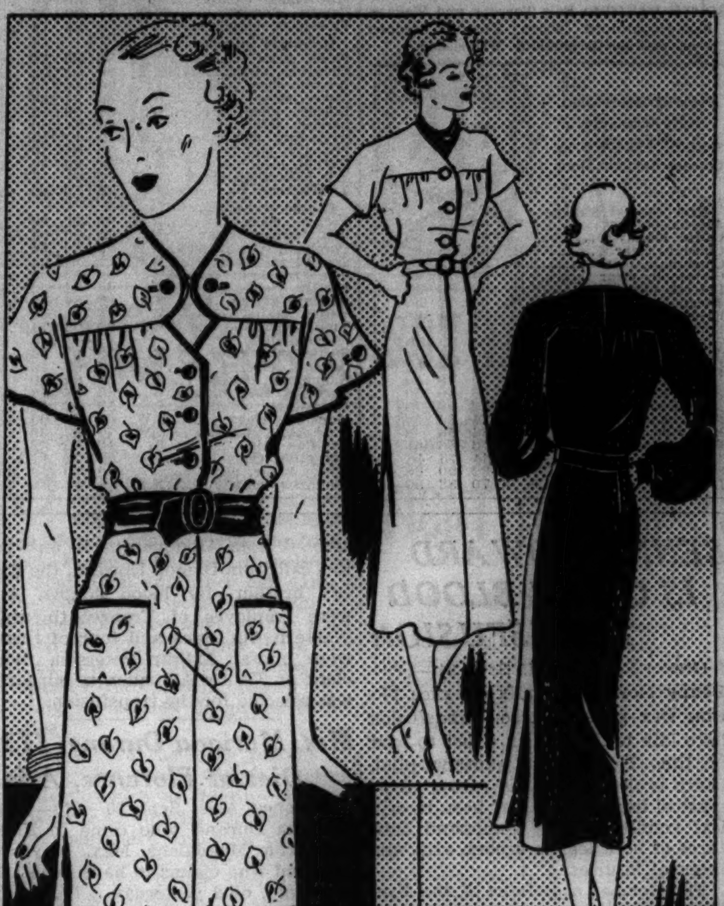
Tailored Perfection in Line



WOMAN'S AND MISS' DRESS.

Tailored perfection is apparent in every line of this practical frock for college, business, and club life. Its simple styling makes it appropriate for a wide variety of fabrics, from rich silks to soft woolens.

The neckline is plain, but its simplicity may be in either of two versions. You may have the shoulderline bound and enhanced with two pert buttons to match those on the waist, or you may have the neckline plain, playing foil for a variety of attractive scarfs.

The bodice of this trim little frock is shirred into the shoulder yoke. The sleeves are cut in one with the yoke, thus eliminating the trouble of armholes. The waist is neatly fitted, and the skirt is paneled in a manner to give a modified flare at the hemline.

The original of this model is pretty in black jacquard crêpe with lustrous satin trim. Rough crêpe, satin back crêpe, rayon novelty fabrics, and soft woolens are other popular and suitable mediums. With woolen a variety of velveteen scarfs lends dash to the neckline.

Style No. 2509 is designed for sizes 16 and 18 years, and 36, 38, 40, 42, and 44 inches bust measurement. Size 36 requires 3⅜ yards of 35 inch material, with 3 yards of binding and ⅛ yard of 39 inch contrasting.

Rare Objects Are Exhibited at Hobby Show

Leopold Metzenberg yesterday addressed a meeting of hobby followers, formally opening a Chicagoland collectors' exhibit on the ninth floor of Mandel Brothers. After speaking of his group of 350 watches, said to be one of the finest collections in the world, and of his sideline collection of bronze medals and etchings, Mr. Metzenberg said, "I wish I hadn't done it; they're too great a responsibility."

Other exhibits include Miss Elizabeth Robertson's collection of hand made quilts; 50 letters penned by historical personages owned by Howard Tracy, insurance executive; a collection of bows and arrows, owned by Dr. A. H. Andrews Sr.; Philippine weapons once owned by Admiral Dewey, now by Dr. Clarence W. Hennan; 20 bells from all parts of the world, owned by D. H. Hammer, and a collection of carved ivories, owned by Adolph Kroch. The show will continue through Oct. 15.

BEG YOUR PARDON

In the weddings column of the society section last Sunday the names of Miss Helen Kaplan of Hammond and Reuben Robert Shlensky of Chicago Heights appeared. This announcement should have appeared in the engagements column. The wedding has been set for a future date.

YESTERDAY'S PUZZLE SOLVED

Finally Complete Round Trip to Europe.

New York, Sept. 21.—[Special.]—Dick Merrill, airplane pilot, and Harry Richman, night club crooner, ended their round trip flight to England and return at Floyd Bennett field this afternoon at 2:18 o'clock, 19 days after their takeoff.

A few minutes later Richman, aided by his brother Lou, attacked a reporter for a morning newspaper which had published a story concerning a quarrel between Merrill and Richman.

The reporter, Thomas Cassidy, was knocked to the floor by the shouting, cursing Richman. He was saved from injury by Police Inspector Edward M. Shelvey and several other persons.

Wrote of Dumped Gasoline.

Cassidy was one of the newspaper men who went to Musgrave Harbor, N. F., after Richman's plane had been forced down in a bog there by shortage of fuel. His newspaper carried a story in which Merrill was quoted as saying that the Lady Peace could have completed the trip from England to New York if "the master mind hadn't dumped into the ocean" some 500 gallons of gasoline.

The rest of the interview was a rather strained affair, with both Richman and Merrill refusing to talk about the gasoline dumping incident, or to give their reasons for landing in Musgrave Harbor.

Merrill, pressed for some comment on the flight, said that he was "not at liberty to give any statement to the press without Richman's permission."

Richman flatly refused to answer questions about the reason for the forced landing in Newfoundland, but promised to "tell the whole story when the time comes."

"And," he added, "it will be over my own signature. I have sold it."

Came from Harbor Grace.

The Lady Peace left Floyd Bennett field at 3:37 p. m., Sept. 2, and 17 hours 53 minutes later landed at Ilwyncelyn, Wales, about 175 miles from Croyden airport, which was its British goal.

On Sunday, Sept. 13, at 9:03 p. m., New York time, Richman and Merrill hopped from the beach at Southport, England, and headed back toward New York. Fifteen hours and seventeen minutes later they were forced by shortage of gasoline to bring their ship down in a bog near Musgrave Harbor. The craft was damaged in the landing.

New York, Sept. 21.—[Special.]—Randolph Churchill, son of Winston Churchill, British statesman, arrived on the liner Queen Mary today, received reporters at the Waldorf-Astoria hotel, and announced that he hoped to leave America with his sister, Sarah, in four or five days. His sister also is staying at the Waldorf-Astoria, he said. She arrived yesterday aboard the Bremen.

Mr. Churchill, who came to the United States expressly to discuss with his sister her reported engagement to marry Vic Oliver, stage comedian, was met by her at the pier. The brother and sister greeted each other affectionately. At that time he avoided reporters and locked himself in his cabin.

A good looking young man, with blond hair and blue eyes, Mr. Churchill looks scarcely older than his sister, who is 22 and very attractive. He will try to persuade her to return home with him.

DOOMED KILLER'S SISTER IS FREED OF SUBORNATION

CRIMINAL COURT.

Arthur Smith, manslaughter, sentenced to 1 to 14 years in the penitentiary by Judge Robert C. O'Connell.

Miss Martha Rappaport, 30 years old, 3430 Douglas boulevard, brother of Joseph Rappaport who is under sentence of death, was acquitted by a jury last night in Judge Robert C. O'Connell's Criminal court on a charge of subornation of perjury. She was charged with securing perjured testimony in an effort to save her brother from conviction. Rappaport is sentenced to die in the electric chair on Oct. 23 for the murder of Max Dent, a government informer, who was shot and killed Oct. 8, 1935. Dent was to have been a witness against Rappaport on a dope peddling charge.

BENNY HOWARD IS GIVEN BLOOD TRANSFUSION

Crown Point, N. M., Sept. 21.—(AP)—Benny Howard, Bendix air race victim, was given a blood transfusion here late tonight in an effort to save his life. The Chicago transport pilot, badly broken when his racing plane crashed here Sept. 4, has been in critical condition with compound fractures of both legs, a broken arm, and internal injuries.

Five former associates of the flyer arrived from Albuquerque in answer to a call from Damon Howard, the flyer's brother, for blood donors. All were employés of Transcontinental Western Air Lines and four of them were pilots. Arthur Peterson, field clerk at TWA's Albuquerque airport, was selected for the transfusion.

N. Y. POLICEMAN HELD AS SLAYER OF CAFE OWNER

2 Wounded in Greenwich Village Fracas.

New York, Sept. 21.—(AP)—A mounted patrolman lay wounded in a hospital tonight charged with homicide, the aftermath of an early morning gun duel in the heart of Greenwich Village's "hot spot" area.

The wounded policeman is John B. Buckley, charged with killing Harold Sullivan, 42, owner of a night club near the scene of the gunplay outside a bar.

Patrolman Suspended.

Police said Buckley was shot by another patrolman, Richard Mahar, 33, who was booked on a charge of felonious assault. James Bell, another patrolman said to have participated in the fracas, was suspended.

An additional charge of felonious assault will be placed against Buckley, officials said, for wounding another member of the party, Peter Dunn, 22.

Encounter Described.

Sullivan, Mahar, Dunn, and a man known only as "Chopsey" were said to have left the bar in front of which the shooting occured at 4:30 a. m., and were accosted by Buckley, Bell, and an unidentified man, the latter group asking Sullivan where they could find a drink.

In the ensuing conversation a fist fight between "Chopsey" and Bell developed, it was reported, and the fighting became general. Buckley was said to have shot Sullivan and Dunn, the latter receiving a bullet in his right leg. Then Mahar allegedly shot Buckley.

Farmer Dies of Injuries from an Attack by Bull

Injuries suffered when he was attacked by a bull caused the death of George H. Hapke, 51 years old, McHenry county farmer, in St. Joseph's hospital, Elgin, yesterday. Hapke, tenant on a farm in Nunda township, was leading the bull out of the barn Sunday when the animal turned suddenly and crushed him against a concrete wall.

DOROTHY PARKER WILL MAKE HOLLYWOOD PAY FOR FARM THAT DIDN'T

Hollywood, Cal., Sept. 21.—[Special.]—Dorothy Parker, writer, and her husband, Alan Campbell, returned to Hollywood today. Six months ago they had deserted the movie colony to live on a Bucks county Pennsylvania farm and make it pay.

"It was too much work," said Miss Parker. She said they eventually plan retiring to the homestead, "but only after we make enough in Hollywood to keep the farm going without work."

BIND WATCHMAN, BLOW SAFE, AND GET $7,500 LOOT

Three young burglars seized Alexander Dubovik, 45 years old, 1915 Washburne avenue, watchman of a building at 411 North Lincoln street, as he was making his rounds in the building early yesterday. The men bound Dubovik, then blew a safe on the second floor and took $500. Afterward they loaded automobile equipment valued at $7,000 into a truck of an automotive wholesale concern on the first floor, and escaped.

BOY STEPS ON NAIL, DIES.

John Fitch, 8 years old, of 1326 Winnemac avenue, died of a foot infection yesterday in St. Joseph's hospital. He stepped on a nail five weeks ago.

Gray GOES GAY!

GONE are the days when gray walked sedately into the wardrobe of the "elegant fifties"! Today it swings into the youth movement of fashion with all the gaiety and dash of the colorful fashions! Gray is highly important in its own right. Gray, highlighted with Edwardian red (that deep, regal new shade), or spruce green, is gray at its smartest and most sophisticated. The four gray costumes (just four of many selected by Carson's) are perfect foils for contrasting accessories. For you who like to lead instead of follow, we suggest, for example, the hat and gloves in Edwardian red, or the hat and bag in spruce green with any of these gray costumes. And, of course, gray with black is superlatively smart.

The coat with Persian Lamb collar and pockets is inspired by one which won an important place in the recent Paris openings. Correct with any sort of frock for almost any occasion. Misses' sizes 12 to 18. $85.

Better Coats, Fourth Floor.

The tunic suit is very much up-in-front in the fashion ranks this season. This one is a very youthful, smart version in gray with gray squirrel collar and pockets. Sizes 12-20. $69.75.

Suits, Fourth Floor.

French Shop, Fifth Floor.

Feathered perfection in casual spruce green velours. Also to be had in wine, black, gray, and brown. $10.

Trotteur Hats, 5th Floor.

Flowers, First Floor.

French Shop, Fifth Floor.

The coming coronation in England has brought new importance to gold and silver color accents, like the belt on this gray jersey frock. Also in black, green and rust. 12-20. $16.95.

Misses' Moderately Priced Frocks, Fourth Floor.

Flattering pleats at the neckline and full sleeves making your shoulders broad, your waist absurdly small. In a lovely soft gray crepe. 12 to 20. Also in black, blue grass, rust. $16.95.

Misses' Moderately Priced Frocks, Fourth Floor.

Top handle bags are top fashion for Fall. Especially if they have dressmaker details such as pleats. Beautifully finished—both styles in green, wine, black, and brown. Priced according to style, $3 and $5.

Handbags, First Floor

Hands are no longer just hands. They're color accents. Choose the service-weight suede gloves, tucked cuffs or the classic slip-on in spruce green or Edwardian red. Priced, $2.95 and $3.95 pair.

45,000 TO SEE LOUIS-ETTORE BATTLE TONIGHT

Expect Gate Will Reach $200,000.

Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 21.—[Special.]—With the promise of clear skies and pleasant weather, Philadelphia is prepared to celebrate its greatest boxing holiday in ten years when Joe Louis, Detroit's Brown Bomber, opposes Al Ettore, local Italian pride, in a fifteen round bout at the Municipal stadium tomorrow night.

The fight, Louis' second test since his meeting with Max Schmeling, who turned in the surprise of the decade by stopping the Brown Bomber last June, has caught on tremendously, and the promoters are highly confident that it will attract a crowd of more than 50,000 persons. Not since Jack Dempsey lost his title to Gene Tunney ten years ago almost to a day has there been so much interest in a fight here.

Advance Orders Reach $180,000.

Late today, according to Taylor and Gunnis, who are associated with Mike Jacobs of New York in the promotion of the fight, advance orders already had reached the sum of $180,000. This total is certainly to be augmented tomorrow when 20,000 unreserved seats at $2 each will be placed on sale.

Conservative estimates regarding the attendance point to a crowd of 45,000, with the receipts expected to reach the $200,000 mark. Louis will receive 30 per cent of the gate and Ettore will get 20 per cent, the largest purse he has ever received in his six year campaign.

Louis is a topheavy favorite to walk off with the honors over Ettore, who, like himself, is only 22 years old. The betting figures rate Louis 3 to 1 to win the fight, and 8 to 5 to stop the blond Italian, who has been stopped only once before.

Ettore to Weigh 191 Pounds.

Louis rounded into shape for the battle at Pompton Lakes, N. J., and expects to scale 200 pounds when he weighs in at noon tomorrow.

Ettore, who prepared at Clementon, N. J., plans to tip the beam at 191 pounds.

Ettore's selection as Louis' opponent in what is more or less regarded as the Brown Bomber's comeback campaign, came about as a natural elimination after Louis knocked out Jack Sharkey in New York last month—his first start after the Schmeling debacle. The cry went up that Louis was picking his shots. Sight was lost of the fact that three of the Bomber's knockout victims, Primo Carnera, Max Baer, and Sharkey, were once world champions.

Beats Haynes Three Times.

Louis' managers, Julian Black and John Roxborough, met this criticism by declaring that they were willing to allow Louis to fight any formidable heavyweight in the field. A recourse to records and general fan reaction brought the name of Ettore to the fore, and the Philadelphia warrior was selected to oppose the Bomber.

Ettore's greatest claim to fame is his list of performances against Leroy Haynes, the hard hitting colored heavyweight who twice stopped Carnera. Ettore met Haynes three times and each time won the decision.

PACKY M'FARLAND REPORTED NEAR DEATH AT HOME

Patrick Francis [Packy] McFarland, member of the Illinois boxing commission, was believed near death last night at his home in Joliet, Ill., where physicians were attempting to ascertain the cause of high fevers which have produced periodical attacks of coma.

McFarland, one of the greatest lightweight fighters in history, has been ill for the last two months. An attack of intestinal influenza in August is believed to have led to the strange illness, which specialists believe is a streptoccocic infection localized near the heart. McFarland has lost 30 pounds since foregoing his regular duties at the offices of the commission to take medical treatment.

Born on Nov. 1, 1888, in the famous Chicago stockyards district, McFarland began his pugilistic career on the south side while still in school. He fought the outstanding men in the game and gained many notable victories, but never acquired the championship although his achievements included triumphs over titleholders.

He retired from the ring on New Year's day in 1918 and moved to Joliet, where he invested his ring earnings, estimated at a quarter of a million dollars, in a paving contracting business, a brewery and a bank. He rose to the vice presidency of the bank.

FISCHER TO GET BIG WELCOME IN HOME TOWN

Cincinnati, O., Sept. 21.—(AP)—A big welcome awaits the return home on Wednesday of Johnny Fischer, the Cincinnati boy who Saturday won the United States amateur golf championship. Plans were in the making today for a parade and reception, a civic dinner, and on Oct. 10 a Fischer day celebration in which all country clubs of the city are to join.

Talking It Over

[Copyright: 1936: By The Chicago Tribune.]

AL ETTORE, who meets Joe Louis in Philadelphia tonight, is not so widely known as other recent opponents of the old Golden Gloves champion, but it will not be surprising if he provides stronger opposition than any of the headliners Louis has encountered with the exception of Max Schmeling. . . . Brooklyn observers proclaim Joe Stripp the most sly of the National league "contract players." . . . They say he always manages to be well rested for a peppery performance in the early weeks of the season when the team is being organized, stalls during the hot weeks of the campaign when the Dodgers always are in the doldrums, then gets back in the final weeks rested better than rival regulars for a drive to establish his next year's contract. . . . Johnny Lehman, 1936 Chicago district golf champion, is a heavyweight eater, but still weighs only 155 pounds. . . . Pew as the term for a box at a baseball park is getting a terrific daily play from New York sports reporters and copy readers. . . . Twelve boys from Chicago are on the Lawrence college squad which meets the Maroons on the Midway Saturday. . . . Advance rumors that newspapermen would be forced to impersonate butcher boys, ice men, waiters, and such in order to get into the clubhouse during the national amateur at the exclusive Garden City Golf club were unfounded. . . . Authors with proper credentials were given every courtesy in a week which is said to have set a new high for humane treatment of the press. . . .

Larry Danbom, the only full blooded Swede on the Notre Dame football squad, almost scored a field goal from the 55 yard line against a stiff wind in practice the other day. . . . It dropped a few inches short of the crossbar. . . . President William Harridge and his American league office staf will leave Saturday for the world series. . . . Catcher Shanty Hogan weighed 230 pounds when he was brought up from Albany by the Washington Senators a few weeks ago, about 38 more than when he broke into the majors in 1925. . . . Harry Wright, 225 pound center on last year's Michigan eleven, did not enter school this fall because of financial difficulties. . . . He hopes to be back in February to lead the Wolverine wrestling squad, of which he is captain. . . . John Howell, Nebraska quarter back, has played five years in the back field as a member of the Omaha Central and Cornhusker elevens, but has scored only one point, converting a point after touchdown with a drop kick. . . . He always has played the blocking position. . . . Art Johnson, star soccer player at Oak Park High, has gone to Switzerland to complete his studies. . . .

Max Schmeling will be 31 next Monday. . . . The Giants lease the grounds on which their baseball plant is located, but own the stands and other structures on it. . . . Three years ago Alice Marble's father promised her an automobile if she won the national tennis championship and she intends to hold him to it. . . . Tommy Gorman has ordered his Montreal Maroons to report for hocky practice Oct. 15. . . . Marquette football men can break training once a week for Saturday night dates. . . . George Halas, coach of the Bears, lost 18 pounds before the National league season opened. . . . Jack Warnock, senior student football manager at Northwestern, has been ruled ineligible because of scholastic complications. . . . There is practically nobody left up there now except Lynn Waldorf and Carl Erickson. . . . Before the recent tragedy which cost the lives of two Purdue football players, 99 out of 100 colleges and universities used gasoline for removing tape, according to the October issue of the Purdue Alumnus. . . .

Ten Years Ago Today—A record crowd of 130,000 was expected to watch Jack Dempsey defend his heavyweight title against Gene Tunney at Philadelphia. . . . The St. Louis Cardinals defeated the Brooklyn Robins, 15 to 7, and gained a half game of the Cincinnati Reds. . . . The White Sox nosed out the league leading Yankees, 2 to 1.

EX-MINNESOTA ATHLETE FOUND DEAD OF WOUNDS

New York, Sept. 21.—(AP)—Arthur H. Laemmle, 31, of Watertown, S. D., former University of Minnesota athlete, was found dead from knife wounds in a Columbia university dormitory today with two bloodstained razor blades and a souvenir dagger at his side.

Police said they found a note in Laemmle's room indicating that he planned to kill himself. They also reported finding a sum of money in the room amounting to "hundreds of dollars," as well as medals attesting proficiency in football and basketball.

GIANTS OUT TO CLINCH FLAG BY TAKING 2 TODAY

The New York Giants, needing two victories to clinch the National league pennant, have a chance this afternoon to put the finishing touches on the race and guarantee New York City a five cent world series. Bill Terry's club, which was rained out of a scheduled game in Philadelphia yesterday, will meet the Phillies in a double-header today.

Fred Fitzsimmons and Lefty Al Smith have been entrusted with the job of pitching the Giants to the pennant today. They will be opposed by Joe Bowman and Bucky Walter, the reformed infielder.

The Cardinals' victory over the Cubs yesterday virtually eliminated the north siders from the race. By winning all the rest of their games the Cubs could get no better than a tie for first place even if the Giants dropped all their games. The Cubs now are 6½ games back of the Giants and the Cardinals are six games in arrears. The Giants must lose their eight remaining games and the Cards win their remaining six to give St. Louis the pennant. The situation after yesterday's games:

Club	W.	L.	Games Behind.	G. to Play
New York....	89	57	...	8
St. Louis	84	64	6	6
Chicago	84	65	6½	5

GOMEZ CERTAIN STARTER

New York, Sept. 21.—[Special.]—Vernon Lefty Gomez, who until quite recently appeared relegated to a minor rôle, if any at all, in Yankee world series drama with the Giants, who need two games to clinch the National league pennant, today became a definite starter in the competition which will begin at the Polo grounds a week from Wednesday. Jubilant over Gomez's two hit triumph against the Washington Senators in the second half of last Sunday's double-header, Joe McCarthy announced that the southpaw had been moved into a starting and vital position in his pitching list.

Not only will Gomez fire away at the Giants, but he may achieve the distinction of pitching the opening battle against Carl Hubbell. Those who are close to the situation in the stadium believe that at this time McCarthy is giving more than serious consideration to sending Gomez against the screwball star. However, McCarthy refuses to discuss that possibility.

Both Gomez and Charley Ruffing, who until yesterday stood out as an almost sure nomination for the opener, are to have another dress rehersal late in the week. In the meantime, Lefty seems to hold the priority over both Ruffing and Monte Pearson.

BIG TEN OPENING.

OF the six Big Ten or conference elevens going into action this coming Saturday, Minnesota's Gophers against Washington's Huskies at Seattle have the hardest task. In fact, right now, it looks more difficult than any other one game on the Northmen's schedule. Whatever Gophers may be later in the season when graduation holes have been filled, the far western engagement menaces the present record of 17 straight victories, 24 games without defeat.

There are several reasons for anxiety by Coach Bernie Bierman, anxiety which is hardly simulated this time. Ordinarily the Gophers are slow beginners, reaching peak form later in the year. Last year, Gophers, although the better eleven, nearly lost to Nebraska in an early game. This time there are more replacements than there were a year ago.

Again, Gophers are visitors, playing after a long trip which they plan to take by night runs, stopping during the day for practice en route. Thus, Washington will have longer uninterrupted practice.

Besides these problems, Washington is called in advance the strongest eleven on the Pacific coast with a wealth of veterans returning. From the coast, we are informed Washington has a big heavy line which is expected to hold its own or better with the Gopher forwards. Moreover, the Huskie back field are all seniors. Finally, Jimmy Phelan is priming for this contest, which would add to prestige of an eleven which did not perform quite up to home expectations last year.

With most of the same starting regulars, Washington last year expected to down Stanford, but lost 0 to 6, then lost to California and Oregon, the latter by point after touchdowns. It won all its other games. Home disappointment was keen, especially after the California and Oregon defeats.

The Seattle stadium will have 20,000 extra seats for the contest and at last accounts a special train was to carry Minnesota rooters on the long journey.

Minnesota's last experience with a Pacific coast eleven was against Stanford in 1930 and 1931. In the former year a strong Stanford eleven visited Minneapolis and was held to a 0 to 0 count by a determined, fighting Gopher squad by a heroic goal line defense. Except in the score, Stanford looked superior. The Wake saw that game. In 1931, Minnesota was beaten, 13 to 0, at Palo Alto. Both contests were before the present Bierman coaching régime.

SOX TO BATTLE INDIANS TODAY IN FIGHT TO KEEP 3D

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Cleveland, O., Sept. 21.—In the midst of the hilarity and bedlam created by the American Legion boys in their annual convention frolic the White Sox and Indians will go to work tomorrow. It will be important labor over a two day stretch for both teams, the Sox struggling to stay in third place where they are now located and the Indians hoping to get out of the second division, which is hardly a fitting spot for a team doped by some as a pennant winner last April.

James J. Dykes, the boss of the Sox, will play tomorrow. That is, he will play if the Legionnaires don't insist that he join up temporarily with their show. The ex-service men discovered this morning that Dykes is the only active major league player who wore a uniform during the period of the late unpleasantness, and they want to put him on parade. Dykes thus far has succeeded in begging off on the plea that his legs can't take it.

Get Look at Feller Today.

Tomorrow the Sox will face Bob Feller, the 17 year old pitching sensation who recently tied the big league strikeout record. The lad has a fast ball said to have a better leap than any ever pitched before, but his control isn't so hot.

In hopes of breaking the local jinx, Manager Dykes will place his pitching chores in care of Monty Stratton, the grapevine right hander who might have been the freshman pitching standout of the major leagues if illness hadn't carried him into the hospital late last May. Since getting back into action Stratton has proved that all the rosy predictions made for him last spring were justified. He has pitched three games since Sept. 6, winning two and losing the other because he weakened in the eighth. The first of his two recent victories was over the Indians, and that's one reason why he's pitching tomorrow.

Must Break Losing Streak.

The Sox have only five more games to play and that's enough to drop them into the second division if they don't snap out of the losing streak which now totals five games. If they can get one of the two games here, that will just about assure them first division and the second division for the Indians.

After finishing here the three remaining games will be played at Comiskey park against the Browns, whose nefarious work at St. Louis cost the Sox four decisions and almost definitly ended the latter's hopes for second place.

None of the Sox have done anything about their trips home from Chicago after the season closes next Sunday. They are holding off for a very good reason. They are waiting for that challenge from the Cubs for a city series. It will come inside of a couple of days.

HERMAN'S WILD THROW IN NINTH BEATS WARNEKE

Dizzy Dean Stops Chicago Rally.

BY EDWARD BURNS.

The Cardinals finished up their 1936 business in Chicago yesterday by administering a 5 to 4 licking to the Cubs. They resumed second place and the Cubs plunked back into third, with the remainder of the schedule lending indications that they may remain there, provided they can avoid fourth place. They are two games ahead of the Pirates.

The fact that the winning run was unearned, the result of Bill Herman's faulty throw in a frenzied effort to complete a double play which would have ended the first half of the ninth, furnished slight comfort to the faded champs. It was a tough break for Lon Warneke, who went into the game with one out in the third inning and allowed only one hit, a safe bunt by Don Gutteridge with two out in the sixth, up till the time Durocher started the fatal ninth by leading off with a single.

Old Diz Takes Charge.

The Cubs tried valiantly to tie the score or win in their half of the ninth, but with Phil Cavarretta on third as a result of a lead off double and Herman's sacrifice, and Frank Demaree on first as a result of a pass, Dizzy Dean took charge. Cavarretta was trapped off third on Stan Hack's tap to Gutteridge and Gabby Hartnett, who earlier in the game had socked two doubles and a single, ended the game with a long fly to Terry Moore.

Tex Carleton was Chicago's starting pitcher, and not much of a pitcher in the second inning and the time he lasted in the third. Jim Winford was the winning pitcher, though he gave way to Rip Collins in the ninth inning doings which gave the Cards the verdict.

Thus the Cardinals went away from here a half game ahead of the Cubs and with a record of having whipped the Chicagoans 13 times in 20 games.

Each team launched its scoring program in the second inning, the Cards making one and the Cubs two. Medwick walked to start the St. Louis half and, after Mize had fanned, went to third on Durocher's single to right. Gutteridge popped to Jurges, but V. Davis singled to left, Medwick scoring. Winford popped to Herman.

Demaree opened the Cub half with a single, advanced a base on Hack's out and tied the score on Hartnett's double to left. Winford dropped Mize's toss on Gill's grounder, Hartnett reaching third and Gill landing on first. Garibaldi fumbled Jurges' hot grounder, Hartnett scoring. Carleton fanned and Galan grounded to Mize.

Carleton Leaves in Third.

After the Cubs had given Carleton a lead they rallied around him and begged him to make off that the Cards were the Boston Bees, a team he defeated eight out of nine times this season. But Tex couldn't so delude himself, as he proved as soon as the third inning got under way.

Moore led off the third with a double and, after Hack had thrown out Garibaldi, went to third on J. Martin's single. Martin advanced on a wild pitch after which Medwick singled to right, Moore and Martin scoring and Medwick reaching second on Demaree's throw to the plate. Mize singled to right, scoring Medwick. Warneke stepped into the pitching job and made Durocher hit into a double play.

The Cubs made one run in the fourth and had the bases full when the light went out. Hack singled to Industrial District Golfers Play Tomorrow.

Flossmoor Country club will hold its annual frolic tomorrow, with 200 golfers competing. Twenty-three events are included, among them competition at 27 holes. Twenty-nine prizes will be awarded, including low gross and low net awards for 36 hole, 27 hole and 18 hole play and special prizes for foursomes. Dinner and entertainment will follow the day's golf.

Nearly 100 executives of the Clearing industrial district will compete at the La Grange Country club tomorrow to determine the two low gross scorers for the finals of the organization's championship tourney. The finals, 36 holes of match play, are scheduled for Sunday. In addition to the competition for playoff position tomorrow, prizes will be awarded for other low gross scores, least number of putts and blind bogey winners. A dinner will follow the day's golfing activities.

The annual pro-amateur tournament of the Chicago District Golf association was held at Medinah yesterday with Harry Cooper and George Dawson of Glen Oak winning with a best ball of 33—33—66. For the first time the tournament was played without handicap allowance for the amateurs, most of whom were club champions.

Harry Kinnell and Frank Justin of Edgewood Valley and George M. Smith and Dexter Cummings of Onwentsia had duplicate cards of 36—35—71.

Prizes were offered for the amateurs, provided they helped their pro partners. On this basis Joe Wallace and Frank Wollaston of Nordic won with a 70 net. The Rev. John Zelezinski of Butterfield aided Al Huske, and his 71 was good for second, while Johnny Armour, shooting with Tony Penna of Itasca, had third with a 72.

Cooper had 36—34—70 for his individual count, while Dawson was a stroke back 36—35—71.

Mrs. Loren Darr won the Lincoln park championship yesterday by defeating Mrs. Roy Garland, 9 and 7. Her victory gave her permanent possession of the Belmont hotel cup and also the Commissioners' cup.

Elmer A. Kurzka, a member of the Board of Trade, won the championship yesterday at Medinah with a 3 and 2 victory over A. N. Andersen in their 36 hole final match. They played over No. 3 course.

Jack Carberry of Shore Acres is the best golfing caddy master in the Chicago district. Yesterday at Medinah he won the caddy masters' annual tournament with 88 over No. 3 and 76 over No. 1 course for 164.

A field of fifty played the two courses. Joe Stephens of Onwentsia with 85 and 83—168, was second, and Pete Wilcox, Edgewood Valley, 82—87—169, and Willard Hand, Glen View, 88—81—169, tied for third place.

Polo Officials Silent on Subs for Greentree

New York, Sept. 21.—(AP)—American polo officials still were uncertain today whether they would draft substitutes to strengthen the Greentree team in an effort to beat Argentine's four in the second match of the cup of American series Wednesday at Meadow Brook.

Bobby Strawbridge Jr., chairman of the U. S. Polo association, and Tommy Hitchcock Jr., veteran international player, and other members of the team conferred today but said no announcement, if any, will be made until tomorrow.

Want Faster Horses.

The Americans were reported to be more interested in faster mounts than new players following the 21 to 9 defeat they suffered in the first match. Their ponies virtually were left at the post by the invaders' swift horses.

Meanwhile, Jack Nelson, president of the Argentine Polo association, declined to comment on reports that Winston Guest and Stewart Iglehart would be inserted in the American lineup.

"I won't commit myself until some definite proposition is made by the American team," said Nelson. "It was agreed before the series we were to play the winner of the American open championship. Greentree won and neither Guest nor Iglehart was a member of the team or its squad.

Expect No Substitutes.

"I'm sure the Americans will not change their lineup for the second match, but if they should decide to do so we'll deal with them in a sporting way."

Nelson refused to discuss objections to any substitutions made last night in Buenos Aires by Lieut. Col. Enrique Padilla, vice president of the Argentine association.

"Try to do what is possible; that if the team is changed it is not bettered," Padilla cabled Nelson. ". . . the fact is Guest and Iglehart were not reserves on the Greentree team which won the United States open championship and it is clear Argentina is supposed to play the open champions and the reserves of the open champions."

The Chicagoans tied the score after two were out in the fifth. After Herman had bounced to Durocher and Demaree had fanned, Hack walked and scored on Hartnett's double to left center. Gill tapped to Winford.

Mize was called out on strikes after a three and two count at the start of the sixth and this precipitated a row at the plate which lasted until Umpire Pinelli bounced Manager Frisch out of the arena. Durocher rolled to Herman, then Gutteridge beat out a bunt for the first hit off Warneke. Gutteridge was out trying to steal second.

Durocher opened the ninth with a single to center, the first full blown hit off Warneke, and moved up on Gutteridge's sacrifice. V. Davis was given an intentional pass. Fullis ran for V. Davis and Collins batted for Winford. Collins rolled a double play ball to Jurges. Jurges' throw to Herman forced Fullis, but Herman's throw in an attempt to complete a double play was short and bounced past Cavarretta, Durocher scoring. Moore singled to right, Collins taking third. Garibaldi fouled to Hartnett.

Heusser and Ogrodowski formed the St. Louis battery in the home ninth. Cavarretta opened with a double to left center and took third on Herman's sacrifice. Demaree was given a semi-intentional pass, then Dean replaced Heusser. Hack tapped to Gutteridge and Cavarretta was run down, Gutteridge to Ogrodowski, Demaree stopping at second. Hartnett flied to Moore.

THREE OUTBOARD RECORDS FALL IN SPEED TRIALS

Cedar Lake, Ind., Sept. 21.—[Special.]—Outboard driving stars who yesterday settled the year's national championships in the annual regatta at Burnham park lagoons, Chicago, moved here today for an assault on national and world speed records. The fastest time for a new national record was made by Clinton Ferguson, Waban, Mass., an amateur in class B. Hits average was 50.992 miles per hour.

After Andy Laird had sped to a new record of 46.754 for class C runabouts, the mark was exceeded by Ward Angilley of Marysville, Cal., who traveled at an average of 48.066 miles per hour. Angilley's mark stands as the new national record.

Elmer Schneider Jr., St. Louis, Mo., saw his national 33.3 miles record in the midget class go by the boards as 16 year old Nell Cooper of Kansas City, Mo., drove 34.488 miles per hour.

Walter Everett, Tulsa, Okla., drove his unlimited class X boat to an average speed of 69.234 miles per hour, but did not approach the international V mark of 75 miles per hour.

American Giants Will Organize Football Team

The Chicago American Giants, long famous in the baseball world as one of the outstanding colored nines of the nation, yesterday announced entrance into professional football with an all-colored team. The team will play its home games at the American Giants' park, 39th street and Wentworth avenue, meeting leading professional clubs of the country.

Berger's Hand Broken by Rookie Mulcahy's Pitch

Boston, Mass., Sept. 21.—[Special.]—Wally Berger, heavy hitting Boston Bee outfielder, suffered a broken right hand yesterday when struck by a pitched ball thrown by Rookie Hugh Mulcahy of the Phillies, an X-ray examination revealed today. The bone was broken in three places. Berger will be out the rest of the season.

French Pitches Opener Today with Pirates

Larry French will pitch this afternoon's opener of the Cubs' three game series with the Pittsburgh Pirates. He'll still be looking for No. 19 for his new all time Major league high.

French signed his 1937 contract yesterday, the first to come to terms, although about a half dozen probably would hasten to take pen in hand were a document offered.

Pittsburgh leads Chicago in the season series, ten victories to nine.

Babe Pinelli, generally a satisfactory umpire, had a bad day behind the plate yesterday. The battery men on both sides were beefing constantly on his work—the kind of squawks that appear sincere.

ORIOLES DEFEAT BISONS, 8-6, TO SQUARE SERIES

Baltimore, Md., Sept. 21.—(AP)—The Baltimore Orioles squared accounts with the Buffalo Bisons at two victories apiece in the final International league playoff series tonight by batting out an 8 to 6 victory.

The series is to decide the league's representative in the little world series against Milwaukee, American association playoff winner. The fifth game will be played here tomorrow.

The Orioles scored four runs in the fourth to take a lead they never lost. Cliff Melton scattered the 12 Buffalo hits until the ninth inning when Hy Vandenburg relieved him. Wright hit a homer for Baltimore in the second. Score:

FIVE GAMES ON NORTHWEST PREP CARD THIS WEEK

Moline, Ill., Sept. 21.—[Special.]—Five nonconference games are scheduled this week in the Northwest High School Athletic league. Moline, defending champion, plays at Clinton Friday night while Rock Island entertains Franklin High of Cedar Rapids, and Kewanee is host to Peoria Central.

East Moline, which defeated Monmouth last week, will meet Freeport at East Moline Saturday, and Galesburg will invade Rushville. Monmouth will be idle this week.

SPOKES A. C. TO PLAY.

GOPHERS LEAVE FOR WASHINGTON; 43 MAKE TRIP

Minneapolis, Minn., Sept. 21.—[Special.]—Coach Bernie Bierman today led 43 Minnesota players to Seattle for the intersectional game with the University of Washington next Saturday. The group included eight ends, seven tackles, eight guards, four centers, four quarter backs, four left half backs, four right half backs and four full backs. It follows:

Ends—Ray Antil, Bruce Berryman, Bob Carlson, Ray King, Dominic Krezowski, Mike Milosevich, Dwight Reed, Frank Warner.

After a two hour chalk talk in the morning, the Gophers ran through a spirited signal drill and play rehersal this afternoon. At 5:45 they boarded buses at the stadium for the short trip to the station, leaving Minneapolis at 6 p. m.

Their itinerary calls for an all day stay in Miles City, Mont., tomorrow, then two days in Missoula, Mont. It was at Missoula that Bierman started his collegiate coaching career with the University of Montana.

N. U. POLISHES PLAYS.

While pleased with certain features of Northwestern's brush with the freshmen last Saturday, Coach Lynn Waldorf concentrated yesterday on the shortcomings that cropped up on the squad as it entered the final two weeks of preparation for the opener with Iowa on Oct. 3.

Scrimmage was curtailed in favor of an intensive drill on fundamentals and polishing up new plays. With the back field ranks depleted due to ineligibilities and injuries Coach Waldorf plans to cut scrimmage to a minimum.

Bob Carter, full back, reported for practice yesterday and was immediately assigned a position on one of the varsity teams. Carter, who won his letter last year, was a welcome addition to the squad. In addition to his ball carrying ability he can kick and pass.

PURDUE HOLDS SERVICES.

Lafayette, Ind., Sept. 21.—[Special.]—Following funeral services this morning for Tommy McGannon, the second victim of the shower house fire, the members of Purdue's squad resumed drill this afternoon in preparation for the season's opener with Ohio university, here Saturday afternoon. The bulk of the football squad, along with students, faculty members and townspeople, attended memorial services in St. Mary's Catholic church, while Coach Noble Kizer headed the Purdue delegation, that included Capt. George Bell and four of McGannon's former back field mates, which attended the services in Evansville.

A huge "Purdue loyalty meeting," sponsored by the greater Lafayette Chamber of Commerce and the Tippecanoe County Purdue Alumni association was held Thursday evening in the Jefferson High school gymnasium.

Lowell Decker, the most seriously burned of the two players remaining in the hospital, continued to show slight improvement today, while Pat Malaska was making steady progress with no signs of complications.

HOOSIERS' ERRORS CORRECTED.

Bloomington, Ind., Sept. 21.—[Special.]—Errors apparent in an intrasquad scrimmage Saturday received the attention of Coach Bo McMillin at Indiana university this afternoon.

Pointing out defects in blocking, tackling, and timing of plays, McMillin drilled the squad in these departments. Bright spots in the drill were the running and passing of Huffman, quarter back; the broken field running of Half Back Eads, and the pass receiving of Half Back Cherry.

Corby Davis, full back, who spent the week-end in Bloomington hospital suffering from a cold, has broken out again this season with boils and may not be ready for the Hoosiers' opening game against Centre college here, Oct. 3.

MICHIGAN DRILLS IN SECRET.

Ann Arbor, Mich., Sept. 21.—[Special.]—Spectators were barred from Ferry field today as Michigan began secret practice for the game with Michigan State, Oct. 3.

Coach Harry Kipke, satisfied with the showing of the squad in the first scrimmage last Saturday even though a tentative first team could score only an 11 to 7 victory, sent the squad through a signal drill this morning and a tackling and blocking session this afternoon. At least one scrimmage will be held this week, Kipke said.

Teddy Yarosz Wins Decision Over Risko

Pittsburgh, Pa., Sept. 21.—(AP)—Teddy Yarosz of Monaca, Pa., won a decision over Babe Risko of Rochester, N. Y., in a 10 round battle of former middleweight champions tonight. Yarosz moved out in front from the first round. In the seventh he cut loose with all the pressure at his command, dancing about and tossing a steady stream of rights and lefts at the slower moving Risko. Risko's biggest moment was in the third when he landed a right that caused Yarosz to buckle for a moment.

New Orleans Reaches Final of Southern Association Play

New Orleans, La., Sept. 21.—(AP)—The New Orleans Pelicans advanced into finals of the Southern association's playoff by walloping Atlanta in the final game of their series tonight, 8 to 2. New Orleans will open a five game series at Birmingham, the other finalist, Wednesday, for the right to meet the Texas league champions in the Dixie series.

Jankowski Is Found Eligible at Wisconsin

Madison, Wis., Sept. 21.—[Special.]—Wisconsin's football hopes were considerably buoyed today with the announcement that Eddie Jankowski, veteran full back from Milwaukee, had regain his eligibility.

Jankowski received a "C" in a correspondence course he completed Saturday and joined the squad for the forenoon drill. His return gave Coach Harry Stuhldreher an opportunity to plan a starting back field with some degree of definitness. Jankowski has kept himself in good shape and probably will start at full back against South Dakota State Saturday.

Joe Idziorek, sophomore full back from Superior, was the only absentee this afternoon as Stuhldreher sent the squad through an intensive drill on blocking and forward pass plays. Idziorek is suffering from an abscess on his side.

The third and last scrimmage before the opening game will be held Wednesday, Stuhldreher said tonight.

IOWA CRIPPLES RETURN.

Iowa City, Ia., Sept. 21.—[Special.]—Seven of the cripples who were absent from Iowa drills last week were back in uniform today as Coach Ossie Solem sent the squad through a hard workout topped by a scrimmage. Walker and Deheer were back at the tackles while Grange, Schenk, and Eicherly, sophomore backs who contracted influenza, were given a brief chance in the first string back field in offensive drill. That Solem may give Ozzie Simmons' passing ability a test in the Carleton game here Saturday was indicated as the colored boy received more attention.

Bush Lamb, who started most of the games at quarter back last year, but reported late this fall, may regain his first string position before the week is over.

OHIO WORKS ON PASS DEFENSE.

Columbus, O., Sept. 21.—[Special.]—Pass defense, something which Ohio State was weak in last season, took up the major portion of the two practice sessions held today by the Buckeyes.

New York university plays of last year were thrown against the varsity by the second stringers today and met with some success. The Buckeyes meet the Violets in their opener Oct. 3.

Coach Francis Schmidt was much pleased with the scrimmage session Saturday and especially praised Tom Monahan, hard hitting brother of Regis Monahan, former Ohio State star. Bill Bullock, quarter back, may be advanced to the first string through his brilliant play in handling the secondary eleven.

NOTRE DAME GIVEN PLAYS.

Notre Dame, Ind, Sept. 21.—[Special.]—Coach Elmer Layden today began to mobilize the Notre Dame football forces for the Carnegie Tech game Oct. 3, equipping the varsity with several new plays. Meanwhile the freshmen worked on Tech plays which will be used in scrimmage next week against the varsity.

Layden was far from satisfied with Saturday's scrimmage, in which one of three touchdowns was earned, but he found time to praise Johnny Lautar, newly elected captain, and Babe Marshall, junior right guard, for their improvement.

The B team, under Coach Bill Cereney, was given several plays it plans to spring on the Niagara university varsity next Sunday at Niagara Falls, N. Y. The Irish won, 25 to 12, last year.

HUSKIES GET NEW TRICKS.

MARANVILLE IS THROUGH ACTIVE PLAYER CAREER

Scranton, Pa., Sept. 21.—(AP)—Walter [Rabbit] Maranville, manager of the Elmira team which today lost the New York-Pennsylvania league season championship to Scranton, said after the game he had finished his career as an active player.

After more than a quarter-century in baseball—24 years in the major leagues—the little infielder announced:

"That was my last day out there today. I'm through—finished as a player. Baseball has been good to me. I have no regrets. I'll continue in the game as a manager. If I can find something better I'll move up. Otherwise, I'll try to continue my job at Elmira."

Maranville, troubled with bad legs and slowed up considerably, played through two innings today and then retired for a pinch runner after drawing a walk in the third inning of the game won by Scranton, 9 to 2. His only previous start in the playoff series came a week ago tomorrow when he played the whole game at second base.

Maranville participated in 123 games, 17 short of the league maximum for the season, for Elmira this year. He batted .326. Although he devoted most of his services at second base, he also worked frequently as shortstop.

Pair of De Paul Players Lost by Ineligibility

De Paul university's chances of beating Illinois Saturday at Champaign received serious blows yesterday when Tom Roberts, regular guard last year, and Red Gallagher, promising sophomore guard, were ruled ineligible. In addition, Joe Gagliardo, 210 pound junior tackle, was kicked in the chest in scrimmage and was carried from the field. It is doubtful if Joe will be able to don a uniform for the rest of the week.

The loss of Roberts and Gallagher forced Coach Jim Kelly to return Bruno Raffin to guard from center where he had been working. He earned a letter at guard last year. Bill Casey, end, was switched to center to take the place. Other shifts had Bill Phillips and Pat Howlett moved to left half back and Julian Heim to right half back. Phillips and Howlett were right half backs and Heim full back.

Maurice Washburne, veteran tackle, can engage in only light workouts, but he is expected to take the field against the Illini. Ed Kelly, end, and another member of the hospital brigade, is improving and should be ready for Saturday's contest.

ILLINI BACKFIELD PICKED.

Champaign, Ill., Sept. 21.—(AP)—A freshman team equipped with De Paul plays held the Illinois varsity to a yardage stalemate in an hour scrimmage today. Coach Bob Zuppke evidently is set on the backfield he will start Saturday against De Paul, naming Ken Nelson, quarter back; Lowell Spurgeon and Leo Stasica, halves, and Ken Zimmerman at full back. Stasica alone performed well against the frosh today, getting away for several good runs.

MAROON STAR IN HOSPITAL.

Morton Goodstein, rugged sophomore full back of the University of Chicago, was in Billings hospital yesterday with a bothersome boil. It was expected that Goodstein, along with the three other regulars who have been unable to scrimmage, will be ready for action against Lawrence college at Stagg field Saturday.

The ailments of Goodstein, Ned Bartlett, Lew Hamity, and Clarence Wright slowed up practice, as did the annual orgy of picture taking. The new uniforms, donned for the first time, turned out to be a natty combination of maroon and old gold.

Practice was limited to signal drill and work on fundamentals, with tackling stressed. The squad expects a stiff scrimmage today.

Lawrence, coached by Paul Derr, former Illinois player, is expected to give the Maroons just the kind of competition they need. The Appleton squad, almost as numerous but lighter than Chicago, is a fast running, clever passing team which should test the Maroon secondary on defense, a point at which testing is necessary.

Three of the starting Lawrence backs, Bob Hallquist, Al Novakofski, and Evan Vandewalle, are sprinters on the track team. The co-captains, Clif Olsen and Jim Straubel, starting ends, were rated the best wingmen in Lawrence's league last year.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

Babe Phelps of the Dodgers picked up more ground yesterday on Paul Waner of the Pirates in the National league batting race. While Waner was idle, with an average of .376, Phelps got two hits in four times at bat to boost his mark two points to .370. He and Ducky Medwick, who maintained a .350 mark by getting one hit in two chances, were the only members of baseball's Big Six to see action. Standings:

News from East's Football Camps

New York, Sept. 21.—(AP)—Fordham's Rams, who have to face the Southern Methodist after meeting Franklin and Marshall in their football game this week, went through a long drill in forward pass defense today. The freshmen put on the plays in a dummy scrimmage and Capt. Frank Mautte, who plays safety on defense, Andy Palau and Joe Woitkoski looked especially good.

NEW PRINCETON PLAYS.

Princeton, N. J., Sept. 21.—(AP)—Fritz Crisler gave Princeton several new plays to learn today and varied the double drill with sessions on blocking. Stiff scrimmages wound up both the morning and afternoon drills as the players tried out what they learned in the individual workouts. The varsity, on defense, had a lot of difficulty with the passes thrown by Jim Salsich.

FRANK STARS AT YALE.

Gale's Ferry, Conn., Sept. 21.—(AP)—Clint Frank gave a spectacular scoring exhibition as the Yale varsity scored four touchdowns against the scrubs in scrimmage. Frank scored three times on runs from 25 to 80 yards and threw a forty yard pass to Arthur Dyess for the fourth tally. Kevin Rafferty played right end in place of Capt. Larry Kelley, who still is favoring a baseball injury.

REVIEW ARMY ERRORS.

West Point, N. Y., Sept. 21.—(AP)—The errors which cropped up in Saturday's scrimmage against New York university drew most of the attention in Army's drill today. Coach Gar Davidson kept the regulars running through the same plays until they were letter perfect.

N. Y. U. EYES OHIO.

New York, Sept. 21.—(AP)—The first squad of New York university players to leave the Lake Sebago training camp worked out on Ohio field here today. They concentrated on kicking and passing in preparation for the Ohio State game Oct. 3.

CORNELL WORKOUT LIGHT.

Ithaca, N. Y., Sept. 21.—(AP)—Entering its last week of twice a day drills, the Cornell squad had a comparatively light workout today, running through signals and a dummy scrimmage. Coach Carl Snavely indicated there will not be much more heavy scrimmaging.

PASSES FOOL DARTMOUTH.

Hanover, N. H., Sept. 21.—(AP)—Dartmouth held its first secret practice of the season but it was comparatively light. Coach Earl Blaik drilled the first and second teams in pass defense and interceptions and ran them through some plays from a double wingback formation. With Herb Matledge and Tom Sheehan passing, the second team found many holes in the varsity defense.

HARVARD IN SCRIMMAGE.

NO ANSWER TO REPORT M'PHAIL WILL BUY BROWNS

Cincinnati, O., Sept. 21.—(AP)—A Nashville, Tenn., Banner report that Larry S. MacPhail, resigned general manager of the Cincinnati Reds, planned to purchase the St. Louis Browns went unconfirmed and undenied today.

MacPhail could not be reached. He went to New York Friday after announcing his resignation and had checked out of his hotel there, presumably to return to Cincinnati.

Powel Crosley Jr., president of the Cincinnati Reds, said he knew nothing of MacPhail's plans.

The Nashville Banner story said MacPhail approached Fay Murray, owner of the Nashville club, but that Murray had informed MacPhail he was not interested.

Bears to Play Exhibition at Moline Tonight

The Chicago Bears, favorites in the National Professional league football race after their crushing defeat of Green Bay Sunday, will meet the Rock Island team of the Northwest Professional league in an exhibition game at Moline, Ill., tonight.

Immediately after the game the Bears will return to Chicago to begin preparations for their two weeks' invasion of the east which opens Sunday at Pittsburgh. After the Philadelphia game a week from Sunday, they come back to open the Chicago season with the Cardinals on Oct. 4.

No serious injuries were incurred Sunday at Green Bay where the Bears retrieved a measure of the power and finesse which carried them through two undefeated seasons in 1932 and 1933. Jack Manders, place kicking full back star, suffered a severely cut under lip, necessitating eight stitches, and Ookie Miller, veteran center, is nursing a sprained ankle, but both will be ready for the Pirate game Sunday.

Masterson Merely Bruised.

X-ray examinations revealed Bernie Masterson's chest injury is only a bruise. Ray Nolting, rookie half back from Cincinnati, who ran wild in the second half against the Packers, appeared fully recovered yesterday from a blow in the stomach.

The Cardinals, who participated in an exhibition game at La Crosse, Wis., Sunday, resumed drill yesterday for their second league game, an invasion of Detroit Sunday. They will open the Lions' season and hope to regain ground lost in the encounter with Green Bay a week ago. Doug Russell, Bill Smith, and Dave Cook hope to be back in the game by the end of the week, but it is doubtful whether they will be able to take much of an active part in the contest.

This is particularly true of Cook, who suffered a dislocated shoulder in the first half of the Green Bay game. Cook had been switched from half back to full back this year in an effort to give the offense more punch and was counted on heavily as a plunger. He revealed considerable ability in this department before he was forced from the Packer game and his loss was one of the chief reasons for the Cardinals' defeat.

Coach Milan Creighton has been working for a week at La Crosse to build suitable replacements for the injured trio and has worked several combinations. It is not certain yet who will be assigned to the starting lineup, but if Russell and Cook are not able to play, the ball carrying burden will fall on Pangle, Sarboe, and Lawrence, a freshman who was a member of the All-Star team last month. Billy Wilson has been working out at Smith's place at end.

St. Louis, Mo., Sept. 21.—(AP)—Howard Creel of Pueblo, Colo., added an afternoon 70, one under par, to his morning 71 to win the medal in the 36 hole qualifying round of the first national left handed golfers' tournament today. Spencer Brainard of New Haven, Conn., the New England champion, put together two 76's for a total of 152 and second place. Dr. W. J. Winburn of Winchester, Ky., shot 76-79 for a total of 155, while Kenneth Fitzgerald led the St. Louis contingent with 156.

From Creel's 141, the field stretched out in back of him as far as the 211 of Omar Davidson of Detroit. Even at that, Davidson was far from erratic. He shot 111 on the first 18 and 100 on the second.

King Rail an Easy Target for Hunter's Gun

BY BOB BECKER.

Driving on a gravel road west of Barrington, Ill., a few days ago, our car struck a bird we do not often see on the road. When this accident occurred we were driving slowly between two marshy areas where, in normal years, there is a luxuriant growth of cattails. This year the cattails have grown a lot since the heavy rains so the vegetation offers excellent cover to some species of birds.

Suddenly we saw a small bird leave the side of the road and attempt to fly across the front of our car. We caught just a fleeting glimpse of the bird—one of those one-thousandth of a second side glances—as we put on the brakes. The car hit the bird. We thought it might be a young pheasant. Stopping the car and going back to the trafic victim stretched out in the road we saw that it was a king rail.

The king rail is one of our most interesting marsh birds. We had a chance to see several of them on the Tribune farm some weeks ago. They were hiding in a clump of cattails. By walking through the tall growth near the edge of the pond they were flushed much like you put pheasants into the air when you comb a piece of cover.

But no rail can fly as rapidly nor as expertly as a pheasant. Anyway, the lean, lanky rails would rather skulk in heavy vegetation than take to wing. When you see them fly you can appreciate their reluctance to take to the air. They seem barely able to get over the tops of weeds or other vegetation, flap their wings as if they were carrying a lot of ballast, and eventually plunge into the tall grass as if they were exhausted.

If anybody were deliberately to set out to find an easy target for a beginner with a shotgun the sora or king rail would get the nomination. It's about the easiest feathered target we have seen in the marsh. Some shooters like to plow through the heavy vegetation in the marsh to hunt rails. But the majority of hunters seem to think that all this effort is hardly worth while in view of the size and table qualities of the rails.

NEW YORK LIFTS BAN ON TRAINER IN DOPING CASE

New York, Sept. 21.—(AP)—The New York state racing commission, after reviewing the two cases of stimulation of horses at Saratoga, today ordered the reinstatement of George E. Phillips, trainer for Dewitt Page's Maemere farm, but allowed the suspension of Trainer Emerson Davis of Canada to stand.

Phillips, who was suspended following the finding of coramine in the saliva of Page's Maeriel, which won at the Spa Aug. 19, will return to good standing Oct. 4.

WALING BEATEN BY LENNY COHEN IN BOXING UPSET

Carroll Gives Bernstein 8 Round Beating.

Lenny Cohen, Chicago Golden Gloves product, surprised 1,454 fans last night at Marigold Gardens when he outboxed Edwin Waling, Detroit featherweight, to win an eight round decision. Waling, who had won 26 and fought a draw since turning professional was the heavily backed favorite. Waling weighed 128½ pounds and Cohen 124.

Lorenzo Lovings knocked out Willie Ross [1].

Eddie Wenstob, Edmonton, Alta., light heavyweight boxer, will make his Chicago debut on the card topped by a ten round bout between Max Marek and Max Zona at Arcadia Gardens one week from tonight. He has been matched with George Valles, Birmingham, Ala., for six rounds. Marek will be in quest of his fourth straight victory against Zona. The Catholic Youth organization heavyweight stopped Vincent Parrille, Eddie Boyle, and George Valles in recent weeks.

John Henry Lewis is expected here tomorrow to finish training for a scheduled ten round fight with Red Burman at Chicago Stadium Oct. 2. Burman, protégé of Jack Dempsey, is scheduled to arrive Thursday. Both fighters will establish training quarters at Trafton's gymnasium, but will work out at different hours.

Armand Sicilia, Springfield, Ill., featherweight stablemate of Dave Barry, has been substituted for Barry in a ten round main event against Leo Rodak at White City Thursday. Billy Petrolle, the old welterweight contender from Duluth, Minn., stopped off in the loop yesterday en route to New York on business. . . . Johnny Erjavec, Duluth heavyweight, idle for several weeks, has returned for additional engagements here.

EMPTY BOTTLE, FULL OF SPEED, WINS BELLWOOD

BY FRENCH LANE.

Empty Bottle, one of the standouts among the 2 year olds last year but a rank failure this season, finally found his racing legs at Lincoln Fields yesterday and galloped to an easy victory in the six furlong Bellwood purse.

He led from the start and finished coasting a length and a half in front of Kentucky Blues. Billbo, away with the rear guard, raced next to last until the stretch. Then he started to move forward. He was running fastest of all near the end, but was only able to take down third.

It was the first victory Empty Bottle, 3 year old old son of Jock-Bit o' Regret, has been able to score this year. His campaign started in Florida last winter. Despite numerous failures he had plenty of backing in the Bellwood.

Start Is Delayed.

After he finished up the job of running the six furlongs in 1:11 2-5 he paid $7.80 to win, $4.80 to place, and $3.60 to show. Kentucky Blues was at $6.20 to place and $7.80 to show. Billbo paid $6.80 to show.

The incorrigible Lady Thatcher delayed the start for four minutes, but Starter Hamilton finally got them away in good order. Jocky Guymon moved Empty Bottle to the front in a jiffy and sent him into the lead of two lengths. At times he was three lengths in front. There wasn't a dangerous challenge at any stage of the race. So on he just rambled to victory.

The shortest priced favorite of the Lincoln Fields season scored the easiest victory of the year in Chicago in the Dansant purse at 5½ furlongs, which was fashioned for 2 year olds eligible for the Joliet handicap Oct. 3.

This easy winner was Challite, the brilliant filly owned by Henry H. Cross' Tranquillity farm stable of Chicago. She simply smothered the four other fillies which went to the post with her.

When the start came she bounded to the front so quickly that the others appeared to be standing still. Within 20 seconds she had jumped out into a lead of five lengths.

Jocky Basil James sent her out into a long lead of seven lengths rounding the turn into the stretch. The others were plodding along closely grouped.

Wins Pulled Up.

James soon realized his secure situation. He took Challite in hand and was content to let the daughter of Challenger II.-Design win by two lengths. The Everglade stable's Wise Dart was second. Saranara owned by Mrs. John Marsch of Chicago finished third. Despite being pulled up all through the late stages Challite ran the 5½ furlongs in 1:05 2-5. This was two fifths of a second off the track record.

Challite gave evidence in this race that she is one of the outstanding juveniles in the country. She has been beaten only once in five starts.

PUT 116 POUNDS ON MUCHO GUSTO FOR LINCOLN RACE

Mucho Gusto, winner of the Francis S. Peabody Memorial handicap, will be asked to carry 116 pounds in the Lincoln handicap to be run next Saturday, Racing Secretary Will Shelley announced yesterday. This will be the top weight for the ninth renewal of the stake. In the Peabody Memorial Mucho Gusto carried 111 pounds to an easy victory.

A. B. Letellier of New Orleans has been elected president of the Thoroughbred Horse Owners and Breeders' association of America. He succeeds James Norris Jr. of Chicago. Louis J. Leppe of Detroit, owner of the Motor City stable, was elected vice president to succeed Tom Worden of Chicago. Norris and Worden resigned their posts several days ago.

George Foster, secretary of the Illinois racing commission, served as steward representing the commission at Lincoln Fields yesterday in the absence of the regular steward, Christopher J. Fitzgerald, who is vacationing in the east. Foster will serve again today.

DIANE S, going in her best form and beginning fast, forced the early pace under restraint, took command under hustling tactics when entering the stretch and, continuing well under energetic riding, held sway to win handily. DISCRIMINATE, reserved off the pace, responded when called upon, but could not get to the winner. MISS GARNIER, blocked when entering the backstretch, improved her position gradually in the final half mile and outgamed CRABTREE.

LEONA REIGH, forced to race wide when working her way into command, was taken to inside on the turn and, standing pressure gamely the final eighth, withstood strong opposition. MITZI KAI, under mild restraint until reaching the final quarter, closed with determination, but rarely withstood SAGEBRUSH'S rush. Latter, away slowly and lucky to slip through small openings while being much used to reach a contending position, was steadied around the turn and, responding stoutly in the final eighth, was rapidly wearing down the leaders.

MISS LIZZIE, well up from the start and sent to the lead when saving ground on the turn, opened up a good advantage when approaching the final eighth, but had to be shaken up in the final eighth. BARANCA, beginning fast but unable to keep up on the turn, began to improve his position fast when saving ground entering stretch and, continuing well after coming out on the last eighth, outstayed MARGARET G. Latter, fractious at the post but away well, dropped out of it in the opening quarter, but improved her position gradually the last three-eighths and held on well.

CHALLITE, much the best, rushed into command on the inside, was taken under light restraint on the turn and eased in final eighth, won with speed in reserve. WISE DART, inclined to bear out, but displaying good speed from the start, stood light pressure gamely the final quarter and stalled off SARANARA. Latter, away slowly, saved ground on the turn, came to outside in stretch and closed with determination.

EMPTY BOTTLE, fractious at the post, cantered off three-sixteenths before the start, began fast, opened up a wide advantage easily and, maintaining a fast pace throughout, won handily. KENTUCKY BLUES, moved up between horses on the stretch turn, stood a drive gamely and, after disposing of PANIC RELIEF, held others safe. BILLBO saved much ground, moved up rapidly soon after reaching the stretch and went evenly in the final eighth.

Time, :24, :47 2-5, 1:12 4-5, 1:38, 1:45. Two dollar mutuels paid: Blackthorn, $12.20 straight, $6.00 place, $4.00 show; Erla, $7.80 place, $4.60 show; Indian Head, $4.60 show. Winner trained by F. P. Letellier. Went to post at 4:44.

BLACKTHORN, impeded when forced wide by IMPERIAL PAL on the first turn, was kept under strong restraint for three-quarters, raced to the lead rapidly and, taken in hand in last seventy yards, won with something left. ERLA took command with a big saving of ground, was well rated and held on with good courage, but was no match for the winner. INDIAN HEAD, also forced wide on first turn, was rated under light restraint to the final quarter, where he failed to rally under pressure.

SQUEEZER, taken to inside immediately after the start and lucky to get through next to rail when beginning to move up on the second turn, came out for the drive and, holding on tenaciously, was up in the closing strides. GOLDEN NUT, outrun for three-quarters, during which he saved ground, came to extreme outside in stretch and, closing boldly, was strongest of all in the final stages. CROSS RUFF forced the early pace under restraint, swerved out when racing into command on stretch turn and stood a long drive gamely, but was not good enough.

POLLY RITA, well up from the start and rated along under steady reserve to the final five-sixteenths, gained gradually without need of strong pressure and, holding on well to the end, held SPICSON safe. Latter, badly outrun early, slipped through on inside when coming with good belated speed in the stretch. SIS AGNES, under restraint early, was racing well when caught in close quarters entering stretch, rallied when clear but hung near the end.

RAILROADS ADD NEW TRAINS AND INCREASE SPEED

New York Central Puts 4 in Service.

Additions of new trains connecting Chicago with middle western and eastern points and faster schedules for existing trains, effective Sept. 27, were announced yesterday by the New York Central system and the Grand Trunk-Canadian National railways. The Burlington railroad announced that it will place the Sam Houston Zephyr in service between Houston and Fort Worth, Tex., Oct. 1.

The New York Central will install four new trains, two of them serving Chicago, and will speed up the schedule of others as much as an hour. The changes are being made to coincide with the date that New York and other eastern centers return to standard eastern time from daylight saving time.

Century Departure Changed.

The Twentieth Century will continue to be operated on a 16½ hour schedule between Chicago and New York, but its Chicago departure time will be changed to 4:30 p. m. Chicago time and from New York to 5:30 p. m. eastern time, with arrival at New York at 9 a. m. eastern time and at Chicago at 10 a. m. Chicago time.

One of the new trains out of Chicago will be the Michigan, which will provide service between this city and Detroit. It will leave here at 9 a. m. Chicago time and arrive at the motor city at 1:55 p. m. eastern time. Westbound it will leave Detroit at 9 a. m. eastern time and arrive here at 2:55 p. m. Chicago time.

The second new train will be the Air Liner, which will be operated between Toledo and Chicago, leaving the Ohio city at 7:10 a. m. eastern time and arriving here at 11:50 a. m. Chicago time. Of the other two new trains, one will provide nightly service between New York City and New York state points and the other will be the westbound Knickerbocker from New York to St. Louis, serving Cincinnati, Indianapolis, Peoria, and other cities. The train now runs only eastward.

Run Cut 25 Minutes.

The running time of the Commodore Vanderbilt will be cut 25 minutes between New York and Chicago, the new schedule being 17 hours 10 minutes. Eastbound it will maintain its present schedule of 17 hours 20 minutes. The time of the eastbound Wolverine—Chicago-New York—will be reduced 30 minutes to a 17 hour 50 minute schedule.

The sharpest cut in running time will take place on the Southwestern, whose scheduled run from New York to St. Louis will be reduced an hour, making the trip in 21 hours and 58 minutes.

The time of the North Shore Limited will be quickened by 10 minutes from Chicago to New York, the Trans-Atlantic Limited 45 minutes, and the Iroquois 10 minutes. Five minutes will be cut off the New York Central streamliner, the Mercury, running between Cleveland and Detroit.

Goes on Fastest Schedule.

Commencing Sept. 27 the Maple Leaf will be operated on the fastest schedule in its history between Chicago and Toronto, the Grand Trunk-Canadian National announced. Between the two cities the running time will be quickened 1 hour and 15 minutes. It will leave Chicago at 11:30 a. m. Chicago time starting Sept. 27 and arrive at Toronto at 10:35 p. m. eastern time. A new train to be placed in service will leave Chicago at 10 a. m. Chicago time, giving connections with Indiana and Michigan cities, and arrive at Port Huron, Mich., at 5:36 p. m. eastern time.

The Sam Houston Zephyr will run the 250 miles between Houston and Dallas in 250 minutes and will require an additional 45 minutes for the run from Dallas to Fort Worth. It will make a round trip daily, leaving Houston at 7:55 a. m., arriving at Dallas at 12:05 p. m. and at Fort Worth at 12:55 p. m. In the other direction it will leave Fort Worth at 6 p. m., arrive at Dallas at 7 p. m. and at Houston at 11:10.

CARNEGIE PLANS GENERAL PARLEY ON WAGE BOOSTS

Pittsburgh, Pa., Sept. 21.—(AP)—A spokesman for the Carnegie-Illinois Steel corporation said today protests by the workers against President B. F. Fairless' refusal of a wage increase will be considered later at a general parley.

Employé representatives at many of the company's sheet, tin, and steel mills have demanded higher pay in reply to Fairless' letter of Sept. 8 to the employés in which he said an increase could not be granted "at this time."

The latest protest came today from representatives of 5,000 workers in the Clairton, Pa., plant.

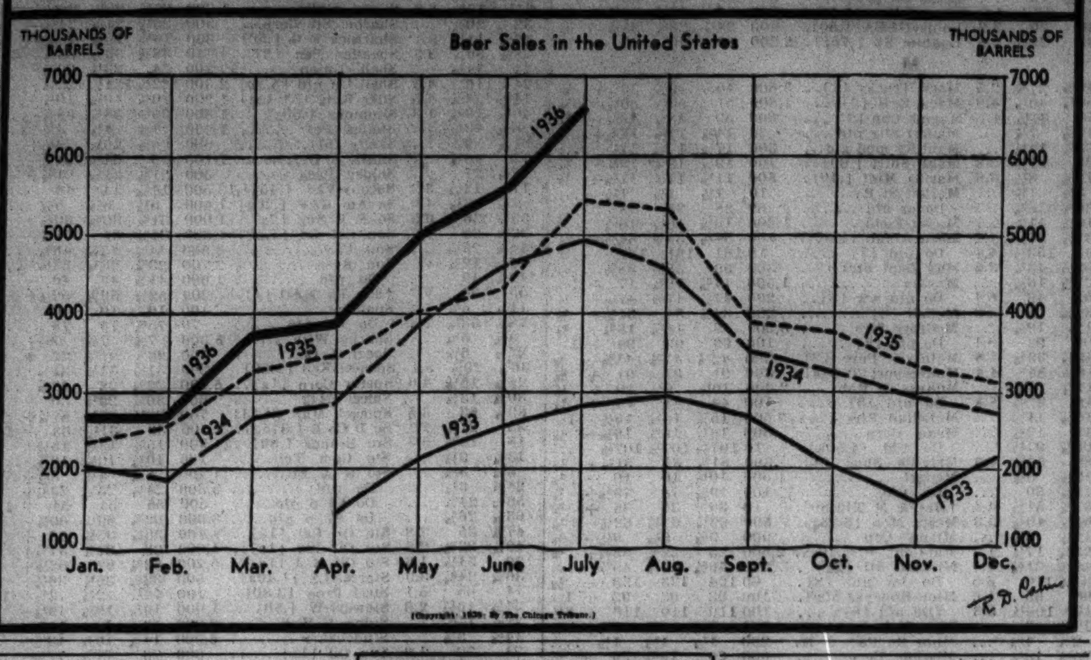
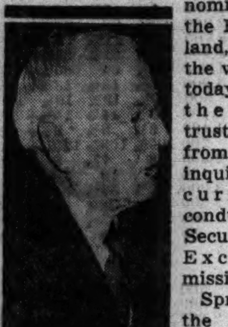
Beer Drinking Is Increasing—July Set a New Post-Prohibition Record



Defends Trust Operations at SEC Hearing

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., Sept. 21.—Dr. O. M. W. Sprague, one time New Deal treasury expert and former economic adviser to the Bank of England, appeared on the witness stand today to defend the investment trust business from a New Deal inquisition, the current inquiry conducted by the Securities and Exchange commission.



O. M. W. SPRAGUE.

Sprague quit the treasury in 1933 because he disagreed with the administration's fiscal policies, especially on gold, and now serves on the advisory board of the Massachusetts Investors Trust as well as occupying positions with industrial concerns. Since the trust was in the SEC frying pan for the day, Sprague had been summoned. The SEC is conducting the inquiry ostensibly for the purpose of recommending legislation to congress.

Income Prime Consideration.

Statements of James Austin, SEC attorney, that the trust had purchased only popular securities which did not rise as rapidly as others aroused Dr. Sprague.

"The primary purpose of a trust of this kind," declared Sprague, "is to gain an income rather than the questionable appreciation of speculative stock. This policy makes for a slow, cautious development."

Austin questioned the wisdom of the trust in purchasing gold stocks which did not rise in value.

"These gold stocks yielded 7, 8, and 9 per cent and we were unable to find any others with such a high return," asserted Sprague. "We could have sold Homestake and bought Steel common. We would have had appreciation, but no income."

The history of Massachusetts Investors Trust, largest "open end" trust [no limitation on number of shares] in the country, was traced by the chairman of its trustees, Merrill Griswold of Boston.

Griswold testified that up to Sept. 12 of this year a net total of $90,500,000 had been received from the sale of its shares at liquidating value. The net worth of the trust, based on market values prevailing was approximately $110,000,000. Thus there had been a total gain to investors from operations of the trust of about $19,500,000 and in addition $9,000,000 had been distributed in dividends.

Griswold said that because of its policies the trust would qualify for exemption under the revenue act of 1936, falling within the category of "mutual investment trusts." Attorney Austin hinted that the word "mutual" would be used for sales promotion but Griswold countered with the fact that the treasury had made the classification, not the trust.

Austin hammered away at sales costs. He pointed out that the public had entrusted a total of $83,600,000 with the trust from 1927 to 1935. It had cost $5,900,000 to sell the stock to the public Austin pointed out from the records.

ROOSEVELT APPROVES GRANTING 9½ MILLION FOR PUBLIC PROJECTS

Washington, D. C., Sept. 21.—(AP)—Secretary Ickes today announced President Roosevelt's approval of 103 public works projects involving federal grants of $9,531,459 and loans of $264,500. Projects approved comprised the second batch of allocations from the $300,000,000 set aside from the revolving fund by congress during the last session.

The total cost of the 103 projects, including the 45 per cent federal grants, was estimated at $21,733,568. Projects approved today brought to 494 the total approved so far this month, with the whole cost estimated at $65,670,560.

Illinois—Riverton, waterworks, grant $38,454, loan $47,000; East St. Louis, paving, $42,706; Metropolis, court house addition, $33,341; Jonesboro, waterworks, grant $22,090, loan $27,000; Du Page county, paving, $90,000; Maywood, waterworks improvement, $145,637; Orangeville, school addition $16,363; Tazewell county, school $3,272.

Iowa—Oelwein, waterworks improvement, $21,150; Joice, school, $5,727; Jefferson, hospital, $45,000; Dunlap, Willow Township, school buildings, $2,250; Creston, school, $36,900; Melbourne, auditorium, $9,450.

Michigan—Crystal Lake township, auditorium-gymnasium, $24,545; Chelsea, disposal plant, $27,000; Detroit, highway improvement, $41,630; Millington, school addition, grant, $5,809, loan $3,500; Algonac, waterworks, $27,000.

BOARD RECEIVES BIDS ON 16 NEW STATE ARMORIES

Bids were received yesterday by the Illinois armory board on the construction of sixteen downstate armories at an estimated cost of $1,600,000, the labor to be supplied by the Works Progress administration. Previous bids were rejected last Sept. 11 and the board voted to readvertise the projects and ask for new bids.

The sites for the proposed armories are at Dixon, Elgin, Sycamore, Champaign, Delavan, Pontiac, Streator, Mount Vernon, Salem, Joliet, Oak Park, Waukegan, Rock Falls, Urbana, Carbondale, and Lawrenceville.

Roy D. Keehn, National Guard commander and head of the armory board, said the bids would be studied and the awards would be announced soon. There were about 175 bids received, he said.

COURT REFERS GAS CASE FOR MASTER HEARING

The suit of the Peoples Gas Light and Coke company asking an injunction to restrain the Illinois Commerce commission from preventing a temporary increase in gas rates was referred yesterday to Master in Chancery William R. Swissler for hearing by Circuit Judge Stanley H. Klarkowski.

The utility seeks to increase its rates pending completion of a rate case now pending before the commerce commission. The company maintains that present rates are too low to afford a reasonable return on the investment and asks a boost of $3,000,000 annually. The commission already has denied the company authority to make the temporary increase.

Stocks React After Upturn; End Irregular

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

New York, Sept. 21.—The stock market closed irregularly today after most stocks had worked into new high ground in early dealings. Best prices were reached soon after the start of trading, but a desire on the part of speculators to take profits on the bulge cut into advances considerably and in not a few instances substituted losses for gains.

According to one recognized set of averages the industrial section suffered a slight setback for the day, while the rails finished unchanged and the utilities—the most active stocks of the session—lost a little. However, more plus than minus signs were apparent in the closing table.

Volume Largest Since July.

Trading broadened considerably, with the high speed ticker tape reeling off more sales than it has since last July. Total volume for the five hours amounted to 1,767,170 shares. The utilities accounted for a substantial share of the business as a result of the administration's call for a parley of power executives to consider the formation of a power pool in the Tennessee valley.

Large blocks of lower priced power shares changed hands in the early dealings, with the feature being the exchange of a block of 30,000 shares of Commonwealth and Southern at 3¾, up ¼. Final prices in the group, however, showed little change from those of the previous session.

United States Steel opened ¼ higher and then settled back to close fractionally lower. Bethlehem also lost ground, while Crucible, after recording a new high for the year, was hammered down 1⅛ points.

"Blue Chips" Are Weakest.

So-called blue chip issues felt the late pressure most. Westinghouse sold off more than 4 points; American Can and Eastman Kodak dropped 1⅛ each. Gains of 1 to 4 points were posted by a group of miscellaneous stocks, including Clark Equities, Johns-Manville, Schenley Distillers, Hazel-Atlas Glass, Briggs-Stratton, Borg-Warner, Lerner Stores, Continental Can, and Crown Cork and Seal.

Wright Aero continued its erratic behavior, falling 8 points. Douglas, however, reversed the procedure, finding enough support to boost it 2⅝ points. Rail shares were spotty. Union Pacific and Atlantic Coast Line proved strong spots.

Rail equipment shares brought higher prices and mail orders exhibited strength. J. I. Case was a good farm implement. Shell Union got a good play in the oil section and Phillips Petroleum was bid up more than a point.

School Board to Redeem $926,553 in Tax Warants

A call for payment of $926,553 in tax anticipation warants was issued yesterday by James B. McCahey, president of the board of education. Interest stops next Friday. The warants called are: 1933 building fund, B-14451 to B-14554; 1933 playground, P-2095 to P-2099; 1934 building fund, B-6627 to B-6643; 1934 playground, P-354 to P-355; 1935 educational, E-592 to E-662, and 1935 playground, P-3.

Co-operating with Trust Institutions as Counsellors in estate building

The function of the trust institution is largely that of conservation. Any growth program designed to maintain or increase ultimate purchasing power must be purely incidental to this primary function of conservation.

Estate building requires intensive research and constant field checking, as well as active management and vigilant supervision.

Because of our facilities and experience in this difficult field, our services are frequently recommended by trust institutions. Your investigation is invited.

CORN FUTURE SLUMPS FOUR CENTS A BUSHEL

Break Dispels Fears of 'Squeeze.'

September corn fell 4 cents a bushel yesterday on the Chicago Board of Trade with the approach of the expiration date on the future. Trading in the September future ends next Saturday, after which deliveries may be made during the remainder of the month.

The break in the price appeared to dispel all possibility that a "squeeze" would develop in the contract before the end of the month. Fears of a squeeze were due to the unusually small stocks of corn in Chicago elevators eligible for delivery on the market. Reports yesterday, however, indicated that new crop corn from central Illinois would be available in the Chicago market within a few days.

While September corn broke sharply, distant futures showed declines of less than a cent a bushel and wheat prices advanced along with other world markets.

Corn Lower at Close.

The closing quotation on September corn was $1.11⅛ a bushel as compared with Saturday's last price of $1.15. September wheat closed at $1.14¾, a half cent above Saturday's close.

Wheat markets here and abroad showed pronounced strength. Prices in Liverpool touched the highest point since 1930 while Winnipeg sold at new peaks for the season. Liverpool prices advanced 2⅝ cents per bushel. Gains in Winnipeg wheat futures exceeded 2 cents.

Action of American wheat markets was dominated entirely by foreign developments. Winnipeg messages reported heavy buying by exporters, and export sales were estimated at 3,000,000 to 4,000,000 bushels. As a result of the continued strength in the Canadian market, small lots of American Pacific coast soft wheats were arranged for shipment to the United Kingdom and Japan.

Reject Japanese Order.

One fair sized order from Japan was said to have been rejected because of inability to obtain freight room. The threatened longshoremen's strike, scheduled to become effective Sept. 30, greatly hampers business.

Closing prices on the September delivery of leading grains in Chicago, with comparisons, follow:

	Yesterday.	Saturday.	Week ago.	Month ago.
Wheat	$1.14¾	$1.14¼	$1.12⅞	$1.10⅜
Corn	1.11⅛	1.15	1.12⅞	1.11⅛
Oats	.42⅝	.42¾	.41⅝	.43⅝
Rye	.83¾	.82¾	.83	.82⅞

United Kingdom millers were liberal buyers of Canadian cash wheat in Liverpool, it was said. Because of the practical exhaustion of supplies of old wheat in Australia and in Argentina, Canada is said to have little competition in the world market at present.

Insurance Leaders Demand Balanced Budget, Less Taxes

Boston, Mass., Sept. 21.—(AP)—The National Association of Life Insurance Underwriters, in a resolution adopted unanimously, called tonight for "a balanced federal budget, curbing of public expenditures, and reduction of taxation."

Accomplishment of these three factors, the resolution added, was necessary to "avoid uncontroled inflation." The association is holding its annual convention here.

The resolution called on members of the association and policy holders, whom the committee numbered at 63,000,000, to "call upon their elected representatives, both in the house and senate, to fulfill the pledges made by both major political parties "to curb expenditures and reduce taxes."

Policy Holders Fear Inflation.

"Many policy holders fear," the resolution asserted, "that the possibility of unlimited inflation might result in the reduction of the purchasing power of the proceeds of their policies, the income from annuities, or income settlements. This is of great concern to them."

Action to "stop propaganda against life insurance by coming into the open with facts instead of claiming an impossible perfection" was urged by Roger Hull, managing director and general counsel for the association.

"Life insurance can no longer ignore critics and carpers," he said. "Let's offset distortion of facts such as have been published by making the best defense a good offense. Let's construct an immediate and aggressive plan of public enlightenment."

Assail Social Security Act.

Yesterday the trustees of the association attacked the social security act and said they sought a cabinet post "to safeguard the interests of sixty-three million policy holders."

"Not for a long time has anything come out of Washington which has had such an unsettling effect upon the institution of life insurance as this program," the trustees said in a statement on the social security act. "Incorporating, as it does, the primary principles of protection for old age, it offers no new provisions from the life underwriter's point of view."

STOCK EXCHANGE WILL USE NEWSPAPER 'ADS' TO EXPLAIN FUNCTIONS

New York, Sept. 21.—[Special.]—Expanding its policy of "selling itself" to the public, the New York Stock exchange is advertising in the newspapers tomorrow morning in its own behalf for the first time in its history.

The advertisments will appear in 350 newspapers throughout the country during the next two weeks. Newspapers are being used exclusively on the ground that they are the best advertising medium, it was stated. In the past, the stock exchange has confined itself to direct mail activities, such as the sending of descriptive booklets and speeches of exchange officials to libraries, institutions and persons who requested such material.

In the advertisments, the exchange calls attention to a booklet, recently published, entitled "New York Stock Exchange, Its Functions and Operations," which will be sent free to any one requesting it. It is an elementary primer describing how the stock exchange functions as a market for securities. At the back of the booklet there is a glossary in which technical words and phrases are defined.

ALTORFER BROS. WILL PAY $2 ON BACK DIVIDENDS

Altorfer Brothers company, whose stock is listed on the Chicago Stock exchange, yesterday announced a dividend of $2 will be paid on accumlations on the convertible preference stock Oct. 10 to stock of record Oct. 1.

The Lerner Stores corporation declared an extra of 50 cents in addition to the regular quarterly of 50 cents a share on the common stock, both payable Oct. 15 to stock of record Oct. 5.

FRANC WEAKER; MORE GOLD WILL BE SENT TO U. S.

French francs were weaker yesterday as reflected in a widened discount on franc futures, and gold continued to pour out of France as engagements were made late Saturday and yesterday of $6,725,000 for shipment from Paris to New York.

This boosted the total of French gold moving to the United States since early August to about $110,000,000, while from all sources this country has received nearly $150,000,000 in that period. Steamers arriving at New York yesterday brought $21,032,700 in gold from France and $904,500 from England.

The spot quotation on francs in New York remained at 6.58⅜ cents, the initial level for profitable shipments of gold, but the 90-day rate of francs dropped to about 6.20 cents to the franc, compared with 6.24 cents over the week-end.

ESTIMATE STEEL RATE AT 74.4%, BEST SINCE 1933

Steel industry operations this week will advance to 74.4 per cent of capacity from 72.5 per cent last week, the American Iron and Steel institute estimated yesterday. The current rate is the highest since the institute started its record in 1933. The previous high for this year was 74 per cent, attained in the last week of June. Operations a month ago averaged 72.5 per cent and the rate a year ago was 48.9 per cent.

The current showing is attributed to a number of factors, among them being purchases by manufacturers seeking to fill their needs before prices are raised on certain items and strong demand from the automobile industry. Operations in the tin plate division of the steel industry also are continuing at a high level.

BRANDS SOCIAL SECURITY PLAN BLOW TO LABOR

BY HOWARD WOOD.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

San Francisco, Cal., Sept. 21.—Workers employed by private industry eventually will be forced to pay 12 per cent of their wages in direct and indirect taxes to support only one New Deal spending experiment—the social security program—Philip A. Benson, president of the Dime Savings Bank of Brooklyn, New York, and head of the savings division of the American Bankers' association, said today at the opening session of the A. B. A. annual convention.

Benson's criticism was a surprise to the delegates, among whom he is being prominently mentioned as a candidate for election to the key job in the association, that of second vice president. According to A. B. A. tradition the banker elected to that position would automatically become president two years hence.

Cites Vast Fund Contemplated.

Benson pointed out that the fund called for under the provisions of the social security act would eventually amount to 47 billion dollars, extracted from individual workers in direct and indirect taxes and invested in United States government bonds.

"Investment" of the fund in government bonds, he pointed out, means that the money will be borrowed by the government and spent. Benson declared that plan to be so unsound that the reserve fund idea should be abandoned entirely.

"As one considers social security and the recent federal social security act," he said, "one contemplates with amazement the result that the act may have throughout the years to come. All contributions under the act are in reality a tax, and a tax not to provide for current expenditures, but to create a vast reserve fund.

Foresees More Federal Debt.

"Figures used by the United States senate indicate that in 1980 there will be a reserve fund of 47 billion dollars. This reserve, you will remember, must be invested in bonds of the United States government. If sufficient obligations do not exist they are to be created and are to bear three per cent interest. The government will, therefore, borrow from itself and one pocket will pay interest to the other pocket."

Benson said he feared that the social security act, hurriedly rushed through congress, may adversely affect those individuals whom it was supposed to benefit if involuntary savings through government edict go beyond the capacity of the individual in further providing for his own security and that of his family.

CHICAGO today is one of the three healthiest large cities in the world. The Sanitary District has been primarily responsible for the drop in the typhoid fever death rate in Chicago from 173 per 100,000 in 1891 to less than 1 per 100,000 in 1935.

To keep your glass of water wholesome, the Chicago Sanitary District had to turn the Chicago and Calumet rivers away from Lake Michigan. The entire project, with plants capable of treating 1,230,000,000 gallons of sewage per day, 56.6 miles of canals and 197.5 miles of intercepting sewers, compares with the Panama Canal in magnitude.

Among the many accomplishments of Chicago, none is more striking than the Sanitary District. The banks of Chicago for many years have played an important part in financing the maintenance and improvement of this project.

BRANDS SOCIAL SECURITY PLAN BLOW TO LABOR

he said, "the employé eventually will give up twelve per cent of his pay roll involuntarily to provide for the government plan of social security. The act prescribes only three per cent eventually for the employés' contribution to be deducted at the source; but all the taxes provided in the act, totaling twelve per cent when the entire tax is in force, from a tax against the pay roll, which to the manufacturer represents what goes to his employés and is merely a factor of cost to be included in his final price.

"Hence the question, which arises in my mind, is whether the working man will be able to give up this initial amount of three per cent of his pay, the hidden tax of nine per cent [which, while assumed by the employer, will really be included in the cost of production and thus result in a higher cost of living], and at the same time provide independently for his own welfare.

Doubts Worker Able to Pay.

"There is a point at which the individual goes beyond his capacity to save. Will that capacity be so strained as to bring distress, It is a point that we should study and to which we should contribute our best thought."

Benson also forecast a decline in bond prices.

"To invest savings in long term bonds at present prices, even though they are of excellent quality, means not only a low yield but—what is more serious—the risk of loss through substantial market price depreciation, which will occur when interest rates go up as eventually they must."

The depositor and not the bank will take the rap in the event that drastic inflation occurs, Rudolph J. Eichler, Los Angeles investment banker, said in an address before the savings division.

Asks: How Will U. S. Pay?

"If there is an implication that the government might be unable to meet its obligations at maturity or pay the interest when due, this seems to be a groundless fear, as providing for payment of principal and interest does not seem to me to be a problem," Eichler said. "If we knew that the government debt was going to be stabilized around present figures, I think we could all agree that it could be easily handled, but, at any rate, even countries with the weakest credit do not usually default on internal obligations.

"The problem is simply: In what kind of money will they pay? This is a question that affects the depositor of a bank—and not the institution."

Dr. Ray Lyman Wilbur, president of Leland Stanford university, speaking before the same group warned the bankers that political "social security" schemes are likely to lead to ultimate insecurity for all.

Can't Care for Everybody.

"Any civilization that is built up with the idea that the mass of people is big enough to take care of everybody without the individual person looking out for himself is doomed to failure," he said. "We can look back in history and see how such civilizations have failed, time after time. People in the mass can make mistakes, and terrible mistakes."

COAL MEN PLAN FIGHT TO RETAIN FUEL DOMINANCE

New Association Tells Plans for Drive.

BY PHILIP HAMPSON.

Announcing that henceforth they propose to put up a strong fight to regain their position in the supplying of the nation's fuel needs, members of the newly organized American Bituminous Retail Coal Merchants' association yesterday opened their first annual convention at the Stevens hotel. The organization is composed of 67 regional groups having a combined membership of about 15,000 retail merchants located in sections of the country in which bituminous coal dominates the coal market. These groups handle about 50,000,000 tons of coal a year.

"We have been in somewhat the same position as the railroad industry," George I. Methe, Chicago, president of the association said. "Many have considered the bituminous coal industry, just as they did the railroads, as somewhat moribund.

Plan to Adopt Rail Tactics

"The railroads came to life and met the competition of trucks, buses, and airplanes with streamlined passenger service and improved freight service. We propose to follow similar tactics. We have good fuel which has many natural advantages over those of our competitors and we propose to exploit."

Methe said that bringing together the bituminous retailers, the producers at the mines and the railroads at the convention should produce many helpful results for the industry.

"We want the mine producers to give us the kind of coal that will appeal to the public," Methe said. "The coal we want must be easy to handle, should be clean and produce as little smoke as possible.

"This is a mechanical age. Many of our competitors sell fuel used for heating purposes that may be controled by the homeowners by pushing buttons on floors above his furnace. We who sell coal want to be able to have our fuel handled as easily."

Stokers Much Improved.

Methe pointed out that remarkable strides having been made with mechanical stokers which make it easy to handle coal, either in the home or factory. These stokers, operated by electricial control, enable the householder to keep his furnace operating without going near the fire, he explained.

"The next big objective," he said, "is the development of devices which will take the ashes from a furnace and deposit them in boxes at the alley. When that is accomplished we shall have all the mobility from coal that our competitors have. Our engineers have been working on this development for sometime and I forsee a practical device of this nature within three years."

LARD PRICES OFF SHARPLY; CLEAR BELLIES UNCHANGED

Prospects of a liberal increase in the movement of hogs in the west and persistent selling attributed to hedging operations by cash interests, carried lard futures off sharply yesterday. Closing trades were at the bottom with net losses of 20 to 27½ cents.

Clear bellies (salt pork) closed nominally unchanged. Cash lard was held at $11.37½ per 100 pounds; loose, $11.00; leaf, $11.50 clear bellies, $13.25. leaf, $11.50; clear bellies, $13.25. Range of futures follows.

CUDAHY'S NEW PLANT IN SOUTH

CUDAHY TO OPEN ALL GLASS PLANT IN SOUTH OCT. 13

Building Windowless and Air Conditioned.

The Cudahy Packing company announced yesterday that its new half million dollar "glass" packing plant at Albany, Ga., will be formally opened Oct. 13. The building strikes a new note in industrial plant design and is said to be the first windowless and air conditioned packing plant in the world.

The plant, which with its accompanying live stock pens and runways occupies an area of about 1,250,000 square feet, was completed sixty-three working days after the building contract was let and the excavating had been done.

Plant of Radical Design.

The walls and roof consist of 30,000 glass blocks, each eight inches high, eight inches wide, and four inches thick. It is asserted that the blocks are of definite value in transmitting and diffusing light. The blocks are translucent but not transparent.

More than 600 carloads of material were used in constructing the plant, including 900 tons of structural steel. The pylasters which reinforce the walls at regularly spaced intervals are made of glazed tile.

The main section consists of a basement and two stories above ground. The slaughtering is done on the top floor. The first floor is occupied by coolers, freezers, cutting, packing, and shipping departments. Capacity of the plant is 1,000 cattle, 7,000 hogs, 350 sheep, and 350 calves per week. Separate buildings are provided for the power plant, employés' dressing rooms, and government inspectors' offices.

In keeping with the ultramodern design and construction, the plant is equipped with the latest approved refrigerating system. The building is air conditioned throughout, affording comfort to the 400 people employed when the plant is operating at capacity.

E. A. Cudahy Jr., president of the company, said that the growing importance of the south as a live stock producing area was the principal reason for the company's decision to build the Albany plant. Heretofore the company maintained plants only in the north.

CLOSING COTTON TRADES ARE 8 TO 14 POINTS LOWER

Southern hedging pressure dominated the action of the cotton markets yesterday and more than offset trade and far eastern buying. Closing trades were at net losses of 8 to 14 points in leading American markets [a point is equal to 1-100 cent per pound or 5 cents per bale].

BUSINESS BITS

Directors of Peoples Gas Light and Coke company yesterday ordered the following promotions: Albert L. Tossell, secretary and assistant treasurer, becomes vice president in charge of customers' service, a new office; Eskil I. Bjork, assistant secretary and assistant treasurer, becomes assistant vice president and assistant controler; James A. Cunningham becomes secretary and assistant treasurer; Frank L. Griffith, vice president in charge of accounts, becomes vice president and controler; William R. Weldon, treasurer, also assumes the duties of assistant secretary; William C. Galloway, assistant secretary, also becomes assistant treasurer.

Executives of the Clearing Industrial district will meet tomorrow at the La Grange Country club for the district's championship golf match. The two low gross scorers among the nearly 100 expected to enter the match will play 36 holes next Sunday for the championship. There will be a dinner at the club tomorrow night.

Five hundred persons are expected to attend the dinner to be given Thursday evening by the Chicago Stock exchange for the members, partners, and customers men at the Union League club. Speakers will be Thaddeus R. Benson, president of the exchange, and Wallace R. Winter, vice president. Virgil C. Webster, chairman of the public relations committee, will preside. This is the second in a series of events forming a large public relations program. Order clerks, phone clerks, and recorders were entertained several weeks ago.

Frederick R. Ward, former superintendent of the bar and structural mills of the Jones & Laughlin Steel corporation at Pittsburgh, has become associated with the Republic Steel corporation as assistant superintendent of the finishing mills and special process department at the South Chicago works.

NEW OLDSMOBILE FOR 1937 TO BE MUCH DIFFERENT

Engines Reported Larger, and Bodies Roomier.

BY HAL FOUST.

Detroit, Mich., Sept. 21.—[Special.]—The Oldsmobiles, both the six and eight, have been restyled for 1937, it was learned here unofficially today. In appearance they differ decidedly from the current models and they also differ from each other.

Engines will be larger, delivering more horsepower, faster acceleration, and higher top speed, it was said, and the bodies are longer and wider.

Production, in a plant enlarged this summer at a cost of $6,350,000, will start early next month with a formal presentation of the models for the national automobile show opening on Nov. 11. Detailed information on mechanical improvements and accurate information about prices must await the formal presentation.

New Models Seen on Highway.

Models built in advance of assembly line production—built for engineering testing and proving—have been seen on the highway between the factory at Lansing and the General Motors proving grounds at Milford, Mich. The eight has a honeycomb grid grill and the same type of grid for Louvre treatment. The grill of the six consists of chromed horizontal slots, somewhat like the shutters on some phonographs.

Headlights hug the hood. A tail light high on both sides of the body also serves as sidelights, a new safety factor for night driving. Another tail light floods the rear license plate in the center rather than on the left side of the car.

Floors Will Be Lower.

Floors will be lower, giving easier accessibility for passengers, and a lower center of gravity without sacrificing headroom. Luggage compartments have been enlarged.

The Fisher bodies used by all General Motors units are all steel for 1937 for the first time. Heretofore they have been a combination of wood and steel. The 1937 Oldsmobiles represent the first decided change in styling by this manufacturer since its 1935 jobs which set a new mode in radiator treatment.

OWENS-ILLINOIS TO MAKE CANS IN PLANT HERE

Will Open Big Factory on South Side.

The Owens-Illinois Can company, a subsidiary of the Owens-Illinois Glass company, yesterday announced that it will open a large can manfacturing plant at 6105 West 65th street within the next few months.

This was one of the few definite indications that Owens-Illinois Glass, which produces more than 40 per cent of all bottles and glass containers used in the United States, will make a serious bid for the metal container business in the country.

Enters Can Making Field.

Owens-Illinois entered the can manufacturing business a little more than a year ago, hiring Fred A. Prahl, vice president of Continental Can for many years, to become president of the new Owens-Illinois Can company. Several can plants have been purchased and the company has expanded its activities in this direction.

Cans for fruit, vegetables, and similar products primarily for Chicago trade will be manufactured in the Chicago plant, said Prahl yesterday. He said that cans for beer will not be manufactured.

Will Install Machinery.

Prahl announced yesterday that machinery will be installed within the next few weeks in the Chicago property just leased in the Clearing Industrial district. Production of cans is expected to begin early in 1937, he said. In addition to leasing the one story building with 100,000 square feet of floor space, the company has taken an option on adjoining property to permit expansion. The piece under option contains 200,000 square feet of floor space.

Prahl said the new Chicago plant will employ several hundred men at the start.

BUSINESS LOANS EXPANDED BY MEMBER BANKS

Total Rises 64 Millions in Last Week.

An expansion of 64 million dollars in commercial bank loans last week was shown in the statement of reserve member banks in the 101 principal cities of the country, released yesterday. The increase marked a continuation of the gradual growth in this type of credit, which has been under way for several weeks.

Aggregate commercial loans of the reporting banks now are $3,862,000,000. On July 15, the date on which the ebb tide of commercial credit demand is usually reached, commercial loans amounted to $3,597,000,000. The expansion since the midsummer low has amounted to $265,000,000. The so-called commercial loans are classified in the reserve statement as "other loans" to distinguish them from collateral loans and real estate loans.

All Loans Increase.

An aggregate expansion in all types of bank credit of $181,000,000 was shown for the commercial banks. In addition to the gain in business loans there was an increase of $126,000,000 in bank holdings of government securities. The statement covers the week ended Sept. 16, during which the treasury sold $400,000,000 of new 20 to 23 year government bonds.

The report reflected the heavy flow of funds into the federal treasury which resulted from quarterly income tax payments as well as sale of new bonds. The reserves of the member banks with the central banks were $240,000,000 less than a week earlier.

Aggregate deposits of the banks showed little change for the week. The total for all reporting banks was $8,000,000 below the previous week.

WALGREEN OPENS BIG ADDITION TO HOME OFFICE OF DRUG CHAIN

He was Richard Lloyd Jones of Tulsa, Okla., editor and publisher of the Tulsa Tribune and a son of the late Jenkin Lloyd Jones, founder of Abraham Lincoln center, not far from the new Walgreen building.

Jones sounded a warning against regimentation of industry and pointed to the business initiative of the founder of the Walgreen chain in contrast to federal despotism and its customary lack of initiative.

The building, designed by A. Epstein, contains 35,000 square feet of floor space, enlarging the present building by more than 50 per cent. The ceilings are acoustically treated and the rooms have indirect lighting. The company has approximately 500 employés in the office building, which is only a short distance from Walgreen's first drug store.

BUTTER AND EGGS DECLINE; POTATO PRICES OFF 1 CENT

Consumer resistance to the prevailing high butter prices dominated the action of the market on the Chicago Mercantile exchange yesterday. November butter declined ½ cent and closed at 32⅝ cents per pound on selling induced by the slow movement of the spot article into consumptive channels.

Egg futures declined ¼ to ⅜ cent with October contracts closing at 25½ cents per dozen. Cash eggs were unchanged at ¼ cent higher, the first change in the price in nine days. Potatoes lost a cent, with November closing at $2.34 per 100 pounds. Warmer weather over the mountain states was a factor. Sales of butter futures totaled 130 cars; eggs, 40 cars; potatoes, 8 cars; cheese, 2 cars. Range of futures follows.

FEDERAL TAXES TOP 542 MILLION FOR TWO MONTHS

Collections Rise 16 Pct. Over Year Ago.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 21.—[Special.]—Internal revenue collections for July and August totaled $542,352,774, compared with $466,600,853 in the first two months of the previous fiscal year, the treasury announced today. The increase of $75,751,921, or more than 16 per cent, came despite a net loss of $28,185,264 in processing taxes, which were eliminated under a Supreme court decision last January.

The income, excess profits and "unjust enrichment" taxes amounted to $71,450,339, an increase of $23,948,301, or more than 50 per cent, over the corresponding two months the year before, and other miscellaneous internal revenue totaled $358,953,473, an increase of $59,495,706.

Postpone "Enrichment Tax."

While the "tax on unjust enrichment," or the levy on refunded processing taxes, appeared on the monthly statement combined with excess profits and income taxes, there has been no collection of these levies. Originally they were to have been paid Sept. 15 but a postponement to Dec. 15 was allowed by the treasury.

Manufacturers' excise taxes yielded $82,450,326 for the two months, a gain of $16,273,920 over the corresponding period last year. The gain was considered significant of the continued increase in industrial production.

In the income and excess profits group, corporation taxes accounted for $49,399,317, an increase of $19,276,514; individual income taxes, $20,374,510, a gain of $3,361,903, and excess profits taxes $1,676,511, an increase of $1,310,383.

Liquor Taxes Increase.

Taxes of all types of distilled and malt liquors, domestic and imported, amounted to $111,927,807, an increase of $20,471,524 over the same month of the preceding year. Tobacco taxes were $97,593,912, an increase of $9,259,485. Stamp taxes amounted to $10,645,447, an increase of $1,415,225.

In the manufacturers' excise tax group gasoline yielded $37,064,500 for the two months, an increase of $4,573,087 over the same period last year. Other taxes included: Capital stock, $109,428,128, increase of $24,048,082; estate tax, $38,581,906, increase of $3,576,646; gift tax, $2,952,251, increase of $2,723,504, and social security taxes, $21,154. Miscellaneous taxes totaled $17,301,499, an increase of $2,198,841.

Cigaret Output in August Sets Record; 12% Over '35

Washington, D. C., Sept. 21.—[Special.]—Production of regular small cigarets in the United States last month totaled 13,430,194,843 units, a new high record and increase of 12.6 per cent compared with a year ago, internal revenue figures disclosed today. For the same month, however, output of chewing and smoking tobacco showed a reduction of 18.6 per cent. The total was cut from 27,311,032 pounds a year ago to 23,014,224 pounds last month.

Jewel Tea Co. Reports 11.26% Increase in Sales

The Jewel Tea company yesterday reported sales for the four weeks ended Sept. 5 of $1,506,248, compared with $1,353,787 for the corresponding weeks of 1935, an increase of 11.26 per cent. For the first 36 weeks of this year sales totaled $13,655,446, against $12,752,587 for the same period a year ago, an increase of 7.08 per cent.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

New York, Sept. 21.—The strong demand for second grade bonds carried over into the new week and was translated into gains of one to two points on a substantial increase in trading. Many of the old favorites bettered their previous highs and many of the convertibles advanced smartly.

Rail issues rode higher on renewed demand as higher steel operations and a threatened shortage of coal cars pointed to heavier business for the carriers. Increased demand for coal, bureau of mines officials have said, was due largely to increased activity in the heavy goods industries, particularly in steel production.

Rail and Coal Bonds Higher.

While some of the gains in the rail group were shaved a bit on late profit realizing, the majority closed in higher ground. "Katy" adjustment 5s of 1967 moved up 3 points, the 5s "A" gained a point and the 4½s "D" 1⅞. Lehigh Valley general 4s of 2003 gained 1⅛ to a new 1936 high at 70. Atlantic Coast Line 4½s added a point, New Orleans, Texas and Mexico 5s of 1935 rose 2¾ and North Western general 5s gained 2 points.

Coal company obligations also advanced, although some gains were nullified in late selling.

Pressed Steel Car 5s Advance.

Pressed Steel Car 5s jumped 4¼ to a new 1936 peak of 110¼ on prospects of substantial railroad equipment buying. Other industrial loans were fractions to a point or so higher. The utility section was uneven throughout the session and final prices showed a majority of losses. Portland General Electric 4s proved an exception and advanced 1⅞.

Government issues were languid until late in the day, when support lifted the list 1-32 to 6-32. Several reacted a little.

Volume reached $13,042,000, face value, the greatest in the last ten days, and compared with $12,648,000 last Friday.

North American Light and Power.

Investors' Guide: Information about North American Light & Power preferred stock, earnings for this year so far, and other information will be appreciated.—J. S.

Answer: North American Light & Power Co., incorporated in 1924, is a holding company exercising varying degrees of control over public utility operating units in Illinois, Iowa, Missouri, Kansas, and Nebraska. Controled in turn by the North American company, its wholly and partly owned subsidiaries supply one or more services to a combined population in excess of 1,618,000. Of the 900 communities served, about 800 receive electric light and power.

After building up to a record net income of $5,410,000 in 1930, earnings dropped off sharply, the worst year being 1933. Some improvement has since occurred.

For the 12 months ended June 30, 1936, gross revenues were up to $43,640,000 and net was $705,000, or $3.66 per preferred share, compared with gross of $41,043,000 and net loss of $981,000 the preceding 12 months. The record of the last five years follows:

1934	40,829	*707,000	*3.64	*0.52
1933	39,756	*1,029,000	*5.30	*0.79
1932	40,894	268,000	1.38	*0.50
1931	46,304	4,216,000	20.77	1.75

*Deficit. †Common stock outstanding increased from 1,710,959 shares in 1931 to 1,789,815 in 1932; 2,789,815 in 1933, and 3,623,149 in 1934.

Capitalization now consists of 194,180 shares of $6 dividend cumulative preferred, on which arrears were $24 per share on July 1, 1936, and 3,621,199 common shares, on which no cash dividends have been paid since 1929.

The $17,848,000 5½ per cent debentures, due 1956, on which interest has been paid, appear somewhat speculative. Fixed charges were only 99% covered in 1935, 95% in 1934, 93% in 1933, 1.02 times in 1932, and 1.3 times in 1931. Charges were covered 1.05 times in the 12 months ended June 30, 1936.

Both the preferred and common stocks are highly speculative. North American company owns 73 per cent of the common.

SUGAR

NEW YORK, Sept. 21.—(AP)—SUGAR—Raw was quiet today and prices were unchanged at 3.50c per lb for spots, with no sales reported. Except for steadiness in the spot month as a result of covering, futures were generally lower under further liquidation of November and scattered hedge selling, promoted by the disappointing action of the spot market. Final prices were net unchanged for the spot month, 4 points lower on November and on new crop positions. Sales, 9,950 tons of which 4,700 tons were in November.

Raw sugar prices in cents per pound:

THREE CONCERNS TO OFFER ISSUES OF STOCK TODAY

Chicago Firm to Handle 25,000 Shares.

Public offering will be made today of three stock issues by industrial concerns. Compressed Industrial Gases, Inc., of Chicago, through A. G. Becker & Co., will market 25,000 shares of capital stock at $42 a share; Locke Steel Chain company, Bridgeport, Conn., will sell 104,000 common shares at $12.50 a share, and the Wolverine Tube company of Detroit will offer 140,000 common shares at $12 each.

Proceeds from the sale of the Compressed Industrial Gases deal will be used in part to acquire a 50 per cent interest in a Pacific coast company. The concern manufactures and distributes oxygen, acetylene, and hydrogen in midwestern and southern states.

No New Financing.

Hedden & Co. will offer the Locke Steel issue. The deal does not represent new financing, the shares having been acquired from stockholders. Of the block offered 6,500 shares may not be available for delivery until after Jan. 1 next. Underwriting discounts were reported at $2.50 a share, leaving gross proceeds of $1,040,000 or $10 a share to stockholders.

The Wolverine issue will be marketed by a syndicate headed by Laurence M. Marks & Co. Of the shares offered 50,000 are being sold by the company, which will use the net proceeds for additional plant equipment and working capital. The remaining 90,000 shares are being sold by individual stockholders who will receive the proceeds. Stockholders recently approved an increase in capitalization from 200,000 no par shares to 600,000 shares of $2 par common and the exchange of one share of old common for three shares of new.

Register Stock Issue.

A proposed issue of common stock to realize a maximum of $13,056,446 and a minimum of $7,978,939 was submitted yesterday to the SEC for registration by Remington Rand, Inc.

The proposed issue covers 290,143 26-100 shares of stock, to be represented by an indeterminate number of purchase warrants, subject to approval of the stockholders of a plan of recapitalization at a meeting today.

Pacific Gas and Electric company announced yesterday that it will file a statement with the Securities and Exchange commission today covering an offering of $35,000,000 of bonds. The issue will consist of series I 3½ per cent bonds.

Purpose of the financing is to provide funds for the redemption of $35,780,000 general and refunding mortgage 5 per cent bonds, which are redeemable Jan. 1, 1937, at 100 and accrued interest.

COCOA

NEW YORK, Sept. 21.—[Special.]—Aggressive buying attributed to manufacturing interests disclosed a lack of pressure on the cocoa market and futures closed 13 to 16 points higher. Sales were 212 lots of 30,000 lbs each. Range of prices in cents per lb:

TALL spires, high casements in the sky—these were once but the tentative mental sketches of a person—the architect. ℭ A great novel, a China Clipper, a Boulder Dam—these, too, are but the projected ideas of a man or men. ℭ Behind the busy and varied functions of a great financial institution and amid the intricate rhythm of its daily income and outgo are, likewise, persons. ℭ There are human beings, in fact, in the background of every such phenomenon. ℭ The American National strives never to lose the sensitive and reassuring touch of persons in its daily contact with customers and public.

HOGS DECLINE ON LIGHT DEMAND FOR FRESH PORK

Irregular Trend Shown in Cattle, Sheep.

Influenced by sluggish demand for wholesale fresh pork throughout the east and middle west last week, buyers of live hogs were cautious in making bids at the stockyards yesterday. Further price concessions of 10 to 25 cents were necessary before the bulk could be moved. The decline in pork markets has been more rapid than the break in hogs so demand was not broad enough to absorb all offerings. Approximately 3,000 head were left unsold. The top fell to $10.50, paid for prime 255 pound hogs, the lowest since July 15. The average price yesterday declined 10 cents to $9.65.

Most better grades of 200 to 225 pound light butchers sold at $10.15 to $10.35, with 175 to 190 pound averages of the better grades at $9.60 to $10. Lighter weight 140 to 160 pound stock ranged from $9 to $9.25.

Pigs Medium Grade.

Most pigs consisted of common to medium grades selling from $6.50 to $8. Prime 340 pound butchers sold at $9.60, and 378 pound stock at $9.35, while a range of $8.40 to $9.35 obtained the bulk of the 300 to 500 pound sows.

An irregular trend developed for the 24,000 cattle offered. Light long fed steers and yearlings met broad demand at strong to slightly higher rates, while medium and heavy steers were weak to 25 cents lower. A new high of $10.50 was established for 1,037 pound stock, the highest sale here since April 15 and 15 cents above last week's top.

Most beef steers brought $8 to $10. Grassy and short fed steers were steady to slightly lower. Hefers were generally steady, some bringing stronger prices in sympathy with better grade light steers and yearlings, but beef cows, canners, and cutters were weak to 15 cents lower.

Bulls, Calves Steady.

Bulls and calves were mostly steady, although heavy calves were slow. There was a wide selection of stockers and feeders and these were steady to lower prices.

Sheep receipts at 25,000 were the largest since the middle of April, 1935. A large share of the run consisted of feeding and breeding stock off the range. Fat lambs of choice quality were scarce and steady, both native and western stock selling to packers, city butchers, and shippers at the $10 top. Medium and poorer classes were weak to 25 cents lower. Old ewes were slow at $3.50 and below. Farmers paid $8.50 for best western feeders, steady with last week's close.

How You Can BORROW at HOUSEHOLD
No Salary Assignments.
REDUCED RATES
ON ALL LOANS ABOVE $100

1. Whether or not you have furniture or a car, you can borrow here if you can make regular monthly payments.
2. Payments on all loans are small. For example, payments on a $200 loan are $10 per month plus interest charges on a 20 month schedule.
3. You do not need co-makers or endorsers.
4. You can secure the money quickly—the same day if you apply before 9 o'clock.
5. Household's rate of 3% per month on the first $100 and 2% per month on that part of the balance over $100 is substantially lower than the lawful maximum on all loans above $100.
6. Repay at any time and reduce the cost.
7. Private offices. Your problem will have our sympathetic attention.

Packard Mod. 1100 Sed.

If you get a "kick" out of mechanical performance and appreciate lasting beauty together with correct design, finest workmanship and materials, we suggest you see and ride in this 1934 Packard 5 pass. sedan. It is in the original Packard blue finish, elegantly upholstered in finest broadcloth, and fitted with hardware of rare taste. The entire car presents the well groomed appearance of motor cars whose owners have been exceptionally careful in handling and driving. The mileage on this car is negligible. Complete equipment includes wire wheels, General heavy duty white wall tires, Kelch heater with 2 outlets, spot light and dual equipment thruout. Guaranteed mechanically.
